

A BIT OF TOGETHERNESS

BACK IN THE SWING OF THINGS—It took only 12 seconds of the first game of the 47th NHL for a fight to break out as John Ferguson of the Montreal Canadiens (22) and Ted Green of the Bruins square off as the other players watch. Ferguson, playing his first NHL game, went on to score two goals and an assist as the teams played to a 4-4 tie. —UPI Telephoto

The Montreal Canadiens opened their road show with a Boston try-out Tuesday night but in spite of a script that dragged at the end, a potential National Hockey League star was born.

John Ferguson, a 25-year-old Montreal rookie playing his first major league game, slammed home two goals and assisted on a third as the Boston Bruins battled from behind to salvage a 4-4 tie in the opening game of the NHL's 47th season.

Ferguson, playing on the Habs' first line with veterans Jean Beliveau and Boom Boom Geoffrion, scored his initial goal at 9:56 of the opening period on an assist by Beliveau. He again flashed the puck past Bruin goalie Ed Johnston on a power play at 16:25 of the second period and set up Geoffrion's goal 50 seconds later to tie the score at 3-3.

Terry Harper slapped home a 45-footer early in the third period to send the Canadiens into the lead for the first time in the game but Boston's Murray Oliver dampened Gump Worsley's debut in the Montreal nets by registering his second goal of the game from in close with less than two minutes left.

Tommy Williams also accounted for a Boston score in the first period to give the Bruins' first line three goals for the night. The wave of Oliver, Williams and Johnny Bucyk led the league in scoring last year.

Koufax was the unanimous choice as the National League's pitcher of the year, polling all 24 votes cast by the experts. He was selected for having made the comeback of the year by 12 of the 24 experts with Curt Simmons of the St. Louis Cardinals ranking second with four votes.

Other votes in the comeback of the year balloting were cast for Hal Woodeshick of the Houston Colts, Dick Ellsworth of the Chicago Cubs, the Los Angeles Dodgers as a team (two votes each) and for Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs and the Cardinals as a team (one each).

Koufax' credentials as the National League's pitcher of the year are beyond dispute. The 27-year-old 200-pound left-hander appeared in 40 games and 311 innings. He had a 25-5 record for an .833 won-lost percentage and the most victories by a National League left-hander since Carl Hubbell won 26 games in 1936.

Sets Strikeout Mark Koufax set a new National League strikeout record of 306 in one season and thereby joined Rube Waddell, Walter Johnson and Bob Feller as the only pitchers who have surpassed the 300.

mark in strikeouts for a season. Sandy also pitched 11 shutouts—a new record for a left-hander—and his 1.88 earned run average was remarkable for a pitcher who worked so many innings.

All this by a pitcher who 14 months ago was threatened with the loss of a finger that undoubtedly would have ended his career. Simmons, 34-year old former Philadelphia Phillie whiz kid left-hander, compiled a 15-9 record for the Cardinals. It marked his biggest winning season since 1956 and it played a major role in the Cardinals' surprising rise as a National League pennant contender.

Injured 49er Sets Return
REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI)—Coach Jack Christiansen of the San Francisco Forty Niners said today that offensive guard Mike Magae will be reactivated in time for Sunday's game at Baltimore. Magae was hurt in a pre-season game and has been on the injured reserve list. His return brings the Forty Niner squad to its full complement of 37.

Tough rookie halfback Don Lisbon jogged around the practice field Tuesday, testing his pulled hamstring muscle. The coach said he thought Lisbon would be ready to go Sunday but would not know for sure until Thursday.

Offensive lineman John Thomas also was slowed by a pulled leg muscle. The new head coach said that films of Sunday's 26-3 loss at Detroit convinced him that the Forty Niner defensive team turned in a good effort. He especially praised defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, who made eight tackles and recovered a fumble.

BEAUTIFUL GOLFER

NEW YORK (UPI)—The "most beautiful golfer of 1963" is Nancy Albert, 19, of Trenton, N.J., and Duke University. The choice was made by Golf Digest magazine. Miss Albert stands 5 feet, 5 inches and weighs 115 pounds. And she shoots in the low 70s.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Coach John McKay sent his University of Southern California Trojans through extensive defensive drills again today in preparation for their game against Notre Dame Saturday in South Bend, Ind. McKay worked on defense for the first half of the practice session Tuesday, and spent the second half on the Trojan passing attack.

Paul Jones isn't for Aunt Martha's sewing circle

This whiskey's blended for men. Blended rich and mellow—with bourbon for verve, aged rye for heft, a touch of two-fisted corn whiskey, and select grain neutral spirits. Not for Aunt Martha. But for me—when men drink with men. Paul Jones.

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI)—Stanford officials today confirmed the bad news that starting quarterback Clark Weaver is out for the season with a knee injury. Weaver underwent surgery Tuesday. Sophomore Mike Connelly looked sharp in drills Tuesday at quarterback for the first time. Halfback Dick Ragsdale also took a turn at running the squad.

The Big 'K' Voted Year's Top Hurler

NEW YORK (UPI)—Los Angeles Dodger star Sandy Koufax was honored by the United Press International today as the No. 1 National League pitcher of the year and for having made the major league comeback of the year.

It was the first time in their history that any major league pitcher has won both awards. The twin honors were determined by a survey of 24 baseball experts representing every city in the majors.

Koufax was the unanimous choice as the National League's pitcher of the year, polling all 24 votes cast by the experts. He was selected for having made the comeback of the year by 12 of the 24 experts with Curt Simmons of the St. Louis Cardinals ranking second with four votes.

Other votes in the comeback of the year balloting were cast for Hal Woodeshick of the Houston Colts, Dick Ellsworth of the Chicago Cubs, the Los Angeles Dodgers as a team (two votes each) and for Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs and the Cardinals as a team (one each).

COAST FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—The Washington Huskies may have fullback Junior Coffey back in the lineup before the season is over.

Coffey, considered an All-America candidate, broke his foot before the season started. He ran through plays Tuesday with the second team, but still favored the injured foot.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—When an unbeaten team meets a squad that has not won a game, who is the favorite? When the teams are Oregon State and Washington, the game is considered a toss-up.

Coach Tommy Prothro agreed with that estimate. He said that the Huskies would be "the hardest hitting team we have faced this year."

Prothro put his team through a defense drill Tuesday.

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—The Oregon University Ducks went to the movies Tuesday. The main feature was a showing of games involving Oregon's next foe, Idaho.

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI)—Stanford officials today confirmed the bad news that starting quarterback Clark Weaver is out for the season with a knee injury.

Pel Boosters Slate Meet

The weekly Pelican Booster Club meeting will be held tonight at 6:30 at the Chuck Wagon. Films of last week's contest against the North Salem Vikings will be shown and prospects regarding the upcoming contest against Grants Pass will be discussed by coach Bob Williams and staff.

All fans are invited.
