

Ike's Brother Criticizes Rulings By Supreme Court

GEARHART, Ore. (UPI) — Ta- agencies had so interpreted and come attorney Edgar Eisenhower construed rulings as to actually lashed out at the U.S. Supreme Court Monday in a talk to North- west business leaders.

"If I seem critical of the Su- preme Court it is because they have just dumped in the ashean all the constitutional law that I have learned in the past 50 years," he said.

Arthur H. Motley, president of Parade Publications and ex-presi- dent of the U.S. Chamber of Com- merce, urged more action by busi- nessmen to help protect the prin- ciples of free enterprise.

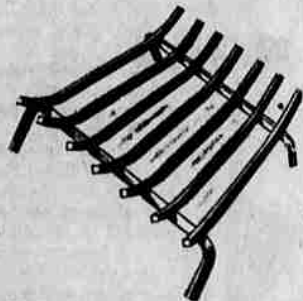

Eisenhower said the high court in decisions relevant to federal
