FOR YOUR Protection

Jerry Thomas Answers Your Insurance Questions
QUESTION: A friend of mine snagged a pal in the neck with a fish hook and it resulted in a pretty good sized medical bill which my friend says his insurance took care of. What kind of insurance would that be?
ANSWER: That would be comprehensive personal liability insurance which protects your friend in all sports activities and also covers the liability of himself and his family in many other ways.

doll face, one of two Mrs. Brandejesky had saved from her childhood to be used one day in such an event. The other china doll face was used on the garter worn by Mrs. Dennis (Joanette Brandejesky) Short at her wedding nine years ago.
Something borrowed was the wedding gown also worn by her sister. The blue garter and new rosary completed the tradition. A lucky coin in her slipper was a gift of the bride's cousin, Debbie Humphrey.

Mrs. Dennis Short was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a cranberry sheath of peau de soie with sheer overskirt. A headband of peau de soie and tulle net was matching in color.
Bridesmaids were Josephine Tschirky and Deanna Dickson, both of Hayward, Calif. Their gowns and headbands were styled like the honor attendant's in champagne peau de soie.

All attendants carried bouquets of pink and white carnations entwined with net and satin streamers.
Cora Enman, soloist, was accompanied at the organ by Maureen Hurley, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Steven Starr, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jackie O'Conner and Elmer Walker.
Mrs. Brandejesky wore a pastel pink light wool suit with brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of talisman roses. Mrs. Starr chose a green silk shantung with beige and green accessories and corsage of yellow rosesbuds.

The newlyweds received their guests in the parish hall immediately following the wedding. The bride's table was lace covered and held flowers and tapers in addition to the four-tiered chocolate cake which was iced in white. The confection was served by Mrs. Neil Hurley, cousin of the bride. Presiding at the coffee and punch tables were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Harry Frederick and Mrs. Charles Matney, and Mrs. Jackie O'Conner. A cousin, Eileen Hurley, attended the guest book.

The women of St. Augustine's Church served a buffet luncheon. Music for the reception was provided by Leo Matney, uncle of the bride, and Mrs. Margie Flaster. Little Bennie Tschirky played the accordion especially for the bride pair. He was accompanied by his sister, Hydie Tschirky. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. Short, Richmond, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frederick and family, Oroyoy Grande, Calif.; Mrs. Gary Peck, Millbrae, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Alden Dickson and family, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rogers, Auburn, Calif.; Mrs. Hazel Stumpy and daughter and Pamela Starr, Kansas City, Mo.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Starr toured the Oregon Coast on their honeymoon. She wore a travel outfit of green mohair two-piece suit with black patent accessories.
They are now at home at 206 Martin Street, this city.
Included in the pre-nuptial events was a cocktail buffet at the home of the bridegroom's parents for the wedding party and members of the family. Assisting Mrs. Starr with arrangements were Mrs. Norma Strieb and Pamela Starr, sister of the bridegroom.
Two showers were given for the bride. A miscellaneous shower was hosted by Mrs. Jackie

Beauty Tips from ME to YOU MARY MARTIN

No beauty column would be complete without mentioning the fact that baldness among women today is increasing. Many people wonder why Grandma had no such problem, and are inclined to think maybe it is because Grandma didn't use all the "stuff" on her hair that we do now. The reason Grandma's hair was healthier was because she guarded it with greater care than the women today. For instance, Grandma was nicer to her follicles. At the beach she sat under a parasol, in the yard she wore a sunbonnet, in the house she wore a hat to protect her lily-white complexion, but by so doing she also protected her hair. new-formula ultra nadinola® makes "age spots" fade away

A new cream from new clinical research, ULTRA NADINOLA now works even faster to fade away unsightly blotches, freckles and muddy discolorations which may unfairly stamp you as being "older".
ULTRA NADINOLA is an effective, safe way to fade these tell-tale signs of age. It is the new moisturizing cream that contains pigment-clearing Hydroquinone, in a new and finer formula.
New ULTRA NADINOLA seeks out and fades away brown spots and other darkened areas with little or no effect upon clear areas. Results begin gradually, become more dramatic with continued use. Even age spots you have endured for years finally give way to show fresher-looking, even-toned skin. And a special sun screen in ULTRA NADINOLA helps preserve these fine results.
ULTRA NADINOLA has been proven safe for normal skin in extensive tests under doctors' supervision. Try it yourself. It is guaranteed by the maker to please you.
