

Sen. Morse Criticizes Foreign Aid

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., Thursday criticized the Kennedy Administration on both foreign aid and its Viet Nam policy — and had a few words to say about the Republican presidential ticket in 1964.

Morse, in a news conference, said he thought Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield would be his choice for vice president, "if I were a Republican."

He said at Anaheim Wednesday night he intended to seek an end to the current foreign aid program and replace it with a plan founded more on economics than military aid.

He told newsmen Thursday, "You cannot justify the grant program we are engaged in many parts of the world. We are wasting money by the millions. We're pouring millions into NATO when we have more boys on the NATO front line than France, Britain and Canada combined."

Other Fischer Children Remembered With Gifts

ABERDEEN, S. D. (UPI) — The thriving Aberdeen quint was scheduled for their first weighing today and townfolk decided to do something nice for the other five Fischer children.

There were busy goings-on as the quints entered the sixth day of their lives. The doctor boosted their rations again. Two grandmothers tidied up the house for Mrs. Fischer's coming home from the hospital Saturday or Sunday.

And the Aberdeen "welcome wagon" prepared to make a call to the ten-room farm house outside Aberdeen with gifts and goodies for the oldest Fischer children. They range in age from 3 to 7.

"I talked with Sister Stephen, the hospital administrator, and told her the children at home would more or less be forgotten," said Mrs. Dorothy Getsman, the welcome wagon hostess. "Some gifts would more or less cheer them up a little bit."

Mrs. Getsman said she thought of the other children in the family because she once had twins herself who were in the hospital for two months. The Getsman twins are now 16.

Mrs. Getsman said she and her assistant rounded up cook sets and dishes for the two older girls, fuzzy dogs and teddy bears for the younger two, and sweat shirts and plaid bathroom slippers for the boy.

Crew Lands Giant Whale

WARRENTON, Ore. (UPI) — A whale measuring 70 feet long and weighing an estimated 70 tons was towed into the Bioproducts Inc. whaling station here Thursday.

The mammal, possibly the largest whale killed in Northwest waters, was harpooned off Depoe Bay by the crew of the otter trawler Tom & Al out of Astoria.

The kill was made with a single harpoon shot about three hours after the sighting. The whale towed the ship for 20 minutes, sounding for 100 fathoms — about 600 feet — of line.

The bulk of the carcass will be used for mink feed and some of the organs will be turned over to researchers at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland.

Rockhounds Organize Social Club

A new club, the Rock and Arrowhead Social Club for the exchange of ideas and interests of members, was organized Sept. 18 at a meeting of the "House of Rocks" at the home of Mrs. Thelma Sundquist on Biehn Street. Twenty three adults and five juniors were present. Hostesses were Mrs. Eva Brownell and Mrs. Meridith Herron.

There were numerous beautiful exhibits of Indian artifacts and rock displays in the rough and polished for mounting as jewelry.

Mrs. Herron was appointed secretary, Mrs. Raymond Chalmers, publicity chairman. Each hostess will act as chairman for the meeting in her home.

Dike Dyer and Mrs. Brownell have offered to share their rock shops and equipment with others of the group until other arrangements can be made.

Mrs. Leonard Ring won a special prize of rock jewelry and the junior winner was Chris Topoleski who received a packet of polished agates.

The next meeting will be Oct. 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barrett, 1903 Laurel Street. Other future meeting nights will be on Tuesday. All meetings will be in homes and anyone interested in this "sharing club" is invited to attend.

California Governor Attacks John Birch Group

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—California Gov. Edmund G. Brown today declared "deeds and law" can strengthen democracy from attempts by the John Birch Society, Black Muslims and Ku Klux Klan "to divide and segregate our citizens."

In an address to a Western States Democratic Conference panel on civil rights and political extremism, the governor contended the nation is facing two alternatives.

"We can give way to hopelessness and allow such groups as the John Birch Society, Black Muslims and Ku Klux Klan to divide and segregate our citizens," he said. "Or we can save democracy by strengthening it and making its force unconquerable. I believe that the West will do this best by deeds and laws."

Brown's address followed a speech Thursday night in which he urged Democrats to "take off the gloves" and force the Republican Party to come to terms with the "radical right."

"They can't preach law and order while they swing into line beside those who call for the impeachment of (Chief Justice) Earl Warren—and those who cry 'Bomb Cuba now,'" he said. "Or we can pay lip service to Abraham Lincoln while they embrace rabble-rousing Birchers who would leave the fate of American Negroes in the tender hands of (Alabama Gov. George) Wallace."

"I call on Democrats to get in the fight to show the Birchers for what they are—racists, warmongers, hate-mongers and apostles of nonthink."

The governor's address brought prompt reaction from a leading Birch Society spokesman, former Congressman John Roussettel of Los Angeles. Now district governor of the western states, Roussettel described the California chief executive as "an apostle of indecision and a tower of jelly."

In his panel speech, Brown described how voters in 1962 "retired" Roussettel and fellow Republican Congressman Edgar Heistand, "who boasted of their John Birch ties."

"I am proud that my fellow Californians could see through the paranoid patriotism of Republican Birchers," he declared. "But the Republicans still defend this unholy alliance—as witness the election of Robert Gaston as president of the Young Republicans of California."

Gaston admitted his election came with support from society members. However, he denied membership.

Tonight, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the majority whip, addressed the conference's $10 a plate fund-raising dinner. The conference concludes Saturday with adoption of resolutions to be presented for the party's 1964 platform.
