wedding anniversary. The surprise affair was hosted by their son and two daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel (Thelma) Johnson, Dianna, Danny Jr., and Dawne, this city; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Swift and Darrell, Susan and Mike, Irvington, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack (Geneva) Bonham, Newark, Calif. Also present was Mrs. Swift's mother, Mrs. May (Granny) Bell, this city.

The children presented their parents with matched gold wedding bands engraved with miniature hearts. To carry out the theme of sweethearts and the coral and jade year, the four-tiered cake, baked and decorated by Thelma Johnson, had a base of four heart shaped layers holding the fourth one on which were the numerals 35, circled with coral rosettes and sweetpeas, accented with green.

Mrs. Betty Boggs assisted Mrs. Bonham, Mrs. Gwen Swift and Mrs. Johnson at the refreshment table.

Dianna Johnson and Susan Swift, granddaughters of the honored pair, took charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift were married in Mineral Spring, Tex., and have made their home in Klamath Falls since 1932. He has barbered here for 30 years and operated his own shop for 19 years. Both are active in lodges. Mrs. Swift is a member of Aloha Chapter, OES, White Shrine and Amaranth. Her husband is a York Rite Mason.

The couple were greeted by their many friends and relatives during the afternoon party hours. Also they received numerous cards and calls from out of town friends.

Naomi Shrine

A colorful ceremonial and a dinner ushered in the fall season for Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, on Saturday, Sept. 14, at the Masonic Temple. Many sojourners and guests were welcomed by Myrtle Schieferstein, worthy high priestess, and Clyde Brown, watchman of the shepherds, presiding officers of the Shrine.

A business session was conducted at 4 p.m. with reports given on Shrine affairs since last June when the Shrine recessed for the summer vacation.

A potluck dinner was served to members and guests at 6:30 p.m. in the dining hall. The tables were gay with decorations of summer vacation scenes and inscriptions welcoming returning sojourners.

The committee in charge of the serving was Ruth and Almond Geiss, Edith Williams, Myrtle and Harold Schieferstein. The ceremonial was held at 8 p.m. with the worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds and their corps of officers conducting talented work and pagantry. Ola and Charles Martin became new members of the Shrine after the ceremony.

Interesting reports of sojourners and their summer travels revealed that the Shrine had world travelers. Isabel Sanders gave highlights of her two months' trip to England, and the various countries she visited on a tour of Europe; Jack Schulze reported on his trip to New Orleans and Supreme Shrine; Alma Cofer visited Hawaii; Ruth and Almond Geiss had traveled through 38 states visiting many capitals and colleges and Jim Hunter described the outstanding mighty "I Am" pageant held at Mount Shasta.

The WHP reported on her visitations to Portland Shrine No. 1 when the supreme WHP, Maime

Edwards, made her official visit and the WOS had also been present at Gaspar Shrine at The Dalles during the supreme visit. Shrines at Grants Pass, Eugene, Salem and Portland had also been visited by Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Friendship night was announced for the next meeting on Oct. 12 and the watchmen of shepherds urged all sojourners to be present as many guests from other Shrines are expected for a festive evening. Birthday greetings were sung and extended to Alma Cofer.

Ruth Geiss, noble prophetess, announced the annual smorgasbord to be held on Nov. 16 at the Masonic Temple and all members and friends are invited to attend.

After the meeting closed a social hour was held in the dining hall where refreshments were served by Ruth and Al Geiss, Edith Williams and Harold Schieferstein.
