Friends Bid To Reception

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson are invited to an open house at their home, 130 North First Street, on Sunday, Oct. 6. The affair will honor their 50th wedding anniversary. Hours are from 2 until 5 p.m.

The Eppersons are well-known in this city where they have resided for 45 years. They were married in Donnellson, Iowa.

Trip Taken To Islands

Mrs. Marshall Poole left Saturday, Sept. 28, by air for Kailua, Oahu, where she will visit about one month with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCrary and their daughters, Sandy and Terry.

Dr. Poole will join his wife in the islands later for a short visit before both return to the mainland.

JUST MARRIED — Lt. Lynn S. Hill and his bride, the former Susan Jane Peterson, leave the chapel in Baumholder, Germany, where they recently exchanged wedding vows.

Local Girl Is Bride In German Ceremony

A Klamath Falls girl, Susan Jane Peterson, traveled recently to Germany to become the bride of Lt. Lynn S. Hill in a pretty ceremony in Chapel 2 at Baumholder, Germany.

White peonies decorated the altar for the afternoon double ring ceremony performed by Chaplain Robert H. Hawn of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Mission. Mrs. Ronald H. Smiley was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Peterson of Klamath Falls, who were unable to attend their daughter's wedding. In her father's place, Major Paul Morsch escorted her to the altar.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Earl S. Hill of Orinda, Calif.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white organza with lace appliques on the full skirt and sleeves and slightly scoop neckline. A pearl crown held her shoulder length tulle veil. She carried a German bouquet of white carnations on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Lowry O. Hoyer, cousin of the bride, of Chaumont, France, where her husband, Captain Hoyer is stationed, was matron of honor. She wore a frock of rose organza made with full skirt, short sleeves and scoop neckline. She carried long stemmed pink peonies.

The bridegroom's attendants were all Army men stationed in Germany. Lt. Forrest Nelson Pickett was best man. His home is Portland and he attended Oregon State University with the bridal pair.

Ushers were Lt. David McDonald, St. Louis, Mo., and Lt. Ronald Duck, Southwood, N.J.

As the bridal pair left the chapel they were greeted with an unusual sight, a carriage and two horses, complete with driver dressed in white shirt, high hat and tails. The surprise was arranged by members of the bridegroom's battalion. And so, in style, the newlyweds rode from the chapel to the Baumholders Officers Club for the wedding reception. Champagne punch and cake were served by Nora Morsch, Mrs. Joe Griggs and Mrs. Dorsey Fuller.

For her going away outfit the new Mrs. Hill wore a beige and white light wool suit with light brown shoes and purse, beige gloves, shocking pink hat and the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The couple's wedding trip took them through Southern Germany, Switzerland, to Rome, then up the Riviera to France.

They are now making their home in Berschweiler, Germany.

Both the young people are graduates of Oregon State University where she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta and her husband was a member of Sigma Pi.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

BONANZA — Mrs. Cecil Haley entertained her bridge club at a luncheon Sept. 11. High prize went to Mrs. Mabel Pepple, second high to Mrs. Harold Williams and traveling to Mrs. Bill Bechdoldt. Others present were Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Doug Smelcer, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Leland Harris, Mrs. Mae Gale, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Elsa Rueck, Mrs. Lester Leavitt and a guest, Mrs. Amy Johnson of Sacramento.

Art Exhibit..

You are cordially invited to view the second American showing of Italian artist ROBERTO CIABANI at Ricky's Jewelers, 700 Main Street, Klamath Falls, to October 12th, 9:30 a.m. 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Mr. Ciabani is one of Italy's youngest celebrated artists, a figurative artist with a variety of interesting subjects well worth seeing.

Ciabani oils and other works may also be seen in Medford at an extended showing by Fontaine Galleries, 329 South Grape Street.

RIDE IN STYLE — In a carriage bedecked with flowers and old shoes, Lieutenant and Mrs. Lynn S. Hill ride from the chapel where they were married to the reception at the Baumholder Officers Club. This touch of old world grandeur was arranged by member of the bridegroom's battalion.

Merrill Aux. Meets

MERRILL—The Merrill unit of the American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Pavitt Newnham, Sept. 10. This was the first meeting held since June.

Mrs. Florence Fett, District 4 president, Klamath Falls, was guest of honor. Mrs. Maggie Wilson also was a guest.

Mrs. Fett presented members with awards won during the past year.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. Warren Fruits.
