American Motors	19 1/2	NEW YORK (UPI) — United Business Service says that stock prices are unquestionably getting into a high area where there is definitely a need for more careful investment policies.
AT&T	124 1/2	However, before that point is reached the firm expects to see such warning signals as a speed-up in odd-lot trading, higher mutual fund sales, intensifying interest in high priced speculation, tighter credit, higher margins and overloaded business inventories.
American Tobacco	27 1/2	The speculation that the bull market will carry everything along with it has led many traders and investors to search for depressed issues at or near their lows for the year. Edward Underwood of Ira Haupt & Co. says, "However, Underwood warns, picking bottoms at any time is a treacherous occupation and at best requires unusual acumen, agility and luck."

Bailey Denies Charge In Contributing Case

A.C.C. Donald R. Bailey told a circuit court jury early today that he had never molested the 10-year-old Klamath Falls girl who charged him with fondling her on two occasions during May and June of this year.

More Sought For Classes At Tulelake

TULELAKE—Registrations are still needed to assure classes in adult education to be taught weekly at the high school.

A wide range of subjects can be offered for both men and women including introduction to astronomy, fine art, water color, ceramics, leathercraft, business law, typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, radiological monitoring, speed reading, conversational Spanish, conversational French, clothing, tailoring.

Upholstery, U.S. History, wood-working, aviation ground school, welding, surveying, auto mechanics, algebra, health and physical fitness, law enforcement, physical geology, real estate practice, public speaking, philosophy, man and society.

In announcing plans to offer the classes, Roger Ellis, dean of education, College of the Siskiyou, said formal registrations will be held in late September. A minimum of 15 registrants is needed for each class. Classes will run for 12 consecutive weeks. Meeting nights will be set by consultation between class members and instructors in most cases.

Crews Halt Small Fire

A small forest fire blamed on a lightning storm nine days ago was discovered and extinguished Tuesday evening on the east side of Riverbed Butte.

The fire warden at Weyerhaeuser Camp 6 spotted the fire and notified the Klamath Forest Protective Association. KEPA fire-fighters subdued the blaze which spread when they arrived.

The fire was the 28th in Klamath and Lake counties started by the lightning storm Sept. 9. The fire had apparently "slept" before flaring up Tuesday.

Airport Job Completed

Refinishing of two city-owned runways at Kingsley Field has been completed.

The two runways, 5,165 and 5,261 feet long respectively, were recovered with asphalt and a sealer and cracks were filled. In addition, a shoulder was laid along each asphalt strip.

City crews did the work, according to airport manager Joe Sawyer. The work cost $30,322.17. Sawyer said the two runways had not been refinished since they were built 18 years ago.

Teachers Plan Timber Topic

Fourth, fifth and sixth grade teachers in county schools will meet Saturday at Henley School to hear a representative of the Weyerhaeuser Co. discuss the timber products industry.

The meeting is one of several held during the year and will begin at 9:30 a.m.

KLAMATH FALLS VISITORS — Barry (left) and Tony Buick, non-identical twins from New Zealand, are visiting in Klamath Falls this week. The boys arrived in the city Saturday and will be leaving Thursday. They are staying with Mrs. E. F. Andersen, 2145 Wiard Street.

Klamath Falls Plays Host To New Zealand Twins

Twin 16-year-old brothers from Masterton, New Zealand, are visiting in Klamath Falls this week before returning to school in their island nation.

Barry and Tony Buick are visiting at the home of Mrs. E. F. Andersen, 2145 Wiard Street. Mrs. Andersen is a friend of the twins' mother, who was reared in Oregon.

Already on this trip—their third to the U.S. from New Zealand—the boys have visited their grandmother in Portland.

Their home is on a sheep farm near Masterton and both are studying agriculture. When they return to New Zealand, they will have only a month more of school before they are finished.

Then, they will take jobs on a ranch to learn more about sheep farming.

The boys arrived in Vancouver, B.C., July 10 aboard the passenger liner Oriana. From there, they motored to Portland and after visiting their grandmother, to Eureka, Calif., where they visited friends.

