Purvine - Eppenbach Vows Are Solemnized

The marriage vows of Gay Eppenbach and Liston N. Purvine were solemnized Sept. 14 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Robert L. Greene officiating. Background for the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony were altar bouquets of white gladioli and beauty baskets of gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompons, all white. Family pews were marked by white satin bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert K. Eppenbach of Margaretville, N.Y. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Winston D. Purvine.

Mrs. George Kovich was organist and Mrs. Gene Kane, soloist. Because the bride's parents were unable to attend the ceremony, she was given in marriage by Dr. Purvine. Her gown of ban-lon lace and taffeta featured a fitted bodice. The taffeta bell-shaped skirt was enhanced with an overlay of lace and iridescent sequins and a detachable sweeping scalloped train of lace. The bouffant four tier veil was held in place with a pearl and aurora crown with bow effect in front. She carried a cascade of white Tuna roses arranged with feathered white chrysanthemums and ribbon streamers.

Janet Pepworth, Portland, was maid of honor and Beverly Stone, this city, was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in gold satin with elbow length sleeves and ballerina skirts of bell shape with obi bustle in back. Flat satin bow headresses and slippers were also gold color. Their semi-crescent bouquets were fashioned of yellow roses, tangerine carnations, feathered Indian Summer chrysanthemums and bronze wheat.

Joe Bailey, Tucson, Ariz., was best man. The bridegroom's brother, Clive Purvine, Orangevale, Calif., was usher.

Mrs. Purvine's ensemble was blue, a lace over taffeta dress, shoes, hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of hybrid green cymbidian orchids.

The bridal couple were greeted by approximately 100 guests at the reception in the parish hall. The bride's table was placed under an arch formed by white streamers and large white wedding bells. Baskets of white flowers were on either side.

On the lace covered table was the tour tiered cake, topped with a bride and bridegroom under an arch of flowers. Silver appointments and tall white tapers completed the setting.

Mrs. Richard Pepworth, Portland, and Mrs. W. M. Douglass served the cake; Mrs. G. Ross Henninger and Mrs. George Crowe, coffee, and Mrs. Paul Meier, the punch. Mrs. A. E. Smith attended the guest book and gifts.

The newlyweds will spend two weeks touring through Oregon and California on their way to their new home in Lakewood, Calif. For traveling, Mrs. Purvine wore a three piece suit of olive green, beige and white with white accessories. She is a 1960 graduate of Andes Central School, Andes, N.Y., and a 1963 graduate of Dutchess Community College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and received an Associate in Applied Sciences degree with a major in nursing. She is now a registered nurse.

Her husband is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and Oregon Technical Institute, Associate Degree in Engineering with a major in electronics technology. He is presently employed by International Business Machines, Los Angeles, as a customer engineer.

Out-of-town guests not mentioned before were Mr. and Mrs. Dane Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Purvine and family, Corvallis; Mrs. Clive Purvine and family, Orangevale, Calif. Dr. and Mrs. Purvine were hosts at the rehearsal dinner at the Winema Hotel.

On Sept. 12 the bride-to-be was honored guest at a shower in the OTI Student Lounge given by Mrs. W. M. Douglass, Mrs. Paul Meier, Mrs. G. Ross Henninger, Mrs. George Crowe, Mrs. A. E. Smith, Mrs. Carl Stolpe and Mrs. Jess Crabtree.

Betty Jean Kerns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Kerns, on Sept. 7 became the bride of James Lee Maryott of Kennewick, Wash. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Maryott of Corvallis.

For the 8 o'clock double ring ceremony the First Presbyterian Church was decorated with white gladioli and pompon chrysanthemums. Along each side of the church and under the balcony were lovely white wall lanterns to which white satin bows were hung.

The Rev. Robert C. Groves officiated.

Mrs. Albert Herringshaw was the organist. She also accompanied Mrs. Bill Davenport when she sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta. Lace with pearls was applied as a border to the neckline and extended over the shoulder above the cap sleeves. The same lace in medallions adorned the full skirt and chapel train at intervals. A dainty pearl crown held in place the shoulder illusion veil. For her bouquet, white roses were entwined with ivy into a cascade effect.

Sisters of the bride were her attendants. Janet Kerns was maid of honor and Judy Kerns, bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in mint green silk organza sheaths with full overskirts accented in front with large flat bows. Mint green tulle was made into old-fashioned hairbows for each to wear as a headress. Their bouquets of white roses and ivy were smaller versions of the bridal bouquet.

Bill Maryott, Corvallis, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Dave Pierson, Corvallis, Al Staley and Ken Gilbert, both of Grants Pass, Gordon Nielson, Corvallis, and the bride's cousins, Joe Kerns and Karl Kerns, who also served as candlelighters prior to the ceremony.

For the occasion, Mrs. Kerns chose a royal blue crepe sheath, matching leather hat, white accessories and white orchid corsage. Mrs. Maryott wore a cream colored sheath with gold accessories and brown-tone orchid corsage. Following the church ceremony, guests assembled at Reames Country Club for the reception. White pompons were arranged in bouquets about the rooms and white candelabra with white roses flanked the wedding cake on the bride's table. The four tiered cake was iced in white with silver leaves as accent. On top were white satin, pearl trimmed bells.

After the initial cut by the new-lweds, the cake was served by Mrs. Fred Ehlers and Mrs. Murdo Morrison. Presiding at the coffee services were Mrs. Elbert Stiles and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr. Children's punch was poured by Mrs. Robert Kent and Carol Shannon. Bridal punch was served by two uncles of the bride, Ben Kerns and John Kerns, and Jerry Thomas and Murdo Morrison.

Judy Sutter, Portland, Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sister of the bride, attended the guest book. Assisting were sisters of the bridegroom, Jean Maryott and Adah Dodds, both of Corvallis, and Mrs. Martin Kerns, Mrs. Anthony Giacomin, Mrs. Truman Runyan and Mrs. Sylvia Harris.

Special guests were grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Anna Cook, Canyonville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns, Klamath Falls. Hair Beauty is scalp deep. Brushing, of course stimulates the scalp but massage really does the job. A frequent and proper massage is a real beauty treatment for it encourages circulation that nourishes the roots. The best way to massage is to place finger tips at back of neck and with a rotating movement massage the scalp up to the crown of the head. Then with the same movement go over temples and crown. A few minutes each day will pay off in healthier hair.
