Mount Shasta Vows Recited

MOUNT SHASTA—Rosalie Pope and Bryce Vernon were married Aug. 31 in St. Anthony's Church by the Rev. Michael Myles in an impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Pope, Mount Shasta, is a graduate of Mount Shasta schools, and of the College of the Holy Names, Oakland. She has attended Sacramento State College.

The bride wore a wedding gown of champagne colored peau de soie, with chapel train, and a Sabrina neckline. Her veil was bouffant champagne colored, centered with a rose. She carried white baby roses with green foliage.

Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Sarah Jane Anchor, Mount Shasta. Her gown was similar to that of the bride, in a m e r a l d green, street length. Her hat was a circular headpiece of green feathers. She carried a bouquet of green chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Carole Johnson and Jeanette Ryan, Sacramento. Their gowns were similar to that of the maid of honor. Flower girl was Nordeen Spelzini, Mount Shasta.

The bridegroom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vernon, Sacramento, is a graduate of McClatchy High School and Sacramento State College. For best man he chose Delbert Powell, Sacramento. Ushers were Wendell Flint, Sacramento, and John Rizzardo and Richard Merrill, Mount Shasta.

Following the wedding, a reception was given in St. Anthony's parish hall.

The bride's going-away dress was a camel colored walking suit with black accessories.

They will make their home at 3010 O Street, Sacramento, following a honeymoon in the Bay Area.

Couple Wed In Dunsmuir

DUNSMUIR—Sandra Royce Edwards became the bride of Raymond L. Brown on Saturday evening, Aug. 31, in the First Methodist Church of Dunsmuir with the Rev. Wayne Long officiating.

Lace bordered nylon over taffeta was used for the bride's floor length gown fashioned with cap sleeves, a scoop neckline and highlighted with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her elbow length illusion veil fell from a band and bow headpiece and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses.

She was given in marriage by her father, Harvey L. Edwards of Klamath Falls.

Bridal attendants were Edette Palmgren, Paso Robles, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor and Donna Johnson, sister of the bride, and Louise Charles as bridesmaids. The maid of honor's outfit was a yellow eyelet street length dress with matching net headpiece. The bridesmaids wore full skirted dresses in a pale green tone, street length, with scalloped necklines and matching net headpieces. Each carried a single long stemmed white rose with white streamers.

AAUW Board Plans Year

The first board meeting of the AAUW was held on Wednesday, Sept. 4 at the home of Marilou O'Connor, president. Plans for 1963-64 were discussed and enthusiasm is high for an interesting and eventful year ahead.

The first Monday luncheon will be held at the Winema Hotel on Sept. 16 at noon. The speaker will be David Carr, attorney, who will talk on Individual Rights.

Mrs. Frederick Hyde, vice president, will preside at this meeting.

The first Saturday luncheon will take place Sept. 21 at 12:30 at the Winema Hotel. There will be a discussion of the changes and revisions of the AAUW charter and the effects on the Klamath Falls Branch. It is hoped that some local members who have been active in the state and national AAUW will be present.

Any AAUW member who has not been contacted by the calling committee may phone Mrs. Edward Livingston, TU 4-3826.

The date of the annual rummage sale has been changed to Oct. 11 and 12. Mrs. Frederick Krauel will be in charge of this event. She announced that the sale will take place at a new
