Owls Preparing For Ramblers Saturday Night

The Oregon Tech Owls are preparing today to play host to the semi-pro Seattle Ramblers. The Rambler gridders and the Techmen will engage in a gridiron battle on Modoc Field, Saturday, Sept. 21, at 8 p.m.

The Ramblers are an amateur independent football team who draw their personnel from former collegiate, high school, and sandlot players in the Seattle area. Not one member, from the coaches down, receives a penny of compensation for his efforts.

The Ramblers do not share in gate receipts in the games in which they participate. Besides playing rugged football, the Ramblers can boast they also have raised over $75,000 for charity.

Head coach Bill Castrow claims that only those persons who are participating for the love of the game make up the Seattle Ramblers. No training rules are laid down as all the players go by the principle that "You are playing for fun. If you are not in shape and the man across the line from you is kicking the hell out of you, you are not having fun!"

Overthe years, the Ramblers have earned a reputation for good sportsmanship and clean play.

The Ramblers are financed by Seattle businessmen. Without the assistance of the "boosters" an organization such as the Ramblers could not exist.

Although the Ramblers play for the "love of the sport" they also enjoy being in the winning column. To help them in their winning ways the Ramblers have eight linemen that tip the scale over 240 pounds. Behind that line they place a group of speedy backs headed by former University of Washington star Ray Jackson. The Rambler offense of '62 riddled the '62 Owl defense for 35 points. The Owls hope to reverse the score this season and it appears they will have to work to upset the unwieldy crew from Seattle.

Tennessee Favored As Victor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Southern California, the national champions of college football last year, Army and Tennessee are top-heavy favorites to win their opening games of the new season Saturday.

The Trojans, who visit Colorado, and the Cadets, who entertain Boston University, both are 21-point picks. Tennessee, which opens at home against Richmond, is a 20-point choice.

Friday night's schedule is expected to produce closer contests. The oddsmakers listed an intersectional clash between UCLA and Pittsburgh as even-money, while Texas is only a 2-point choice over Tulane, and Miami of Florida is an 8-point pick over Florida State.

Other Saturday odds:

EAST: Navy 7 over West Virginia, Syracuse 11 over Boston College.

SOUTH: Maryland 3 over North Carolina State, Duke 6 over South Carolina, VMI 12 over George Washington, North Carolina 13 over Virginia, Alabama 14 over Georgia, Kentucky 12 over Virginia Tech, Louisiana State 8 over Texas A&M, Mississippi 14 over Memphis State, Vanderbilt 14 over Furman.

MIDWEST: Bowling Green 7 over Detroit, Miami of Ohio 7 over Xavier, Northwestern 7 over Missouri, Kansas State 3 over Brigham Young, Cincinnati 12 over Drake.

SOUTHWEST: Oklahoma 13 over Clemson, Auburn 3 over Houston, Washington State 6 over Texas State, Arizona State 17 over Wichita, Arkansas 15 over Oklahoma State.

WEST: Arizona 1 over Utah State, Oregon 2 over Penn State, California 3 over Iowa State, Washington 6 over Air Force Oregon State 13 over Utah, Stanford 17 over San Jose St.

Pel Booster Club Meeting

The Pelican Booster Club will hold its weekly meeting tonight at the Chuck Wagon Restaurant, beginning at 6:30.

Coach Bob Williams will have the film of the Klamath-Grants Pass game and some questions concerning the second touchdown by Grants Pass should be answered. All KU fans will be interested in that portion of the film especially.

George Demetrakos also will have a film on refereeing.

Yanks Have Limited Set Of Seats

NEW YORK (UPI) — Here's a bit of advice if you haven't already mailed your World Series ticket requests to the New York Yankees:

Forget it.

And then in 1964 remember that you must mail in your request within 24 hours after the tickets go on sale or it will be just too late.

The Yankees announced at 7 p.m. Tuesday night that they are putting a "limited number" of box and reserved seats on sale for the first, second, sixth and seventh games.

Customers must buy a "set" consisting of one ticket to each of the four games and cannot buy more than two "sets." All applications must be accompanied by a certified check, banker's cashier check, U.S. money order or Express money order and $1 must be added to the cost of the tickets to cover mailing costs.

Prices are $48 for a "set" of box seats, $32 for reserved seats and $16 for bleacher reserves.

Checks should be made payable to the New York Yankees and mailed to Yankee Stadium, Bronx, 51, New York. Orders postmarked prior to 7 p.m., Sept. 17, will be rejected.

Cheney Studs Beaten In Meet

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (UPI) —Coldwater, Mich., trounced the Seattle Cheney Studs 11-1 here Tuesday night to win the American Amateur Baseball Congress championship.

The loss kept the Seattle nine from winning its second national title. The Studs won the title in 1960.

Coldwater scored four times in both the first and fourth innings and three times in the seventh to win the game.

Chisox Hurling Keeps Twins In Third Position

By United Press International

It takes only a quick look at the American League standings to see that Chicago pitchers are still ahead of Minnestoa hitters.

And therein lies the story of the race for second place in the AL.

The Minnesota Twin musclemen go on hitting homers at a pace that may make them the second greatest homer-hitting team in major league history. But the White Sox go on winning on their blend of short hits and sturdy pitching to hold a one-game margin over the Twins.

The White Sox retained their margin with a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night while the Twins raised their season homer total to 210 when they hit two in a 3-1 triumph over the Detroit Tigers. The 1961 New York Yankees set the major league mark of 240 but the Twins need only 12 more to become the second best team of window-breakers in baseball history.

