Kremlin May Seek Meeting To Debate Communist Split

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Communist party newspaper Pravda indicated today that the Kremlin, confident of the backing of most of the world's Communist, may call an international summit meeting to debate the Sino-Soviet split.

Pravda today printed a long statement by the tiny Portuguese Communist party calling for such a Communist summit. Such statements are often published here as "trial balloons" while the Soviets decide whether to adopt or discard them as official policy.

If the Russians call for a summit of all 80-plus Communist parties in the world, it would be a direct reversal of previous policy. Earlier the Chinese demanded such a meeting, but the Kremlin won Peking's agreement for a single, face-to-face confrontation of the two Communist giants. That meeting broke down in acrimony.

Observers here said the Portuguese statement in Pravda indicated the Kremlin may feel now it has enough international support to risk a Communist "United Nations."

At the same time, the Soviets hurled fresh charges of nuclear warmongering at Peking.

Peking was told that its willingness to risk thermonuclear war and the destruction of half of mankind to achieve world communism had lost it the support of progressive forces.

"Instead of struggling against imperialism the Chinese have turned their front against the fraternal socialist states," the Defense Ministry newspaper Red Star said.

Milk Producers To Get Official Quotas Thursday

SALEM (UPI) — Some 1,400 market area 1 milk producers will receive their official quotas under the market pool provision of the new milk stabilization law by Thursday, the State Department of Agriculture said today.

Market areas includes all of Oregon except Malheur, Harney and Curry counties.

About 240 of the producers assigned quotas operate in Washington but sell on the Oregon market.

K. W. Sawyer, chief of the milk stabilization program, said distributors also will be notified of the quota allocations.

Quotas are based on the individual producer production and sales during the first four months of this year. Quotas will be reviewed next March, and new allocations made where necessary, Sawyer said.

Sugar Prices May Take Hike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Housewives may have to pay more for sugar soon.

The price of raw sugar increased sharply Monday. The National Sugar Refining Co. immediately announced it was increasing the price of refined sugar 25 cents per 100 pounds, for both industrial and consumer packaged sugar.
