

Unknown Protects Golf Lead

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — An unknown youngster set out today to protect a three-stroke lead over a class field in the second round of the $30,000 Portland Open golf tournament.

Gary Floan, 23-year-old pro from Lewiston, Idaho, came within a stroke of tying the Columbia-Edgewater club course record in the first round Thursday with an eight-under-par 64.

He was three strokes ahead of his nearest competitor, Frank Beard, 24, Louisville, Ky. Both Floan and Beard are in their first season as touring pros.

Four players were tied at 68, 12 at 69, 16 at 70, and 13 at 71. Behind the top 47 who broke par 72 were the two favorites, defending champion Jack Nicklaus, the Masters and PGA titleholder from Columbus, Ohio, and Billy Casper Jr., three-time Portland winner from Corona, Calif. Both shot even par.

In contention with 68's were Jim Ferrier, Dean Refram, Buster Cupit and Al Balding. A stroke behind at 69 were Rick Jetter, Duely Wyson, G. O. R. Jones, Gardner Dickinson, Mike Souchak, Stan Leonard, Harold Neece, George Knudson, Tommy Jacobs, Joe Campbell, Mason Rudolph and Bobby Nichols.

WILHELM TO START
SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — Tom Wilhelm, a 260-pound junior from Cleveland, will start at right tackle in Syracuse University's opener against Boston College on Saturday, it was announced today by coach Ben Schwartzwalder.

Time Working For Dodgers, Against Cards

By United Press International
Time will be the Los Angeles Dodgers' strongest ally and the St. Louis Cardinals' most deadly opponent tonight when they head into the final 10 days of the National League pennant race.

With the magic number for a Dodger pennant-clinching standing at five, the Dodgers open a three-game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates at Los Angeles while the Cardinals start a two-game set with the Reds at Cincinnati. A Dodger victory and a Cardinal loss tonight would reduce the magic number to three and mean Los Angeles could clinch as early as Sunday.

The Dodgers will send side-wheeling Don Drysdale to the mound tonight in quest of his 18th victory with the Pirates giving Don Cardwell (13-15) the assignment against him. The Dodgers hold an 11-4 season edge over the Pirates, who have lost four of their last six games.

The Cardinals, all but mathematically eliminated from the race when they lost three straight to the Dodgers in St. Louis, will open tonight with Ray Sadecki (10-8) or Ernie Broglio (16-8) on the mound opposing the Reds' John Tsiouris (10-8). The Cardinals have won only six of 13 previous games with the Reds this season.

Hope For Repeat
Actually, the Cardinals' only real hope is that the same paralyzing lightning that struck the Dodgers in the closing 10 days of the 1962 season will hit them again.

Exactly a year ago, on Sept. 20, 1962, the Dodgers also held a four-game lead over the San Francisco Giants. The Dodgers stood 99-54 and the Giants were 95-58. The Dodgers then won only two of the last nine games while the Giants won six of their last nine to create a playoff in which San Francisco "stole the Dodger flag."

All practical considerations, however, favor the Dodgers. They play all their remaining games at home, they have Sandy Koufax at the height of his pitching brilliance this year whereas a year ago he was handicapped by a finger ailment that had sidelined him since July, and in Ron Peranowski they have a peerless relief pitcher who still is strong despite 65 appearances so far this season.

No Games in National
There were no games played in the National League Thursday and in the American League's only two games the Detroit Tigers beat the Minnesota Twins 8-6 in 13 innings and the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Baltimore Orioles 7-2.

Al Kaline drove in four runs, hit two homers and a single and tripled in the winning run for the Tigers in a three-hour and 55-minute struggle in which 42 players participated. Kaline's four runs batted in increased his season total to 100. Phil Regan, fifth Detroit pitcher, posted his 14th victory against eight losses.

A crowd of only 476, smallest in the majors this season, turned out at Los Angeles to see Bo Belinsky pitch a five-hitter against the Orioles for his second win of the season and first since being recalled from the Pacific Coast League. The Angels clinched the game with a four-run eighth-inning rally during which Bob Perry and Bob Rodgers homered.

Biondolillo Leads Bowling

PORTLAND (UPI) — National doubles champion Jack Biondolillo rolled a 701 series Thursday night for professional honors in a pro-am tournament preceding the City of Roses Open bowling tournament which began here today.

Biondolillo rolled games of 254, 234 and 213 to collect the $1,000 first prize with the help of amateur partner M. E. Delzell of Grants Pass. Delzell has a 573 series and a 147 handicap. High individual game honors went to Joe Joseph with a 269. The pros began tournament action this morning.