Mrs. Andersen drove the boys to Klamath Falls from Eureka last Saturday and they will be here until Thursday. They will be leaving for home from Vancouver Oct. 4.

Rites Slated For Young

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 19, from Ward's Klamath Funeral Home for Franklin (Brig) William W. Young, 48, who died in the Southern Pacific Hospital in San Francisco on Sept. 15. Final rites and interment will be in Eternal Hills Memorial Gardens, Rev. Robert John of the First Christian Church will officiate.

Mr. Young had been ill since February. He was born May 9, 1915, and was a World War II veteran. He had been baptized in the First Christian Church and was a member of Crater Lake Division No. 133 Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen and Klamath Falls Lodge No. 1247 BPOE. He had been an employee of the SP for 24 years.

Survivors include the widow, Jennie, of this city; mother, Mrs. Mary Young, Medford; sisters, Marguerite Roughie and Goldie Young, Medford; Betty Joppa, Orangevale, Calif.; Hazel Ward, San Jose, Calif.; Verla Hall, Pakistan, Peggy Wagon, Eugene; brother, Carl, San Luis Obispo, Calif.; stepson, Donald Wilman, this city; also three grandchildren.

Club Plans Trail Ride

The Klamath Ridge Riders and invited guests will stage a camp-out trail ride on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 21-22. The ride will begin at 1 p.m., and camp will be established at Grass Lake, five miles up the trail, where horse feed is available.

Entries Still Open In Wool Event

There is still time to enter the annual Make It Yourself with Wool contest, the home sewing contest for school girls, young marrieds and career girls, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to the National Wool Growers Association and the American Wool Council.

Contests are scheduled in 16 districts in Oregon with state finals slated for Portland, Nov. 3-4. The local finals will be held in late October.

Nationally the contest is conducted in 11 states. Prizes for top winners include a 14-day tour of the Caribbean, a college scholarship, or a share of $35,000 in prizes.

In announcing there is still time to enter, Mrs. Harold Williams of Bonanza, district contest chairman, says the contest levels are geared to the sewing skill of the different age groups. Beginning seamstresses in the sub-deb class, 13 through 15, may enter a skirt, a skirt and sleeveless top or a jumper.

In the junior division for girls 14 through 17 and the senior division for girls, 18 through 21, the entries may be a dress, coat, suit or ensemble.

All garments must be of 100 per cent wool. Mrs. John S. Eville, Lakeview, is co-director chairman. Mrs. H. W. Wait is state contest chairman. Local assistants are Mrs. Earl Mack, Mrs. Bryant Wil-

Police Report Minor Crash

One motorist was cited but no one was injured as the result of a two-car collision at the intersection of Old Midland and Jeseright roads about 2 p.m. yesterday, Oregon State Police have reported.

Cited for failing to yield the right of way was Bryan Spencer Carpenter, 16, 2238 Green Springs Drive.

Police said that Carpenter was westbound on Joe Wright Road when he stopped at an arterial sign intersecting Old Midland Road. As Carpenter drove off after coming to a stop he moved into the path of an automobile operated by William Candra, 56, Box 23, Mount Hebron, who was northbound on Old Midland Road.

The ensuing collision resulted in minor damage to both vehicles. The two cars were driven away under their own power.

Veteran Realtor Is Recovering

Edmund M. Chilcote, veteran Klamath Falls realtor of the firm of Chilcote and Smith is recovering satisfactorily in Sacred Heart Hospital, Eugene, from major surgery on Monday. He is expected to be in the hospital for about three weeks.

He established the business from which he is now semi-retired in 1909.

WEALTH NOT ALL

LONDON (UPI) — The marquis of Aylesbury was reported today to have rejected a bid by an oil firm that wanted to drill wells on his land in the Saverne forest at Marlborough.

"I suppose I might have become disgustingly rich," he told the Daily Express. "But frankly I don't want oil wells in my forest. I prefer trees."

Asphalt Burner

This machine is being used by the State Department of Highways to burn off excess asphalt along the curbs of downtown streets. Refinishing of the streets through the years had built up a point where the curbs were too shallow. A grader follows behind the burner and scrapes up the asphalt burned off.
