

Unemployment Drops

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Unemployment in the United States declined by 341,000 in September to a total of 3,516,000, the lowest thus far in 1963 but almost identical with the September, 1962, figure.

At the same time, employment in September dropped by 1,015,000, according to a Labor Department report released last week. Both the drop in the jobs total and the decline in employment were attributed to normal end-of-summer seasonal change.

Unemployment also fell in July and August. It usually reaches its yearly low-point in October, according to the department.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment rose from 5.5 to 5.6 per cent of the labor force in September, but a change that small was not considered statistically significant.

The department said nearly 2 million teen-age workers dropped out of the labor force. Another 700,000 adult women found jobs last month; about half of them were teachers.

Girl Remains In Hospital Still Suffering From Hypnotism; Magician Charged

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn. (UPI) — A hearing on assault charges against a part-time magician was delayed Friday until Oct. 22 when it is hoped the girl he hypnotized will be well enough to testify.

General Sessions Judge David F. Tucker recessed the hearing on the request of the high school coach's attorney, John L. Bowers. The girl, chestnut-haired Teresa Carol Fletcher, 13, remained in Memorial Hospital under the care of a psychiatrist. Doctors said she may require prolonged psychiatric care.

Mrs. Kenneth Fletcher, the girl's mother, swore out assault charges against C. H. Cunningham, 35, a Kingsport textile worker whose hobby is magic. Cunningham put on a hypnotism show at Unaka High School last Tuesday, and Teresa, one of his volunteer subjects, became hysterical.

She was reported improved Thursday after a session with a psychiatrist, but later lapsed back into hysteria.

"We don't know exactly how long it will take for her to recover," said Dr. Charles Wells, one of the physicians attending the girl. "Possibly in two or three weeks."

"She still has episodes of hallucinations," he said. "She is going to need very close care for the next few days. This is the crucial time."

Wells said he felt hypnotism shows "should be outlawed in the schools."

Cunningham was to have performed at another Elizabethton school Thursday, but the show was cancelled.

Mayor W. G. Frost and City Manager W. Paul Crumley said it has been the practice to leave the question up to the individual schools. The county school board disclaimed any knowledge of the Unaka High School show.

"As for me," Crumley told United Press International, "I question the wisdom of having this form of entertainment in the schools."

The Rev. Herman Hood, a Baptist minister, said the school board rather than Cunningham bears most of the blame.

The Elizabethton Star, in a front page editorial Wednesday, said that hypnotists, "professionals or amateurs, should not be allowed to perform on students."
