Tough George Chuvalo Beats Mike De John

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Fresh from an upset 10-round decision over Big Mike De John, rugged George Chuvalo made with some bold talk today about the fellow he's scheduled to fight next, top-ranked heavyweight contender Cassius Clay.

"Cassius Clay can talk all he wants," Chuvalo said, "but in a showdown I think I can knock him out—if the referee gives me a chance."

It was the kind of remark that may prompt Cassius the prophet to change his prediction to an earlier round when he will stop Chuvalo.

Confronting Chuvalo at a press conference last Tuesday, Clay told the 26-year-old Toronto, Ont., native, he would fall in five.

Being perfectly impartial, Clay gave De John the same word.

The conference was to announce that Clay, who did not deign to attend Friday night's fight, would meet the winner. Contracts for the bout were to be signed in the Louiseville office of promoter Bill King, who put on Friday night's card, too. King said the Clay-Chuvalo go will be Nov. 8 in Louisville's Freedom Hall.

As for Chuvalo's remark — "if the referee gives me a chance" —it was a sharp barb directed at the third man in the ring Friday night, Don Asbury.

Even though he won, Chuvalo, an 8-5 underdog, beefed about Asbury's officiating on three counts.

He said he couldn't understand Asbury's scoring of the match. The referee had it a 49-49 draw, although both judges, Kenny Pastor and Tom Nuckles, gave the decision to Chuvalo by a wide margin. It made the victory a majority, rather than unanimous, decision.

Asbury commented that Chuvalo was guilty of "dirty tactics" throughout the bout and that he penalized him for this on his scoreboard, although he did not advise the judges to do likewise.

Chuvalo, 211½, established a clear superiority over De John, 206½, in the last five rounds, having him down twice in the sixth and in constant danger of being knocked out by the clouting Canuck's powerful left hooks. The United Press International scorecard gave Chuvalo a 47-40 margin.

The former Canadian heavyweight champion now has a record of 25 victories, seven losses and two draws. For De John, the defeat was his 12th in 59 bouts. He's fought one draw.

Series Star Draws Jail As Burglar

HOUSTON (UPI) — Hank Thompson stepped across the third base foul line shielded his eyes from the sun and gloved Dale Mitchell's pop-up for the final out of the 1954 World Series.

The New York Giants swept the series from the Cleveland Indians four games in a row. Thompson the Giants third baseman was a sparkplug. He hit .364 and broke a series record for walks in four games. He got seven.

So he kept the ball used for the final out as a memento. But he doesn't have it now. The rules about personal property are strict at the Harris County Jail.

Henry Curtis (Hank) Thompson is in a cell awaiting transfer to the Texas State Prison in Huntsville to begin a 10-year-sentence for armed robbery.

Blames Liquor Gold Diggers

Thompson one of he first big league Negro stars got more than $11,000 as winner's share in that series. He got $90 in the robbery of a Houston liquor store last July.

Thompson estimates he made $250,000 from endorsements and salaries during his 15-odd years of organized baseball.

Where did it go?

"Liquor and gold diggers" he said quietly in his cell.

"Tell those young fellows out there that have a chance to play big league baseball to keep the gold diggers away from their money."

Suffers Headaches

Thompson still can't figure out how he went downhill so fast.

"It could be my head" he said, "I was beaned four times during my career and one of those times I was in the hospital for two weeks. I get some bad headaches."

He discussed his drinking problem.

"I see some people drink and they can sit there and just go right on talking. I can't. I have to strike out a someching—usually my friends or sometimes myself.

"I was drinking the night I pulled the robbery. It was the first time I had ever done anything like that but I needed money to get back to California where I had a job waiting."

He never made it. He was arrested in a Houston night club shortly after the robbery. Someone tipped off the police.

Thompson now 39 could get out on parole in about four years.

SPARTANS WIN

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Soccer-style kicker Lou Bobich, pinning North Carolina deep into its own territory with his booming kickoffs and punts, collected seven points with his kicks Saturday to lead Michigan State to an impressive season opening 31-0 triumph over the Tar Heels.

Bobich, who approaches the ball on an angle and boots the ball with the side of his foot like a soccer kicker, booted a 35-yard field goal and converted after each of the four MSU touchdowns.

SHRINKING

NEW YORK (UPI) — Hershey Chocolate Corp. has trimmed the size of most of its nickel chocolate bars to seven-eights of an ounce in the wake of a price jump in sugar and cocoa beans. The candymaker had raised them to a full ounce early in 1961.
