Judith Ann Woodruff Weds James N. Shaw

Judith Ann Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Delos Woodruff, this city, became the bride of James Nolan Shaw on Sept. 22 at Mt. Laki Presbyterian Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw of Nelson, Neb.

For the double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Andrew Jarvis the communion table was prettily decorated with white gladioli and pink carnations. A similar arrangement was on the piano on which Mrs. A. F. Herringshaw played traditional wedding marches.

Patricia Isensee played two violin solos, The Swan, Saint Saens and Sheep May Safely Graze by Bach.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For the three o'clock ceremony she chose a gown fashioned in Chantilly lace with scalloped Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. A wide panel of lace covered the front of the silk organza skirt whose butterfly back swept in soft folds into a full cathedral train. The waist length illusion veil was caught to a headpiece of orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Norma Jean Lyon, Olene, was maid of honor. Her street length sheath was fashioned of deep turquoise peau de soie with jacket. On her head was a flat bow with veil in matching turquoise shade.

Dressed like the honor attendant were the bridesmaids, Jane Ann Craig, Klamath Falls, and Martha Tubach, South Pole Valley.

All attendants carried bouquets of pink and white gladiolus.

Robin Bithell, San Diego, brother of the bride, was best man. Madera, Calif., Roger Thompson, Klamath Falls, Jim Craig and Bing Harris, cousin of the bride, Portland.

After the wedding ceremony the new Mr. and Mrs. Shaw received congratulations from their guests at the reception in the church parlors. In the receiving line also were their mothers. Mrs. Woodruff was dressed in a blue-green wool afternoon dress with feather hat and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Shaw wore a brown fur trimmed costume suit with matching hat and corsage of yellow roses.

The three tiered colonnaded wedding cake, topped with lily of the valley and white satin bells, was served by Mrs. Delbert Dellinger and Mrs. Lee Campbell. Presiding at the coffee and punch services were Mrs. Victor O'Neill and Mrs. Frank Howard.

Mrs. Richard Smith attended the guest book and Mrs. Charles Hurst received gifts. Assisting about the rooms was Mrs. Robert Craig. Mrs. Bryant Williams was in charge of corsages.

The new Mrs. Shaw wore a yellow wool suit, black patent accessories and the white roses from her bridal bouquet as her going away outfit. The young couple spent their honeymoon in Mexico en route to their new home in South Carolina where the bridegroom serves as lieutenant at Shaw AFB.

Mrs. Shaw is a medical technologist with a BS degree from Oregon State University where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority and Enterpe music honorary.

Lieutenant Shaw is a graduate of Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Pa., with a BS degree in physics. Presently he is navigator, electronic warfare officer with the Air Force.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bingham Harris III and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bruner, Portland.

Flower School Is Scheduled

A Flower Show School, Course IV, sponsored by Capitol District No. 17 of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., will be held Oct. 22, 23 and 24 at Pringle Park in Salem.

Mrs. David C. Mahoney of Pendleton will be the instructor in horticulture and flower show practice on Oct. 22.

The flower arrangement lecture and demonstration on Oct. 23 will be conducted by Mrs. C. F. Gregg, Eugene.

Both Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Mahoney hold master certificates as nationally accredited flower show judges under the requirements set up by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., of which Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs is a member.

Point-scoring examinations will be given at the close of each day's lecture with the written examination on Oct. 24 for those wishing to qualify for their amateur accredited judging certificate.

This school qualifies as a refresher course for those applying for a refresher certificate. The lectures and demonstrations are open to anyone interested in growing of good horticulture, in organization of flower shows, or in exhibiting in flower shows and fairs. Fee for the two days is $5 with an additional $1 for examination.

PLAN EPISCOPAL TEA — Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, right, and Mrs. Paul Jones, co-chairmen for the October benefit tea planned for Saturday between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock at the William Whytal home on Lakeshore Drive, admire the Sheffield tea service of the Queen Anne period which will be used on the tea table. The antique tea tray is also of Sheffield silver in a lovely vintage pattern.

Episcopal Women Plan Autumn Tea

The beautiful Lakeshore Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Whytal will be the setting Oct. 19 for the annual autumn benefit tea of the women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The dwelling, which is of "southern mansion" architecture, is believed to be the only authentic example in the Klamath Basin of an ante-bellum style house.