The Cleveland Indians defeated the Yankees, 3-2 in 10 innings and the Kansas City Athletics scored a 4-3, 10-inning victory over the Washington Senators in other AL action.

In the National League, Los Angeles beat St. Louis, 4-0; San Francisco drubbed Milwaukee, 11-3; Cincinnati shaded Houston, 4-3; Philadelphia topped New York, 8-6; and Pittsburgh won, 4-3, after a 3-1 loss to Chicago.

Hoyt Wilhelm retired nine of 10 batters in the last three innings, striking out five, to preserve Joe Horlen's ninth win for the White Sox. A walk to Horlen and doubles by Mike Hershberger and Joe Cunningham produced the White Sox' runs while Eddie Bressoud singled home Boston's tally.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 39th homer, moving him to within one of league leader Dick Stuart, and Earl Battey hit a two-run homer in the eighth for the Twins. Rookie Dwight Siebler struck out seven and pitched a four-hitter to win his second game.

Max Alvis led off the 10th inning with a single and eventually scored the winning run for the Indians when pitcher Stan Williams threw wildly to first base after fielding a bounder to the mound.

Tenth-inning singles by Jerry Lumpe and Norm Siebern — the third hit of the game for each — set up the winning run for the Athletics with Lumpe scoring on Manny Jiminez' sacrifice fly.

Braves Give 'Spahn Day' In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — It was the past, present and future all rolled up in one.

It mattered little to 33,676 baseball fans that their man of the evening — Warren Spahn — got shelled from the mound in the third inning and lost his seventh game of the season.

Strengthening rumors that the Braves were headed for Atlanta, Ga., also were forgotten by the largest baseball crowd in County Stadium in two years. They shrugged them off and cheered when told their actions signified "a rebirth of Braves spirit" that made Milwaukee a miracle town in the 1950s.

It was Spahn's night — a night he won't soon forget.

Escorted to the dimly lighted field in a shower of fireworks, the 42-year-old Spahn, who more than any other person signified the saga of the Milwaukee Braves, continually dabbed at his watering eyes.

"I'm the luckiest guy in baseball. God bless you and thank you from the bottom of my heart," he said.

That was all. No prolonged speeches. No presentations outside of token gifts to Spahn, his wife, LoRene, and their son, Greg, 14.

LoRene received a silver jewel case, Greg a riding saddle.

Spahn got a woodworking machine from his teammates and a $1,100 check from the Braves organization.

The check was given to the Warren Spahn Scholarship Foundation along with a donation from Spahn himself, some from other individuals in the community and from the proceeds of the sale of special "Spahnie Buttons."

The foundation, which now has approximately $30,000, will send at least two Wisconsin students to the college of their choice next fall.

INDIANS HIRE ROSEN

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Al Rosen, who starred on Cleveland's 1954 pennant winning team, will serve as coach for the Indians during spring training in Tucson, Ariz., next year.

Rosen will work with the young players, concentrating on their batting problems, club president Gabe Paul said.

Musial Breaks Up No-Hitter

By United Press International

Walt Alston discreetly declined to claim the pennant today and Johnny Keane stubbornly refused to concede it, thereby making them the only two persons alive who are in the dark about the eventual National League winner.

Everyone else, including the oddsmakers who have made them prohibitive favorites, figure the Dodgers are home free.

Sandy (The Dandy) Koufax all but deflated the Cardinals completely when he pitched his record-breaking 11th shutout for a 4-0 victory that increased the Dodgers' lead to three games with only 10 more left for them to play.

"It's not over yet," pointed out Alston with his characteristic caution. "We still have another game with the Cardinals."

Keane took the same tack.

"We still have enough games left (eight) to win the pennant," said the hopeful St. Louis manager. "We never considered this game or any other game up to now 'a must'."

The 27-year-old Koufax had a no-hitter until Stan Musial led off the seventh inning with a single, and went on to achieve his 24th victory with a four-hit effort.

Koufax' 11th shutout established a major league record for left-handed pitchers and represents the most by any pitcher since Grover Cleveland Alexander set the all-time mark of 16 shuouts in 1916.

Loser Curt Simmons (15-8) started the game with a string of three straight shutouts and 28 consecutive scoreless innings but the Dodgers snapped that in the first inning when Maury Wills singled, advanced to third on a stolen base and a wild pitch and loped home on Jim Gilliam's double to left.

That run would have been ample for Koufax, who did not walk a man and struck out four to run his record NL strikeout total to 288, but Frank Howard staked him to two more when he homered with one on in the eighth and Johnny Roseboro doubled home the Dodgers' fourth run off reliever Barney Shultz in the ninth.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Giants drubbed the Braves, 11-3, the Reds edged the Colts, 4-3; the Phillies battered the Mets, 8-6; and the Cubs beat the Pirates, 3-1, in the opener of a twi-nighter but dropped the nightcap, 4-3.

A crowd of 33,676, the largest of the season in Milwaukee, turned out to honor Warren Spahn but the Giants drove him from the box after three innings with his seventh loss against 20 victories. Spahn was tagged for four runs on five hits, including homers by Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou. Jose Pagan also homered.

Reliever Al Worthington hurled 7-1-3 scoreless innings against Houston and Bob Skinner hit an eight-inning homer to provide Cincinnati with its victory.

Seven homers were hit in the game between the Phils and Mets, Johnny Callison leading Philadelphia's attack with his 22nd and 23rd homers as well as a pair of singles. Cookie Rojas and Roy Sievers also homered for the Phils while Pumpsie Green, Joe Hicks and Frank Thomas connected for the Mets.
