

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen Herald and News
Klamath Falls, Oregon Sunday, Sept. 15, 1963

Marian Roberts, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Innis Roberts, will be a sophomore on the Oregon State University campus, studying biological science. Last year she attended OTI. This summer she was assistant water safety director at the Camp Fire Girls camp and instructor and life guard at the city pool.

Carol Shannon, above, leaves the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shannon, for her junior year at University of Oregon where she is a Chi Omnia pledan. Previously attending Lewis and Clark College, she is a general social science major and plans to teach history. This summer she attended summer school at the university.

Ready for her junior year at Wilamette University is Vicki Howie, left. Her majors are art and language. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Howie, Vicki has worked the past three summers at Crater Lake Park.

Bonnie Lake, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lake, looks over books she will take back to Pacific University for her sophomore year in elementary education with a goal of special education. She is a member of Phi Lambda Omicron sorority. She was an employe of Ward's this summer.

At right is Kathy Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr. This year will be her second at Oregon State University where she studies home economics education. She is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Marvi Wayburn, right, returns to the University of Oregon as a mathematics major and student of the Honors College. As a sophomore, she will reside in her sorority, Pi Beta Phi. During the summer she has worked in the store of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wayburn.

Above, Janet Fowler packs for her second year at University of Oregon where she is a mathematics major in the school of education. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler, she accompanied her parents this summer for a vacation at Jasper Park to interrupt her employment at her father's business.

— Photos By Kettler