Many Attend Flower Show

Over 130 guests attended the joint flower show sponsored by the Northside and Klamath Falls garden clubs, Aug. 25, at the city library. General chairmen of the event were Mrs. George LaSalle, Northside club, and Mrs. Bernard Valk, Klamath Falls club.

Posters suggestive of each of the decorative classes of the show's theme, "See America First," were designed and executed by Marcia Goehring, Klamath Union High School art student.

Birds were prominently featured on the stage by bird feeders, birds' nests and species of shrubs and trees which supply their food, all arranged in a garden setting by the Northside club. Nyback's Flower Fair and Bill and Rita's Flowers displayed commercial exhibits.

The plant sale held in conjunction with the show was conducted by Mrs. George Olson, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Merle Jackson, Northside.

The silver tea was under the direction of Mrs. Curt Heidrich, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Lewis Kandra, Northside. A Bonsai tree exhibit was displayed by Mrs. Dick Evans, Fort Klamath.

Special awards included: Tricolor, an arrangement of predominantly fresh material, Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, in the "Hedwoods" class; Award of Distinction, arrangement of predominantly dried material, Mrs. Bernard Valk, in the "Waikiki" class; Award of Merit, best horticultural specimen, Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, gladioli.

Judges for the show were from the Siskiyou District, and included Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, Mrs. Lester Gordon and Mrs. R. D. Kay, all of Central Point; Mrs. Olin Poe and Mrs. R. T. Nichol of Medford; and Mrs. M. C. Overgaard of Wolf Creek.

WEDDING SET—A Thanksgiving Day ceremony will unite in marriage Betty Lou Collie and Hayward L. Roland. Their engagement was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mixon. The future bride is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and is employed by Olson Motors. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roland, Ashland, Ala., is presently employed by Weyerhaeuser Company.

Able Instructors Slated For School

The Flower Show School scheduled for Monday and Tuesday will be taught by two women well-known in garden club activities. Mrs. Allen B. Scott, Corvallis, and Mrs. Joe E. Wolff, Bellevue, Wash. Both come to the flower show school highly recommended by other groups who have benefited from their knowledge and experience.

All interested persons are invited to attend the school. Registration will be at 8 a.m. in the Klamath Auditorium. Classes begin at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Scott, who will instruct classes in horticulture, is a graduate of Oregon State University.

Mrs. Wolff, who will instruct classes in flower arranging, has been a professional Japanese flower arranger for 10 years, and a flower show school instructor for six years. Her hobby is a small greenhouse where she raises foliage plants and orchids.

Mrs. Wolff in the National Flower and Garden Calendar on a competitive basis, have appeared in numerous publications as well as in "The Flower Arrangement Calendar" by Helen Van Pelt Wilson.

TO BE INSTALLED — Shari Meade will be installed as worthy adviser of Rainbow for Girls, Assembly 57, on Sept. 21 at the Scottish Rite Temple, 632 Walnut Avenue. The public is invited to the ceremonies which will start at 7:30 p.m. A dance will follow the installation.

INSTRUCTOR — Mrs. Allen B. Scott will instruct classes in horticulture at the flower show school Monday and Tuesday at the Klamath Auditorium.
