

The Women of the Moose Chapter 467 held a regular meeting Tuesday, Sept. 3, at the Moose Home. Publicity chairman, Sarah Kirby, presented her chapter night program.

Caroline Mairs played several accordion solos, accompanied by Orinda Sterland.

Two candidates, Donna Roark and Dorothy Bidwell, were enrolled.

It was announced that there will be a rummage sale Sept. 13 and 14 in the basement of the Moose Home. For pickup of rummage sale items, call TU 2-0547 or TU 4-3545.

The next meeting will be Sept. 17.

AN EXTRA SWIMSUIT?
Now is a good time to buy a second or third swimsuit. You can finish out the summer with it and it will still be useful for next year.

MALIN — Mrs. Anton Suty Sr. was hostess Thursday, Aug. 29, to the Czech Ladies Club. Games were played with prizes awarded to Rose Baley, Anna Hartlerode, Mildred Dobry and Elizabeth Paygr.

Others enjoying the social afternoon and refreshments were Mildred Rajnus, Elizabeth Slezak, Agnes Drzil, Amelia Cacka, Ella Halousek, Martha Brothianek, Anna Polivka and Blanche Oliva. Guests were Anna Lahoda and Mrs. Suty's daughters, Rosie Thompson and Helen Cahill.

Mildred Dobry will entertain the ladies at her home Sept. 19.

During your bath, use a pumice stone on rough areas such as the knees, soles of the feet, heels and toes. Shave faithfully or use a depilatory to remove superfluous hair. After removing the hair, use a cream or lotion to smooth your skin.

LIBRARY CLUB TEA — The home of Mrs. George Blanes was the setting for the annual Klamath Falls Library Club membership tea. Guests were greeted by the president, Mrs. Phil Schroeder. Mrs. Blanes, club program chairman, was general chairman of the delightful party. An heirloom silver urn-type vase was the stunning centerpiece for gold and white pompons and dahlias, accented with red roses, which highlighted the tea table. Mrs. Richard Beane, seated above, was one of the past presidents and distinguished members who poured during the party. She serves Mrs. Emil Albrecht, (left), and Mrs. Arch Proctor. The tea table was in charge of Mrs. Dorothea Nolan and Mrs. Charles Larkin and Mrs. Jack Schulz attended to memberships.

Sojourners

Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. John Fern were hostesses at the last regular meeting of Sojourners Sept. 11 at the Willard Hotel. Present were 41 members and four guests, Mrs. A. Anderson, Drucilla Maury, Trudy Ackerman and Esther Spanner.

Plans for the fall tea and fashion show were discussed. The annual fall affair will be Oct. 5 at Reames Country Club from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

After luncheon cards were played. Mrs. Arthur Blaundes wop in pinocle and Mrs. C. E. Bales in canasta. Mrs. R. L. Stuart, Mrs. C. E. Bales and Mrs. Helen Taw were first, second and third, respectively, in bridge.

All newcomers are invited to the next meeting Sept. 25 at the Willard Hotel.

Couple Weds In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — Before the altar banked with white gladioli in St. Patrick Catholic Church in Lakeview, Constance Ann Robles and Delbert Ellis Caswell were united in marriage Saturday morning, Aug. 24, at 10 o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Father A. R. Miller.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph K. Robles, former Lakeview residents but now of Corvallis. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Caswell of Redding.

Sam Anderson was best man, and Dan Collins was usher. Wedding music was played by Marcia Metzger at the organ.

The bride's floor-length gown featured insets of Chantilly lace with trimming of seed pearls. She carried an orchid with white rosebuds and stephanotis fastened to a prayer book.

The maid of honor, Kay Chaffin, wore a ballerina length dress of deep turquoise chiffon and velvet and she carried a nosegay of carnations.

Mrs. Robles chose a beige knit suit with black accessories, and Mrs. Caswell wore a blue print ensemble with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

At the reception which followed in the parish hall Mrs. Dan Collins cut the cake; Nancy Harris of Corvallis attended the guest book; Mrs. Opal Chaffin poured punch; Mrs. Ora Temple and Mrs. R. H. Radford were at the coffee and tea services. Judy Elder and Ruth Goss presided at the gift table.

TEA ASSISTANTS — May Phinney and Mrs. Joe Hicks, seated, were among those who poured at the Library Club tea. Others were Mrs. Ken Bricco, Mrs. Tom Tenery and Marilou O'Connor. Mrs. Lola VanScoy, standing, was tea chairman. The three are shown in the beautiful garden of the George Blanes home which had been prepared by Mrs. Blanes for the affair with umbrellas and canopies. Uncertain weather a part of the afternoon moved some of the guests indoors, but most were able to enjoy the profusion of lovely garden blooms.

For a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the bride chose a beige suit with brown trim and brown accessories.

The couple is now at home in Lakeview where he is employed at Collins' Motors.

From out-of-town were Mrs. Gordon Harris and daughter Nancy, and Don Johnson, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Quinlan, Klamath Agency; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Caswell, Redding.
