

BRIDAL PAIR — A romance which began while both were employed at the World's Fair culminated in marriage on Aug. 31 for the former Susanne Jo Buckhouse of Canby and Dennis Robbins, Sumner, Wash. They were married in St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Alturas.

Couple Wed In Alturas

ALTURAS—Susanne Jo Buckhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Buckhouse of Canby, became the bride of Dennis Wilson Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robbins of Sumner, Wash., in an early afternoon ceremony solemnized at St. Michael's Episcopal Church on Saturday, Aug. 31. The Rev. Hugh Mercer, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

White gladioli and candles decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown with slight train, of white French eyelet embroidery fashioned with square neckline, elbow sleeves and fitted bodice. Her elbow length veil of white illusion net was held in place with a single rose.

She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of Tropicana roses with lily of the valley streamers. Her handkerchief was the wedding handkerchief of her godmother, Mrs. R. Chapple, Billings, Mont. Her pearl earrings were borrowed from Katherine Dekker, Carmichael. A blue garter and a lucky coin in her shoe completed the ensemble.

Patricia Buckhouse, Canby, was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Karen Robbins, sister of the bridegroom, Sumner, and Irene Kochendorfer, Sunnyvale, Wash., a college friend. They wore identical gowns of white eyelet embroidery over green taffeta, with square necklines, elbow sleeves and bell-shaped skirts, green shoes and headpieces of matching illusion net held with a single rose. Their old-fashioned bouquets were of roses, the maid of honor's being a deeper shade.

Richard Nehr, Seattle, served as best man. Ushers were John Buckhouse, brother of the bride, and Donald Shumaker, both of Canby.

Acolytes were David Robbins, Sumner, brother of the bridegroom, and Bill Chapple, Bremerton, Wash., cousin of the bride.

The church organist, Frankie McVeagh, played a musical prelude and traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Buckhouse chose for her daughter's wedding a green silk linen dress and jacket ensemble with white and black accessories. Mrs. Robbins, mother of the bridegroom, wore a sheath of multicolored lace with green accessories. Both mothers had corsages of roses.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in Trumbo Hall which was decorated with roses and gladioli. Marjory Poytress, Canby, was in charge of the serving. Assisting were Nancy Quinn-

TO WED — The engagement of Carol Glidden to Herbert H. Finley is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Glidden, Mount Shasta. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Huey Finley, Grenada. The bride-elect is a graduate of College of the Siskiyous. Her fiancé is employed by International Paper Company. Wedding following four years' service with the Navy. A fall wedding is planned. —Photo by J. O. McKinney

NUPTIAL PAIR — Mr. and Mrs. Michael W. Stansell were married Sept. 21 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Stansell is the former Kathleen Ann Bose. —Photo by Bob Anderson

Kathleen Bose Bride In September Rites

Kathleen Ann Bose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bose, this city, became the bride of Michael W. Stansell on Sept. 21 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church. The double ring ceremony was read at 7 p.m. by the Rev. Laing Sibbel.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stansell, Gold Beach.

George Bose escorted his daughter to the altar which was decorated with arrangements of cream gladioli, yellow pompons and bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Ross Ragland was the organist.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace with tapered bracelet length sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt which festooned to the back and extended into a chapel train. Seed pearls and iridescent sequins outlined the sweetheart neckline. The three tiered bouffant veil was held in place by an organza rose petal headdress. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a corsage of white phalaenopsis orchids which she wore later on her going away outfit.

In her slipper was a six pence brought from Ireland by Mrs. Michael Foley, this city.

Mrs. Richard Ford, matron of honor, wore a frock of pale gold brocade and carried a cascade of bronze pompons and tangerine carnations with wheat, green acorns and green velvet leaves.

Junior bridesmaids and candlelighters Sharon Henderson, Forest Grove, and Cheryl Lundberg wore dresses like the honor attendant and their bouquets were smaller versions of hers.

Richard Ford was best man and Donald Bose, brother of the bride, and Larry Hersey were ushers.

