

Prospects Look Bleak For Enactment Of Tax Cut Bill This Year

LINCOLN CONTINENTAL — Charlie Ramp, manager of Joe Fisher, 677 South Seventh Street, is shown with the 1964 Lincoln Continental. While continuing its classic styling theme, the 1964 Continental is increased three inches in overall length and wheelbase. The roof is wider, providing the car with a new styling flair as well as increased head room both front and rear. Exterior styling includes a new grille, extensive new body sheet metal and exterior ornamentation. The new Lincoln Continental is now being shown at Joe Fisher Motors.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Prospects looked bleak today for final enactment this year of a big tax cut in view of a decision by Senate Democratic leaders that civil rights legislation must come first. Like a broken record, the White House reiterated Tuesday what it has been saying for months: President Kennedy wants both bills enacted this year. Democratic congressional leaders dutifully repeated earlier pledges to press for enactment of both measures.

However, Christmas arrives in 12 weeks and unless the congressional tempo quickens, some lawmakers predict that neither bill will be enacted this year.

Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., said Tuesday that civil rights would get priority over the tax bill in the Senate. He conceded that this may result in final action on the tax measure being delayed until early 1964.

Should this happen, Sen. Russell Long, D-La., predicted it would make no ultimate difference to the pocketbooks of taxpayers. The House last week passed a bill that would reduce income taxes $11 billion in two annual steps starting next Jun. 1.

If final action on the tax bill is delayed until next year, Long said, the tax relief would be made retroactive to Jan. 1, 1964, as provided in the House bill.

Long is the second-ranking Democrat on the Senate Finance Committee. The administration is counting on him to lead the fight for passage of the tax bill over the opposition of Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va.

The National Leadership Conference, a group of labor, church and Negro leaders spearheading the drive for a civil rights bill, insisted that action must be completed on that legislation this year.

Potato Allotment Backed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A top Agriculture Department official today supported an acreage allotment program for Irish potatoes as a help to the farmer and consumer.

Horace D. Godfrey, administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said the potato marketing measure introduced by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D - Maine, would "go a long way" toward correcting the farmer's economic problems.

Muskie's measure was opposed, however, by Idaho potato growers and the American Farm Bureau during a Senate Agriculture subcommittee hearing.

His measure would set up a national marketing quota and state acreage allotments after a referendum approved by at least two-thirds of farmers voting.

Godfrey said the public would benefit from controls "by eliminating the areas of low income which have resulted from the depressed purchasing power of potato farmers and consequently the communities which serve them."

Modern supermarkets in Lancaster, Pa., provide hitching posts for the buggies of Amish farm families.

College Enrollment Up Slightly

EUGENE (UPI)—Enrollment at Oregon's state-supported schools of higher learning today was up slightly over the same period a year ago, the Board of Higher Education reported.

At the end of Monday's registration the state system had 28,399 students compared to 28,024 on the same date a year ago. A spokesman indicated a more solid figure would be available later this week, as registrations are continuing.

Last year during fall term there were 31,846 students enrolled. A spokesman also said the University of Oregon's current figures were down because it began accepting fees later than did Oregon State. Oregon expects at least as many students as last year when it had 9,621 fall term.

Figures at the close of business Monday included, by school, with 1963 figures first and comparable 1962 figures last:

University of Oregon: 5,724 and 6,195.
Oregon State: 9,929 and 9,315.

Portland State: 4,686 and 4,391.
Oregon College of Education: 1,246 and 1,331.
