

GREEN SHARKS READY FOR ACTION — This is the "Green Shark" defensive unit for the Pelicans who will see action tonight against the South Salem Saxons. They are a group of boys who will play primarily on defense and most of them are underclassmen. They are Tom Osa (66), Tom Day (88), Glenn Miller (82), Pat O'Connell (75), Lyle Haney (70), Dave Coleman (76), Terry Christiansen (60), Don Plowman (72), Bill Crain (65), Don Graham (85), Ernie Badger (22), Randy Smith (12), Bud Lummus (42), Bob Moore (19), Larry Dow (64), Tom Diver (24) and Chuck Church (87).

Fired-Up Pelicans Battle At South Salem Tonight

SALEM — The Klamath Union Pelicans, somewhat disappointed at themselves over last week's 12-0 loss to Grants Pass, get their second chance to gain the victory column tonight when they come here to battle the rugged South Salem Saxons in an 8 p.m. game.

The Pelicans are vowing to get a victory this week and have been working extremely hard at doing just that. "They have had a lot of desire to learn this week and have really been working at it," said Coach Bob Williams. "I hope we can win this one so that the kids will realize that hard work is responsible for victories. A win would serve as a picture painting for them and that's the best way to learn. And we really put them through the paces this week," he explained.

The game will not be an easy one. The Saxons also lost last week and will be eager for their first win of the season. They lost to one of the best teams in the state in North Salem, a team which lost in the state finals last year to Medford, 26-6. The Vikings had back several of those state players, including three backs and some of the biggest linemen in the state last year.

Williams was very displeased with the offensive effort last week against Grants Pass. The Pelicans had their opportunities to score in the first half and didn't take advantage of them. The defense did a creditable job.

He has changed that offense around slightly this week. Williams' sophomore son, Bob Jr., will be opening at the quarterback slot. He has a good passing arm and a smart head and runs pretty well with the ball. The lack of any type of passing attack hurt the Pelicans last week. Junior Terry Eccles will be switching off at the left halfback spot with Mike Kitching.

The only defensive change will have Larry Dow and Bob Moore switching off at the left line-backer spot in place of center Jay Paxton. The Green Shark unit, a group of defensive specialists, will also see some action. That unit includes Bill Crain, Don Graham, Ernie Badger, Randy Smith, Bud Lummus, Moore, Dow, Tom Diver, Chuck Church, Tom Osa, Tom Day, Glenn Miller, Pat O'Connell, Lyle Haney, Dave Coleman, Terry Christiansen and Don Plowman.

The remainder of the offensive unit will have Vern Petrick at wingback, Chuck Mills at fullback, Paxton at center, Steve Campbell and Mike McKibban at guards, Bill Mills and John En-

Klamath Jayvees Host SHA Trojans

The Klamath Union Jayvees swing into action, their first of the year, tonight on Modoc Field when they take on the Sacred Heart Academy Trojans, a much improved team from last year.

Coach Jack Peterson says that his Jayvees are still virtually an unknown product because they've seen no real game action and he hopes to get a good look at them tonight. He also says that Sacred Heart is a much better club than last year and expects a tough go tonight when they tangle at 8 p.m. The Jayvees won the game by a lopsided margin last year and the Trojans will be out to avenge that loss.

Peterson has announced his probable starting lineup. Greg Scott, a converted halfback, will be the man under. Peterson says he handles the ball well and runs well but still lacks in the passing department. The rest of the backfield includes Jim Scott (no relation) at the halfback position, Gene Badker at fullback and Byron Hall at the wing back.

David Wooster opens at the center slot and he will be flanked by guards Jim Mitchell and Tom Morrow. The tackles will be Keith Vannice and Ken Gordon. Curt Petersteiner and Darrell Alford will man the terminals.

The Jayvees will have to be on their toes to stop the aerials of southpaw Marv Davis who quarterbacked the Trojans. The remainder of the backfield will be Mike McNary at the wingback, Jim Kersen at halfback and Lloyd Ross.

The line will have Joe Durrell at center, Charles Glidden and Rick Redman at guards, Gary Hedlund and Jerry Britton at tackles and Ernie Hunt and Chuck Milani at ends. Coach Ross Cariga is the new coach at Sacred Heart and has built up a new spirit and fire for the Trojans.

L-C, PSC Game Tops Schedule

By United Press International

A televised non-conference game between Lewis and Clark and Portland State highlights small college football action in Oregon this weekend.

The two teams play at 1:30 p.m. Saturday with the game to be telecast locally by KPTV.

Other small school action also is of the non-conference variety. Linfield, which hasn't lost a regular season game in 21 straight, is at Eastern Washington Saturday night.

Willamette has a Saturday afternoon game against its alumni, while other games are Saturday night. Pacific is at Chico State, Southern Oregon is at Weber, Utah; Eastern Oregon hosts College of Idaho, the Seattle Ramblers are at Oregon Tech and George Fox is at Oregon College.
