Experts Okay Tunnel Under English Channel

LONDON (UPI) — A 10-man committee of experts today recommended the construction of a railroad tunnel under the English Channel to establish the first permanent link between the British Isles and the continent.

A bridge, the committee of Anglo-French experts concluded, could be built in about the same time but would cost about twice as much. The committee also said bridge would constitute "a new and serious hazard and source of delay to maritime and naval shipping in the Straits of Dover, one of the busiest shipping channels in the world."

The straits also are subject to dense fog about 27 days a year. A tunnel, the report said, was preferred over steps to improve existing means of cross-channel transportation by sea and air ferries.

Africa is said to produce 97 of every 100 carats of diamonds mined in the world.

Weekly Recreation Report Lists Fishing Prospects

LAKEVIEW — Fishing is fair on the Sprague and Sycan rivers of the Paisley Ranger District, according to the weekly recreation report from the Fremont National Forest.

The Chewaucan River is poor for fishing, and Campbell and Deadhorse lakes have been fair. Roads are passable but dusty. Trails can be used but there is a warning of fallen timber. Fire danger is moderate due to showers in some areas, but grass areas will dry out quickly with sun and wind.

People using the Benny Creek forest truck roads on the Silver Lake district are cautioned to watch for logging traffic. Campers are told to bring their own drinking water to the Silver Creek Marsh or East Bay campground. Fishing is fair to poor on streams and fair to good at Thompson Reservoir. Fire danger is high.

There is plenty of room for those who wish to use the campgrounds on the Warner district. The roads are in good condition; recent showers have settled the dust in some areas. Fishing is fair to small streams; all waters are ripening. Fire danger is moderate but still potentially dangerous, and extreme care is requested.

Fishing is good at Cottonwood Meadow Lake in the Dettens Valley district with limits of fish up to 18 inches being caught. Fish are good eating with no algae taste for the past few weeks. Roads to campgrounds are open to slow travel due to dusty conditions. Fire danger is extreme with grass along roads very dry. Ex-

J-S Bid Is Slam Try

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In Jacoby-Stanman the immediate response of three clubs or three diamonds is preemptive and the opening no-trump bidder is expected to pass. Thus, if responder wants to suggest a minor suit slam he does so by responding two clubs and then following with three of his minor.

South's two club response was a double purpose bid. If North could show four spades then South would be interested in a spade slam. In any case, South was interested in a slam in clubs.

This bid must always be regarded as a slam try. With a good minor suit hand and no slam interest responder would simply raise one no-trump to three.

South's two club response was a double purpose bid. If North could show four spades then South would be interested in a spade slam. In any case, South was interested in a slam in clubs.

A—Bid six clubs. Your partner has made a second cue bid and while you don't know which black suit he likes, the six-club bid allows him to decide. Remember that your two-heart transfer guaranteed five spades.

Orphan Makes Point For Parents

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: I am a teen-age boy who wants to say something to that loud-mouthed kid who said he didn't see any sense in honoring his parents just because they happen to be older. He said his parents are stupid jerks and so are the parents of most of his friends.

I don't have any parents to honor, but if I did I would honor them plenty. My dad was killed in an accident when I was 11 years old. He was the greatest guy who ever lived. He was only 35 years old when he died but I'm thankful I had 11 years with him.

My mom died last summer. I don't think the ache in my heart will ever go away. She was a truly wonderful woman.

So please, Ann Landers, print this letter so other kids can see it. Let them know they are blessed if they have their parents. And tell them for me that if they are smart they will honor their parents while they are still on this earth. I wish I was so lucky—FIFTEEN AND ALONE

Dear Fifteen: I wouldn't attempt to add a single word to what you have written. Thank you, Son. I wish you were mine.

Dear Ann Landers: A good friend of ours has taken up painting as a hobby. She says it is much cheaper than psychoanalysis and it is doing her twice as much good.

Yesterday she brought over

Food Stock Put In Cave

FORT ROCK — A caravan of cars left Christmas Valley Sunday at 10 a.m. to trek some 20 miles to the Derrick Cave where the men helped unload six tons of food into the cave, designated some months ago as a civil defense shelter.

Nearly every family from the new community turned out for the event. The men built ramps to slide the boxes down and put in water cans. Ernie McKinney, Lake County Civil Defense chairman, was leader.

Exploring the cave was part of the outing and the women found it a good shelter when a shower came along.

A civil defense routing for emergency use was marked earlier along county roads.
