Bid Helps Exploration

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
The minimum strength for the artificial two no-trump response to a major suit opening is 13 supporting points of which at least 11 are in high cards. With enough support and less than 11 in high cards you simply jump right to four of partner's suit.

There is no maximum strength at all. You can use the bid as the start of grand slam exploration. The only thing to bear in mind is that it has nothing at all to do with no-trump and merely takes the place of the forcing raise.

If the opener has a rock bottom minimum he shows it by jumping right to game in his suit. This particular bid says, "Partner, I have no interest in a slam and merely am bidding game because your bid was a game force."

With a slightly better hand opener rebids to three no-trump. This also announces little or no slam interest, but at least a sound opening bid. Once more, it expresses no interest in a no-trump contract. The hand is going to play in the major suit first bid.

North is interested in six or seven once he hears the opening heart bid. He still plans on getting to six or more after the three no-trump rebid indicates a sound opening bid and his four club call is the first step in that direction.

South shows his ace of diamonds and North first shows his ace of spades and then stops at six hearts after South merely bids five.

Six hearts is the perfect contract. South has no trouble making it, but he has no play for seven.

Q—The bidding has been:
North Double 1♥ West 1♠
Pass 2♥ 4♠ Pass 4♠
You, South, hold:
♠ K 8 6 4 ♦ A 10 2 ♣ K J 7 6
What do you do now?

A—Bid four spades. Apparently your partner's failure to rebid over West's one spade was due to shortage in hearts. There just may be a slam. Anyway, four spades does not shut out five clubs which is your alternate bid.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of passing one spade, your partner bids two hearts. East bids two spades. What do you do now?

SENTENCED TO DEATH

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (UPI)—Robert Alford, who admitted murdering three California youngsters whose bodies were found in northern Arizona last June, was denied permission to change his plea Monday and was sentenced to death.

Alford, of Santa Rosa, Calif., had entered the guilty plea last month. But when he appeared Monday before Superior Court Judge L. T. Wren, he denied he had killed the three youngsters from Stockton, Calif., and said he never had agreed to the guilty plea entered for him.