Mrs. Bose, dressed in a pastel green brocade suit, and Mrs. Stansell in a blue ensemble, both had corsages of tropicana roses.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. James W. Hope and Mrs. E. Gomer Samuel served cake. Mrs. Orville Bennett, punch and Mrs. Donald R. Kennedy, aunt of the bride, poured coffee.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in California. For traveling, the bride wore a blue silk sheath dress with matching jersey coat. Mrs. Stansell is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and is employed as secretary for Medco-Bel Dairy.

The bridegroom, graduate of Gold Beach High School, will be graduated in December from Oregon Technical Institute. He has majored in electronics and is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers. They are residing at 1215 Pine Street.

In addition to the bridegroom's parents, other out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. F. R. Kennedy, and Mr. and Mrs. George O. Sanders, grandparents of the bridegroom, all of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Henderson, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Kennedy, family, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hertig and family, Seaside; Gene V. Kennedy, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. U. Ulshoeller and family, Salem; Mrs. M. E. Ulshoeller, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simpson, Beaverton; Candace Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Baumgartner, Frances Hoogduin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Baumgartner, Hillsboro.

The bride's gown, long sleeved and floor length, was fashioned with a full skirt of silk organza with a modified train and a lace bodice with square neckline. Her hand applied illusion veil fell from a tiny cap trimmed with lily of the valley and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Helen Gallagher of Pleasant Hill was maid of honor in a bell skirted dress of green brocade with matching jacket and headpiece.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. James Cunningham, Chico, and Mary Phipps, Sacramento, wore gold brocade outfits styled to match the maid of honor's attire. All three attendants carried bouquets of glameillas and white pompons.

Peter Patella, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and James Cunningham, Chico, and Joseph Belcastro, Weed, ushers.

The Dunsuir Community Center was the scene of the reception and catered luncheon following the double ring ceremony.

Departing for a week's stay in the Bay Area, the new Mrs. Patella donned a rose beige sheath with matching jacket and white accessories.

AUGUST NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. John A. Patella were married the last day of August in Dunsuir. Mrs. Patella is the former Ronda Young of that city. —Photo by Hap Penman

Ronda Young August Bride

DUNSMUIR — Two hundred and fifty guests gathered for the wedding of Ronda Young of Dunsuir and John A. Patella of Weed on Saturday morning, Aug. 31, in St. John's Catholic Church.

The nuptial mass was recited by Msgr. James Casey at 11 a.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Young and has worked at the Dunsuir office of the telephone company since her graduation from Dunsuir High School. The bridegroom is a senior at the University of California at Davis where he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and an education major. His mother is Mrs. Dee Patella of Weed.

The bride's gown, long sleeved and floor length, was fashioned with a full skirt of silk organza with a modified train and a lace bodice with square neckline. Her hand applied illusion veil fell from a tiny cap trimmed with lily of the valley and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Helen Gallagher of Pleasant Hill was maid of honor in a bell skirted dress of green brocade with matching jacket and headpiece.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. James Cunningham, Chico, and Mary Phipps, Sacramento, wore gold brocade outfits styled to match the maid of honor's attire. All three attendants carried bouquets of glameillas and white pompons.

Peter Patella, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and James Cunningham, Chico, and Joseph Belcastro, Weed, ushers.

The Dunsuir Community Center was the scene of the reception and catered luncheon following the double ring ceremony.

Departing for a week's stay in the Bay Area, the new Mrs. Patella donned a rose beige sheath with matching jacket and white accessories.

SORORITY OFFICERS — New officers for Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, are shown left to right, standing, Jen Ring, treasurer; Shirley Senff, corresponding secretary; Phyllis Franks, recording secretary, and Afslee Pierce, extension officer. Bonnie Hamilton, president, is seated. Not shown is Estaline O'Harra, vice president.

Clubs Meet In Malin

Mrs. Charles Johnson entertained the Happy Hour Bridge Club on Sept. 17. Two tables were in play. High score was held by Mrs. Maude Burgess and second high by Mrs. Lester Schreiner.

