Take it from the Chicago Bears and Philadelphia Eagles, whether it's football or baseball, there's nothing like having a good man in the bullpen.

Rudy Bukich of the Bears and King Hill of the Eagles, a pair of journeyman quarterbacks who have been knocking around the National Football League, came off the bench Sunday and turned in winning performances as impressive as Bart Star, Y. A. Tittle, Frank Ryan and Charlie Johnson.

The Bears came from behind to beat the Baltimore Colts, 10-3, Sunday and the Cleveland Browns defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-23, Saturday night to extend their spotless records to 4-0.

Starr, Tittle and Johnson each threw three touchdowns passes Sunday to keep the Green Bay Packers, New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals closely in contention with 3-1 records. The Packers drubbed the Los Angeles Rams, 42-10; the Giants whipped the Washington Redskins, 24-14; and the Cards walloped the Minnesota Vikings, 49-14.

Lions Downed 49ers

Hill's passes helped the Eagles score their first victory of the season as they sent the Dallas Cowboys down to their fourth straight defeat, 24-21, and the Detroit Lions ruined the head coaching debut of the San Francisco Forty Niners' Jack Christiansen with a 26-3 shellacking.

The Browns face the Giants next Sunday in an Eastern Division showdown, but it looks like there'll be no stopping the Bears for a few weeks. They next travel to the West Coast for successive meetings with the Rams and Forty Niners, neither of whom has won a game.

Bukich, who previously played for Los Angeles and Pittsburgh during his nine-year NFL career, was summoned from the bench late in the third period after the Bears were unable to overcome a 3-0 Baltimore lead with Billy Wade at quarterback.

Hill Led Eagles

Bukich completed six straight passes, mixing the first three with some effective Chicago rushing during an 80-yard touchdown drive.

Hill, another vagabond quarterback playing in his sixth NFL season, replaced injured Sonny Jurgensen and got the Eagles off winging with an 80-yard touchdown hookup with Timmy Brown. Hill also completed a six-yard TD toss to Clarence Peaks and set up a third touchdown and a Philadelphia field goal.

Herb Adderly, Green Bay's all-league defensive back, raced 98 yards with the opening kickoff and Starr subsequently completed touchdown passes of 27 yards to Jim Taylor, 53 yards to Max McGee and 19 yards to Ron Kramer in the romp against the Rams.

Tittle engineered a 98 - yard touchdown drive in the final period, throwing 27 yards to Joe Walton for the score that clinched the game for the Giants.

The Redskins narrowed New York's lead to 17-14 at halftime when Norm Snead's passing and the rushing of Billy Barnes and Don Bosseler produced two second-period touchdowns.

Johnson's passes gained a total of 301 yards for the Cards against the Vikings. Sonny Randle caught TD passes of 21 and 68 yards from Johnson and another of 11 yards from Buddy Humphrey. Bill Triplett scored twice, on an eight-yard run and on a five-yard pass from Johnson.

Ducks Hold 2-1 Record On Passing

EUGENE (UPI)—Oregon owned a 2-1 record for the football season today—thanks to its "speed" and "passing."

"Our speed and passing attack were the key factors," Coach Len Casanova said after his Ducks raced past West Virginia 35-0 on the latter's field at Morgantown Saturday.

"They were pretty slow," he continued. "We figured we could pass on them and it worked. It was easier than we expected, though."

Junior quarterback Bob Berry hit 8 of 11 pass attempts for 227 yards and a touchdown for the Ducks, who scored all their points in the opening half.

"I also thought we played well defensively," Casanova said. "We had our lapses but, when we needed it, the defense was tough."

Keller Scores Twice

Th Ducks took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 3-yard touchdown run by halfback Dennis Keller.

They added four more touchdowns in the second period — on 1-yard runs by Mel Renfro and Berry, a 59-yar pass from Berry to Keller and a 38-yard pass interception runback by halfback Ron Martin.

Buck Corey kicked the extra points after the first four touchdowns and Renfro added the final conversion.

West Virginia Coach Gene Corum said: "Oregon was too fast, too quick, too tough and there were too many of them."

End Dick Imwalle, Renfro and Keller turned in outstanding performances. Imwalle caught four passes for 78 yards. Renfro made 24 yards in seven carries, caught three passes for 67 yards and completed a pass for 11 yards. Keller ran for 34 yards in seven carries and caught the one pass for 59 yards.

Jack Soverign, now the second string Duck quarterback following Doug Post's injury, got a chance to play much of the second half on offense and performed well.

Oregon will meet Idaho at Eugene next Saturday afternoon. The Vandals also have a 2-1 record.

