Four Classes Stage Reunion

One of the largest and most successful affairs of the late summer season was the reunion of four KUHS classes, 1933, 1934, 1935 and 1936, held last month. Class chairmen, in that order, were Joan Totton, Marie Ragland, Margaret Ann Whitlatch and Tessie Dempsey.

Approximately 400 ex-students and teachers registered at Molitor's Restaurant. Many were from out of town and all were greeted by a huge sign spanning the street on which Jack Dempsey painted, "Welcome Home Teachers and Students, Classes '36, '35, '34 and '33."

At the final count, the class of '36 had the largest registration. All but 19 of the original class of 197 members were present. Class of '35 was next in attendance.

One dissenting note to the otherwise perfect event was the absence of Paul T. Jackson, school principal for these classes, and Mrs. Jackson. The Jacksons were en route from their home in Washington to attend the reunion, but while stopping in Portland, Mrs.

Jackson fell, injuring her hip and making further travel impossible. A double celebration had been planned for Mr. and Mrs. Jackson who were to celebrate their 41st wedding anniversary on the reunion day.

After many informal and impromptu gatherings in the afternoon, the crowd assembled that evening at Reames Country Club for a social hour followed by a dinner and dancing to the music of Pete Colley's Orchestra.

Mayor Robert Veatch was emcee for the dinner entertainment which included talks by Roberta Blomquist and Alice Howard, who spoke for Paul Jackson.

Decorations for the party were elaborate and featured the red and white school colors and the pelican. Written across a staff as musical notes behind the head table was "Klamath High I Love You." Tables held bouquets of red and white flowers flanked by black pelicans.

A special guest was Otto Wilkoski, who is remembered as a good friend to all students during his years as school custodian. Now

PROTECT CHINA

Protect your best china with disposable plate liners. Simply place a section of paper toweling between each plate, saucer or cup before stacking dishes. The soft "liners" will prevent chipping and scratching.

83 years old, he came from Alabama to renew his old friendships. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilkoski, his daughter, Jeanette Nance, and her son, Stanley Nance.

Numerous prizes were given to conclude the program. On Sunday, many enjoyed boat rides and breakfast get-togethers.

FAREWELL PARTY

BONANZA—Mrs. John Brown and Trudy Brown gave a farewell party at the Bonanza library on Aug. 28 in honor of the senior class of 1963. They brought their annuals and signed them and Mrs. Brown showed movies she had taken through their school years, including their skip day and graduation. Refreshments were served at the close of a pleasant evening. Attending were Trudy Brown, Diane Martyr, Joan Fernlund, Mikki Wescott, Glenda Albert, Fleur

POOR EAT MORE

NEW YORK (UPI)—A survey by three doctors in New York City showed a startling relationship between obesity and socioeconomic status. Thirty per cent of the women from the poorest levels of society were overweight. Only four per cent of the women in the top brackets were classified as obese.

PLAY PINOCHLE

BONANZA — Mrs. George Simmons recently entertained her pinochle club at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Homer Dixon in Dairy. Mrs. Walter Ritter won high prize for the evening. Mrs. Howard Schmidt, second, and Mrs. Don Horsley, traveling. Refreshments were served at the close of cards to the prize winners, and Mrs. Bob Horton, Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mrs. Howrey Roberts and Mrs. Bud Rueck.