Others present were Mrs. John Reber, Mrs. Robert Holl, Mrs. W. C. Dalton Sr., Mrs. Charles Hamilton and Mrs. G. C. Blohm.

Mrs. Mildred Dobry was hostess to the Czech Ladies Club on Sept. 19. Games were played with prizes going to Anna Hartlerode, Amelia Cacka, Elizabeth Slezak and Rose Bailey.

Also present were Ella Halousek, Agnes Drazil, Mildred Rajnus, Elizabeth Paygr, Blanche

Clubs Meet In Malin

Eighteen members of the Helping Hand Society met Sept. 18 at the home of Mrs. Halbert Wilson for a noon dinner, followed by a business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold Kniskern.

It was voted to hold a baked food sale on Saturday, Oct. 5. Appointed to the scholarship committee were Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. Merle Evans and Mrs. Dick Derry. Mrs. Norman Jacob was named an alternate.

Mrs. Mildred Dobry was hostess to the Czech Ladies Club on Sept. 19. Games were played with prizes going to Anna Hartlerode, Amelia Cacka, Elizabeth Slezak and Rose Bailey.

Also present were Ella Halousek, Agnes Drazil, Mildred Rajnus, Elizabeth Paygr, Blanche

MARBLE TREATMENT

A marble polish now comes in a push-button container. It may be used on marble tables and shelves, ceramic or mosaic surfaces. According to the manufacturer, it does not yellow or discolor.

Oliva, Emma Wilde, Anna Pickett and Martha Brothnek.

Another recent Malin social evening was Sept. 14 when friends called on Mr. and Mrs. George Williams to welcome them in their new home.

A social evening was enjoyed and the honored couple were given an evergreen tree for their yard, which also served at the time as a money tree.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kenneth Duncan, Mrs. Jack Lindsay, Mrs. Leon Turner, Mrs. Ed Turner, Mrs. Ernest Wolf and Mrs. Jess Lindsay.

White Stag

cuts a CAMPUS CAPER

in cable-quilted Antron with fox furred hood

4 SEASONS* SHIRT AND PROPORTIONED FLANNEL PANT... classics with color news from

Emerging for a new season... your favorite basic shirt in a heavy of cool new deep tones by White Stag. How many will you choose? Easy-care 65% Dacron, 35% Cotton; superbly detailed with roll sleeves, convertible collar, bottom side vents. With it, another great classic... the wool flannel pant, side zipped, fully lined and proportioned throughout to fit as if made for you alone! Side pocket.

4 Seasons* Shirt, (sizes, colors) $ 5.00
Proportioned Pant, (sizes, colors) $15.00

USE OUR CONVENIENT CHARGE, REVOLVING CHARGE OR LAYAWAY PLANS

Green Stamps

Oregon Food Shopping Center

AVALON and SHASTA WAY

Pacific Trail Reverses From Downy Deep Pile To Fun-Lovin' Poplin

They'll be soft as a bunny... snug as a bug in Pacific Trail's "Teddy Bear." A lovable surcoat for little lads or lassies... of downy acrylic pile reversing to Greenwood's sturdy poplin. Attached hood... zip front. Its new look assured... because it's sanitized... wet-dyed... Zelon and Zeil for permanent water repellency, maximum wash and wearability. Walnut pile reversing to camel; loden to sage; sapphire to venetian blue. Sizes 2 to 6X... $7.98.

... and S&H Green Stamps!

619 Main

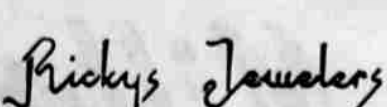

INVITATION!

FINAL WEEK

You are cordially invited to view the second American showing of Italian artist ROBERTO CIABANI at Ricky's Jewelers, 700 Main Street, Klamath Falls, to October 12th, 9:30 a.m. 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Mr. Ciabani is one of Italy's youngest celebrated artists, a figurative artist with a variety of interesting subjects well worth seeing.

Ciabani oils and other works may also be seen in Medford at an extended showing by Fontaine Galleries, 329 South Grape Street.

700 Main St.