

TIED EYES

No matter your sleeping habits, you still can get that tired-eye look. To help erase this and make you feel more alert, splash your face with cold water. Or lie down for a few minutes with your feet resting on a pillow. Place cotton pads dampened in cold water to which a few drops of witch hazel has been added over your eyes. When you apply make-up, erase dark circles with a cover-up cosmetic.

Joyce Noonan Bride In Merrill Nuptials

St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Merrill was the setting for the Aug. 3 nuptial mass which united in marriage Joyce Marie Noonan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Noonan, Merrill, and Ronald Lee Hoffmaster, He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hoffmaster, Parma, Ohio.

Father Vincent Egan officiated at the double ring service. Myra Fox, Merrill, was the organist. Mrs. William O'Keefe, Tulelake, was the soloist.

White gladioli and blue carnations on the main and side altars set the color theme of the wedding. Floralabras with blue ribbons and bows completed the ceremony background.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with basque bodice and chapel train. Pearls and sequins outlined the scalloped Sabrina neckline. A pearl crown held the elbow length veil which was borrowed from Mrs. Erven Savio. The bridal bouquet of two white orchids and stephanotis was centered on a white prayer book.

Traditional was her blue garter and a lucky coin brought from Ireland by Katherine Ahern.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Doris Ann Noonan. Her frock was of blue taffeta. Slippers and illusion headdress were also blue.

Mrs. Noonan chose for the occasion a rose silk sheath, beige accessories and dusty rose hat. Her rose corsage was in shades of pink.

John Kassing was best man and ushers were Bob Aldridge and Tom Basco.

The reception was held in the parish hall. The three tiered cake, placed between blue tapers in crystal holders, was bordered with blue roses and topped with a bridal pair under a wedding bell.

Members of the Altar Society served a buffet luncheon at the reception.

Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Dan Reynolds, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, the bride's aunt. Another aunt, Mrs. Michael Noonan, poured coffee and Treeca Collins, Phoenix, Ore., served punch.

Katherine Ahern was in charge of corsages. Sandra Caban, gifts and Mrs. David Frisvold, San Francisco, the guest book.

The new Mrs. Hoffmaster wore for traveling a beige and aqua knit suit with beige accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

The honeymoon trip included a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Parma, Ohio, where they were honored by an open house. Iona Beach, Fla. They will make From Ohio they flew to Daytona Beach, Fla. They will make their home in Merrill where the bride is employed by the First National Bank. Her husband is stationed with the Air Force at Kingsley Field.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Reno; Mr. and Mrs. David Frisvold, San Francisco; Robert H. Andrus, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wolfrum, Red Bluff; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Honeycutt, Citrus Heights, Calif.

Nevada Rites Unite Couple

Janis A. Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neale W. Owens, and Phillip J. Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Owens, were recently married in a double ring ceremony in Carson City.

Setting for the wedding was the century-old First Methodist Church, built in 1830, and the oldest in the city. The Rev. Elmer H. Podoll officiated.

The parents of both bride and bridegroom attended the wedding. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Sue Ann Owens, was maid of honor. James D. Barnes was the best man.

The bride chose for her wedding ensemble a white and black walking suit with a white angora and net hat, white gloves and black patent accessories. She carried a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids with white satin streamers, a white linen and lace handkerchief, carried by four generations of brides in her family, and her sister's Bible. Her jewelry, crystal earrings and bracelet, was a gift of the bridegroom.

After the wedding, the bride's
