Bible Baptist Church Setting For Wedding

The Bible Baptist Church was the scene on Aug. 24 for the wedding of Julie Lyn Bratton and Tony Reynolds. Carrying out the bride's choice of a turquoise and white theme, baskets of gladioli in those shades and lighted tapers were used at the altar and similar arrangements were in each window recess. A white cloth covered the center aisle and pews were marked with turquoise bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bratton, this city, and was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom, of Ashland, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Reynolds, Glendale, Ore. The double ring ceremony was performed at 8 p.m. by the Rev. Freeman Schmitt.

Janis La Grande was the organist and Sue Ann Owens, the soloist.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of pure silk organza. The low neck, snug-fitting bodice was fashioned with yoke and short sleeves of hand-embroidered with seed pearls. The full, floor length skirt of organza was trimmed with reemboirdered lace motifs and extended into a chapel train bordered by wide bands of matching lace. A pearl tiara held the bouffant tiered illusion veil. She carried a cascade of Stephanotis and white carnations centered with white daisies.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS — Ten members attended the Sept. 4 meeting of the Malin American Legion Auxiliary. Plans were discussed for the Oct. 11 and 12 rummage sale. Subscriptions were sent in for the Legislative Bulletin and two copies of "Star" magazine, one for the high school and the other for the library.

Mrs. F. V. Lehrman, Chico, cut the cake. Judy Cordell, Coos Bay, and Karen Learning poured punch and coffee.

Jacquie Fiske attended the guest book and Barbara Vinson was in charge of flowers. Gifts were opened by Jolene Weber, Mrs. Ron Sumner and Hazel Robertson.

Mrs. Clarence Bell and Mrs. Carl Ewing were hostesses. Assistants were Mrs. Eva Parrish, Mrs. Mrs. Glen Pearson and Mrs. Coy Willes.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Victoria, B. C., and the San Juan Islands. They are residing at 405 1/2 Liberty Street in Ashland. Mrs. Reynolds' going away outfit was a pale green and white knit suit with white accessories and the bridal corsage. She is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and will this year be a sophomore at Southern Oregon College. Her husband is a graduate of Glendale High School and SOC. He is employed at Perrine's Store in Ashland.

Mrs. Bratton wore an apricot sheath with white accessories and corsage of white butterfly roses and Stephanotis. Mrs. Reynolds chose a turquoise sheath with beige accessories. Her corsage was yellow garnette roses and Stephanotis.

Fields Hall of the church was decorated in turquoise and white for the following reception. White wedding bells hung from the backdrop for the bride's table which held the five-tiered wedding cake. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Bessie Schaffer, Drummond, Mont., and

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Walter Reynolds, Mrs. Doris Ward, Grants Pass; F. V. Lehrman and family, Chico; Sharon and Sandor Vincez, Reno; Kathi Urdell, Herb Hobi, Michelle Fischhorn, Lauree Sykes, Portland; Karen Moe, Donna Rose, Eugene; Pete Baldo, Rob Henderson, Al Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Fiske, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Ashland; Solveig Arvidsson, Sweden; Bernie De Costa, Medford; Claudine Heglund, Chiloquin.

Jean Shepard Bride In Presbyterian Rites

Jean Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Shepard, became the bride of Walter M. Petersen in a double ring ceremony Aug. 16 at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Laing Sibbel of Peace Memorial Church officiated.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eve Petersen and the late Marius Petersen.

Clusters of woodwardia fern, candelabra with pink tapers and beauty baskets of pink gladioli decorated the church for the 8 p.m. service. Pews were marked with pink net poufs with streamers of pink ribbon roses. The aisle was covered with a white cloth.

Tessa Green was the organist. Selections were sung before the ceremony and the Lord's Prayer during the service by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davenport.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of Chantilly lace over ivory taffeta. The Sabrina neckline of the long sleeve bodice was outlined in dainty scallops of lace. The elegant bouffant skirt extended to a chapel train edged with lace scallops. The shoulder length illusion veil was held by a tiny tiara of lily of the valley. For her bouquet, white roses were arranged on a white Bibe. For something old, the bride carried an heirloom handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Rose.

Mrs. Nicky Savage was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Hazel Roberts, Delores Lummus and Marvi Wayburn.

Their outfits were blue brocade frocks with scoop necklines and bell-shaped skirts, matching slippers and short veils with large bows at the front. Each carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses encircled with matching leaves.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, John Beevick, Reno, was best man. Ushers were Nicky Savage, Eddie Welcher and Don Ambers. For the ceremony, Mrs. Shepard chose a brown lace over beige taffeta dress and matching accessories. Mrs. Petersen wore an olive green nylon sheath with green accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Window recesses held ferns and pink tapers to complement the wedding color theme. Pink flowers were on the four tiered wedding cake with wedding bells and hearts on the colonnades. A bridal pair topped the confection, which was served by Mrs. Ford Kimpton and Mrs. Leonard Lummus. Bonnie Lake and Mrs. Donald Ambers poured coffee and punch. Mrs. Ed Hanson was in charge of the bridegroom's cake.

Delores Lummus caught the bride's bouquet. The going away outfit of the new Mrs. Petersen was a sheath of red mohair with matching walking coat, red shoes and bag. Roses from the bridal bouquet were her corsage.

The couple spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and now have returned to make their home at 1575 California Avenue. Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union High School. The bridegroom is also an Oregon Technical Institute graduate and is employed by Weyerhaeuser Company. Mrs. Petersen is employed by Webb Insurance Company.

The bridegroom was host to the rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party at Little Sweden the night before the ceremony.

Canton Crater Toastmistress Club To Meet

The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 met in the IOOF Hall on Sept. 12 with Lady Sylvia Jones officiating.

Members were reminded of the official visit of the state president, Ruby Robertson of Portland, on Oct. 24. She will be accompanied by the state vice president, Gladys Fredrickson of Creswell, who will be the reviewing officer. In their honor there will be a planned potluck at 6 p.m. preceding the meeting at 8 p.m.

Lady Sylvia Jones recently visited Lady Margaret Biden, who has been ill, and presented her with her past president's jewel. The auxiliary recommended Lady Hazel McNeil to be the installing officer in January.

A rummage sale is planned for Friday, Sept. 27, at the old Reliable Cleaners building, starting at 8:30 a.m.

All members are asked to be present at the next regular meeting Sept. 26 for practice.