ANDY COAKLEY DIES

NEW YORK (UPI) — Andy Coakley, a member of the 1905 Philadelphia Athletics World Series pitching staff that included Chief Bender, Eddie Plank and Rube Waddell, died Friday at the age of 80. Coakley served as head baseball coach at Columbia University for 36 years, retiring in 1951.

Turner, Stable Top Boxing Slate

NEW YORK (UPI) — Aggressive Jose Stable of Cuba and unbeaten Dick Turner of Philadelphia are slated for a nationally televised welterweight contenders' fight Friday night at Philadelphia's Blue Horizon Arena.

Their 10-rounder shapes up as the feature bout on the week's boxing schedule, which includes comeback fights by England's wealthy Terry Downes, former co-holder of the world middleweight crown, and by former top heavyweight contender Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore.

Bookie Downes comes out of a brief retirement to campaign as a light heavyweight in a bout with Germany's Rueolph Nehring at London's Albert Hall Tuesday night.

Machen, who scored his first comeback victory on a kayo over Miami's Ollie Wilson on Sept. 18, meets Alonzo Johnson of Rankin, Pa., at Santa Monica, Calif., Saturday night.

For Friday's TV fight at Philadelphia, third ranking welterweight contender Stable is favored at 8-5 over seventh ranked turner. Turner seeks his 20th victory and 12th knockout in 21 bouts, which include a draw. Stable's 21-2-1 record includes six knockouts.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Monday: Salt Lake City, Utah—Don Smith vs. Sonny Hett and Tony Draper vs. John Curtis. Bakersfield, Calif.—Rey Asis vs. Manny Linson.

Tuesday: London (Albert Hall)—Terry Downes vs. Rudolph Nehring. New York (Sunnyside)—Domingo Ortiz vs. Bob Cassidy. Fresno, Calif.—Isaac Logart vs. Gabe Terronez.

Wednesday: Teaneck, N. J.—Jose Torres vs. Don Fullmer.

Thursday: Los Angeles (Olympic)—Raul Rojas vs. Lalo Larranga and Adolph Pruitt vs. Art Hayward.

Friday: Philadelphia (Blue Horizon)—Dick Turner vs. Jose Stable (TV).

Saturday: Santa Monica, Calif.—Eddie Machen vs. Alonzo Johnson.

Arnie Regains Stride In $125,000 Victory

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Arnold Palmer's victory in the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open should serve as a warning for the British Ryder Cup team.

The Latrobe, Pa., muscleman proved he was "back on the stick" Sunday when he won the year's richest tournament at the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club by a stroke over Lionel Hebert.

Palmer, who will lead the U.S. team against Britain in the Ryder Cup matches at Atlanta next weekend, overcame a double bogey on the 14th hole to finish with a winning aggregate of 281, seven under par.

Arnie said he fell "absolutely fast asleep" and hit the ball out of bounds over a snow fence on the 14th. He then had to hit another ball, thus losing two strokes from his big lead over Hebert, slamming Sammy Snead and Canadian Al Balding.

Hebert, who finished in the threesome ahead of Palmer, was waiting for a possible playoff but golf's top money winner responded to the challenge by getting a birdie on the 15th and another one on the 17th to offset a bogey on the 16th.

Palmer came to the 18th knowing he needed a par four to win. He hit what he termed "his best drive of the tournament" to put him in good position. After his iron shot put him to within 35 feet of the pin, Palmer two putted for his par and the $26,000 first prize money, the largest check he has received in any tournament.

The win, Palmer's seventh tourney triumph of 1963, brought his record earnings this year to $127,555.

Hebert, whose third round 65 on Saturday zoomed him into contention, won $13,000 for his second place finish, the most he has collected at one tournament in 12 years on the Professional Golfers' Association circuit. His last major tournament victory was the 1962 Memphis Open.

Balding, of Markland Wood, Ont., Canada, needed a birdie on the 18th hole to tie Palmer but finished with a bogey to deadlock with Snead at 183 for third money of $6,750 each.

Don January, Walnut Calif., and Mason Rudolph, Lehigh Acres, Fla., collected $4,700 each for a fifth place tie at 284. Rudolph and Phil Rodgers, Perdido Bay, Fla., had been tied for second, three strokes behind Palmer, going into the final round but both fell off the pace. Rodgers finished in a tie for 11th with Roger Ginsberg, Alpine, N. J., with 287.

BACK IN FORM — An enthusiastic bunch of "Arnie's Army" go into rapture as they watch their leader birdie a tough 10 hole at the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open. Palmer won the tough tourney by one stroke over Lionel Hebert. Palmer will lead the U.S. team against Britain in the Ryder Cup matches next weekend at Atlanta. — UPI Telephoto