Mrs. Wyatt Padgett and Mrs. Paul Jones are co-chairmen for the tea. Guests will call between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. All women of the Klamath Basin are invited, according to Mrs. Richard Hegg, chairman of the Women of St. Paul's.

Mrs. Robert L. Greene, Mrs. Merle Swansen, Mrs. R. H. Reeves, Mrs. C. F. Harris, Mrs. L. B. Bartholomew and Mrs. Heber Radcliffe have been asked to preside at the tea table during the afternoon. Mrs. Howard Pernel and Mrs. Greene will arrange the tea table.

Hostesses for the party will be Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Helen Goeckner, Mrs. George Kovich, Mrs. Paul Jones Jr., Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. Neil Wadley, Mrs. Bill Milne and Mrs. Vincent Lawler.

Mrs. Harry Todd, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Martin Lucas, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. John Moehl and Mrs. George Nicholson will greet guests at the door.

In charge of serving is Mrs. Robert Elliott. She will be assisted by Mrs. C. L. Barkdoll, Mrs. Joseph Mercer, Mrs. Carl Bartlett and Mrs. Hugh Whipple. William A. North is in charge of cookies and Mrs. Paul Jones, of sandwiches.

Mrs. F. M. Bellingier is chairman of the ticket committee. Mrs. Norman Guyer will assist her. Tickets may be obtained for a nominal fee from any of the women of St. Paul's, or may be purchased at the door.

Redding Girl Is Bride Of Ronald H. Fredricks

Sharon Lee Andrus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Andrus, Redding, became the bride of Ronald Harry Fredricks, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Fredricks, Klamath Falls, on Sept. 14 in All Saints Episcopal Church in Redding.

The Rev. Galen Onstad, former pastor of St. Paul's Church in this city, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's gown of peau de soie and reemboisereed Alencon lace featured a bateau neckline and bracelet length sleeves. A panel of lace created an apron effect to the front of the skirt which swept back into fullness for a chapel train.

A crown of aurora borealis and pearls held in place the illusion fingertip veil, sprinkled with crystals. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of orchids.

Mrs. Jerry Longhofer, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her satin sheath of French blue was fashioned with shallow scoop neckline and double peplum overskirt. Her headdress was a small butterfly bow of blue satin with a circle veil.

Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Susan Fredricks and Virginia Fredricks, and Colleen Finchum, Klamath Falls, and Patricia Crenshaw.

The bride's sister, Pamela Andrus, was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns, made like the matron of honor's, were of pale lavender satin.

Flower girls Lorri Jean Longhofer and Tammy Brewer wore French blue frocks.

Kelly Dunbar was the ring bearer.

Best man was O. Abe Kirkpatrick of Malin. Ushers were Steve Moen, Garry Robertson, Michael Terry and John Novak. Gary Noel was a junior usher. Immediately after the wedding ceremony a reception took place in the church social hall.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Fredricks spent their honeymoon in South ern California and have now returned to Eugene to reside while both are attending University of Oregon.

Mrs. Fredricks is a graduate of Shasta Union High School and Shasta College. Her husband, graduate of Klamath Union High School, attended Oregon State University before transferring to the university where he is a senior student this year.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Anne Richardson, Redding; the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Fitts, Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bender, Portland; his uncle, Frank Fredricks and son Paul, Salem; great-aunt, Mrs. Helen Smith, Salem, and Mrs. Echo Standish, Salem.

Klamath Falls residents attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howard, Dr. and Mrs. Jim Noel, Mr. and Mrs. George Flitcraft, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jones, Mrs. Ruth Novak and family, Bob DePew and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hatchett, the bride's uncle and aunt.

Also present were former Klamath residents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Perkins now of Fresno.

MARY MARTIN

A good complexion comes from good care — we are not all lucky enough to be blessed with perfect lily-white skin. Each skin type requires certain care but all skin types require constant care for it is what we do daily that counts most. Dry skin should be thoroughly cleansed morning and night — use a rich cleansing cream and finish off with a skin lotion — this is less drying than an astringent. A coating of night cream will help lubricate while you sleep. Oily skin should be cleansed several times a day, use special oily-skin cleansing cream and pat your face with an astringent after. When away from home carry astringent or astringent pads for facial pick-up.
