

Court Places Salem Boys

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—Douglas County juvenile court Judge Seward Hart Monday approved the temporary placement of two Salem, Ore., boys in Boys Town.

The two, Danny Presnell, 12, and his brother, Ronnie, 10, came to Omaha on a bus Sept. 19. They carried with them a note from their mother asking that Boys Town take them in because she and their stepfather could not take care of them.

Hart's action came after a conference with Robert Hane, the court-appointed attorney for the two. Hane said he recommended the move after talking with the boys' mother by telephone and with Msgr. Nicholas Wegner, the head of Boys Town.

Hane said the mother favored the move.

The boys were originally kept in the Douglas County youth center, and then taken to the home of the Rev. William Pounds of Omaha.

A hearing will be held before Hart on Oct. 9 to determine the permanent status of the boys.

SOME TOURIST TRADE

TOKYO (UPI)—Approximately 1,800 "foreign friends" from 80 countries of the six continents visited Peking this year, Radio Peking reported today.

The broadcast, monitored here, said this was the largest number of foreign visitors in one year since the inauguration of the Communist regime 14 years ago.

MOVE UP TO CHRYSLER '64

Engineered better...backed better than any car in its class

The '64 Chryslers are here: the luxurious New Yorker (above); sports-bred 300; and the surprisingly easy-to-own Newport.

Clean. Crisp. Handsome. Designed in the modern concept. Bold but not brassy. Engineered by men who have accounted for more "firsts" than any automobile maker. So well built the vital moving parts are warranted for 5 years or 50,000 miles. (Details below.)

The '64 Chryslers are full of news: there's an optional steering wheel you can adjust, up or down, to any one of seven different positions. Bucket seats are standard on 300 models (passenger's reclines).

These are the '64 Chryslers. They have no junior editions to compromise your investment. Go see them. Move up to Chrysler '64.

Red China Celebrates 14th Birthday

14 YEARS OLD — The Chinese Communist Republic marks its 14th anniversary today as the Sino-Soviet conflict apparently worsened. Russia was reported to be strengthening her guards along the frontier with Red China, and her naval forces in the Far East.

Russians Build Strength Along Chinese Frontier

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union was reported today to be strengthening its guards along the frontier with Red China and its naval forces in the Far East.

Diplomatic sources said both moves appeared to be precautions prompted by the worsening Sino-Soviet conflict.

The strengthening of border guards was believed designed to discourage any further incidents along the disputed frontiers in the East.

The show of naval strength in the Far East appeared largely aimed at Asian public opinion, as a reminder that the Soviet Union has important political stakes in the area and the strength to defend them.

No immediate clash was anticipated between the two Communist giants. Moscow, believed anxious to avert any deterioration in the conflict with Peking, was apparently taking precautionary measures to discourage any possible Peking military moves.

Russia last month claimed that more than 5,000 border violations had been committed by China.

HONG KONG (UPI)—Communist China today celebrated its 14th anniversary and claimed "a growing number of friends."

Since the last celebration a year ago, Peking has invaded India and broken with its Communist ally, the Soviet Union.

But today the mood was friendly. Premier Chou En-lai set the tone at a reception Monday night for a record 1,800 foreign visitors in Peking for the celebrations.

Referring to differences with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, who has been called an "imperialist lackey" in the past year in Peking propaganda attacks, Chou said "we firmly believe that the day will come when the present differences will be resolved on the basis of Marxism-Leninism."

Russia Sent Greetings

(The Soviet leadership sent formal greetings to the Chinese party and people, wishing them success in building a Communist state. But Moscow also assailed the Chinese for cutting off Soviet economic aid and making their people suffer.)

"It is not our fault that leaders of the Chinese people ceased their economic cooperation with the Soviet Union, thereby depriving the Chinese people of the possibility of using the unselfish aid of the Soviet Union," the government said Monday.

According to broadcasts from Peking by the New China News Agency, Khrushchev's portrait was missing from the celebrations today and the Soviet ambassador was given no special honors.

Peng Chen, mayor of Peking and one of the leading delegates to last summer's ideological talks in Moscow, said the Chinese hard line in foreign policy "has won the approval and cooperation of many foreign friends."

Have Many Friends

"We have friends all over the world," he said.

New China said party Chairman Mao Tse-tung reviewed the mass demonstrations in Peking's Gate of Heavenly Peace Square, and was greeted by "deafening applause."

Among the foreign guests was American Negro Robert Williams, who faces kidnapping charges from a North Carolina racial incident.

Communist newspaper articles on the anniversary made some reference to the economic and agricultural troubles that have beset Mao's regime in the 14 years since it drove the nationalists from the China mainland.

But the stress was on the prospects for the future.

Carol Lee Haskins Wins Title

MERRILL—Merrill will be represented in the court of the 27th annual Klamath Basin Potato Festival by Carol Lee Haskins, 17, who won the honor at the Merrill elimination dance Saturday night.

Competing with Carol for the Merrill title were Marion Bowlsby, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bowlsby, and Joyce Harding, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harding. The candidates were nominated by classmates on the basis of talent, poise, personality, and the ability to sell as many as 700 tickets each to the dance.

Carol, a senior at Merrill High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haskins. In addition to her hobbies of sewing, collecting stuffed animals, and horseback riding, she participates in numerous school activities including the cheerleading squad, G.A.A., and the school paper staff. Carol is also active in Theta Rho.

The Potato Festival is scheduled Oct. 25-26 at Merrill, Carol and contestants from Malin, Henny, Bonanza, and Chiloquin will vie for the festival queen's crown at the annual ball on Oct. 12.

68 Finish Hunt Class

Sixty eight youngsters were graduated Thursday night from the Junior Chamber of Commerce's four-week hunter safety course.

Chief instructor Les Settell said the class started out with 130 youngsters, but nearly half dropped out as the course progressed.

He said a new class will probably begin in late October, and asked that youngsters do not sign up unless they intend to stay the whole four weeks.

Completion of a course in hunter safety is required before a minor can get a hunting license.

Ceramics Class Starts Tonight

The first of two college-credit art classes to be offered this fall at Klamath Union High School will be held tonight in Room 325.

The class in ceramics will begin at 7 p.m. and will run to 9:45. Lyle Matoush is the instructor and the class may gain the student two to four hours of college credit.

The second class in drawing will be held Tuesday night at the same time in the same room. Instructor will be Howard Hall.

House Set To Okay Pay Raise

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House was set today to give final congressional approval to a pay increase for almost 2 million of the nation's servicemen. The price tag would be $12 billion.

The Senate already has approved the compromise measure which calls for raises for all those in the military except 742,000 draftees and enlisted men still serving their two-year military obligation.

The average increase would be a little more than 14 per cent. The effective date would be today.

A total of 411,000 retired military personnel also would benefit. They would receive increases ranging from a 5 per cent cost-of-living boost to recompensation of their retirement pay under new scales. The increases vary, depending on the retirement year.

The bill also provides combat pay of $55 a month to U. S. servicemen under fire in Viet Nam and any other cold war area where fighting may erupt.

Other congressional news:

Prayer: A delegation of citizens, led by Charles W. Winegarner of Glendale, Calif., will present a three-mile-long petition to Congress today to urge action that would permit constitutionally sanctioned "devotional exercises" in public schools. The petition is the work of the 1,350-member "Citizens Congressional Committee," formed solely to deal with the prayer issue.

Civil Rights: The Senate today begins a rescue operation for the U. S. Civil Rights Commission, which lapsed into limbo at mid-night Monday night. Senate Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., predicts the commission will be granted a one year extension over little more than token opposition.
