The real-estate salesman had spent all Sunday afternoon showing model homes to a young engaged couple. So far they had been more interested in each other than the houses, but the patient salesman felt this particular model would be especially attractive to them.

"For one thing," he explained, "your husband-to-be will have a hobby room, which few homes have. By the way, I suppose you people do have a hobby?"

"Oh, yes," the girl sighed. "It's looking through model homes on Sunday afternoon dates."

It's Time We Drug 'em Out
Our medicine cabinet's where
We seem to be hoarding a scad
Of prescriptions we don't recall getting
For ills we've forgotten we had.

The young lady telephoned one of her friends. "I overheard somebody on the bus say that you'd lost your boy friend at sea. I just wanted to tell you how sorry I am."

"Yes, it was awful," the girl replied. "A blonde nabbed him on that Caribbean cruise he took."

The patient was baggy-eyed and drawn. "I simply can't get a good night's sleep," he told the doctor. "I keep having this terrible dream. There's this door with a sign, and I push it and push it—but I never can get it open!"

"Tell me," said the doctor, "what does the sign say?"

"Pull," the patient replied.

The middle-aged lady was driving in the country when a tire went flat. A kindly truck driver noticed her problem and stopped to give assistance. "I'll change the tire, ma'am," he said. "What kind of jack do you have?"

The woman considered this, then replied: "Would $5 be enough?"

Delayed Reaction
The dentist just phoned me and said,
With a voice that was laden
with sorrow,
He'd have to postpone for six weeks
The appointment I had for tomorrow.

I tried not to show my regret,
Dejection, unhappiness, grief,
Annoyance, displeasure, chagrin,
Irritation, resentment—relief.
