

Wischnofski - Bower Vows Are Solemnized

The marriage of Beverly Jean Bower and Merle Gene Wischnofski was an event of Saturday, Sept. 21 in the Junction City Methodist Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bower, Junction City, is Klamath County 4-H agent, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wischnofski, Blodgett, are parents of the bridegroom.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

Decorations for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Wayne Brown, were baskets of green gladioli, green spider chrysanthemum and white tapers. Candelabra held tall green tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which she had styled and made of white crystalline. It featured rose trim outlining the scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and slightly flared skirt with chapel train. An organ-dy rose held the three tiered illusion veil. She carried white and green pompons in a cascade style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The lucky penny in her slipper had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

WED IN BONANZA — Mr. and Mrs. Scott William Wooten are shown in St. Barnabas Episcopal Church where they were married Sept. 21. The bride is the former Margaret Jane Thomas.

Bonanza Pair Recently Wed

BONANZA — A lovely wedding at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church on Sept. 21 united in marriage Margaret Jane Thomas and Scott William Wooten. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Thomas and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wooten, all of Bonanza.

The 8 o'clock, double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Henry Thomas of San Mateo. He was assisted by Bill Milne.

White carnations and candles decorated the altar. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina all-over lace gown, with Sabrina neckline, long tapered sleeves with a shoulder length veil held with pearlized crystalline princess crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and an orchid on a white ribbon. A blue garter and lucky penny given to her by Susan Williams followed tradition.

Susan Williams was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Ruth Mary Thomas, and the bridegroom's sister, Susan Wooten. They wore identical gowns of apricot taffeta with matching headbands and shoes. Fall flowers in bronze, apricot and gold fashioned their bouquets.

Bruce Olson served as best man. Ushers were Monte Burnett and Michael Clark.

Mrs. Martin Gift played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. George Keady who sang "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Thomas chose for her daughter's wedding a blue fall suit and pink accessories. Mrs. Wooten wore a red fall suit with black accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the parish hall which was decorated with fall flowers.

The four-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed with apricot roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Don Faulk, Cave Junction, and Betty Thomas, Oakland, served the cake.

Aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ross Clark and Mrs. Bob Hartley served the punch and coffee. Glenda Albert was in charge of the guest book, Lorna and Nondice McFall were at the gift table and Linda and Leah McFall passed small bags of apricot rice.

For the honeymoon trip the bride wore a blue knit suit with black accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The new Mrs. Wooten, a graduate of Bonanza High School, attended Southern Oregon College and is now employed in Klamath Falls.

Her husband is also a Bonanza High School graduate and is now attending O.T.I.

The couple are at home in Klamath Falls at 529 North Eighth Street.

Vows Recited In California

Linda Gayle Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Larson, Woodside, Calif., and William Franklin Hungate Jr. exchanged wedding vows Sept. 7 at Woodside Village Chapel. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hungate, Klamath Falls, who were present for the ceremony.

The single ring service was officiated by the Rev. George Vorshelm at 3 p.m.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor length gown of white satin was enhanced with pearl embroidery on the fitted long sleeve bodice. The full skirt swept into a chapel train. Pearl-trimmed satin petals held the bouffant illusion veil. She carried lilies of the valley on a white prayer book. Something borrowed was an heirloom bracelet belonging to the bridegroom's grandmother.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Leslie Larson, Woodside. She wore a gold satin gown with floor length bell skirt and carried a bouquet of tangerine carnations.

Carol Ross, San Jose, was bridesmaid. Her attire was the same as the honor attendant.

John Brinegar, Klamath Falls, was best man. Guests were seated by Neal Eberlein, Klamath Falls, and Terry Larson, Woodside, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Larson chose a silk sheath in gold tones with matching accessories and green orchid corsage. Mrs. Hungate wore a beige sheath with turquoise accessories and orchid in complementary tones.

Following a reception in the garden at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe. The bride's going away outfit was a green knit suit with matching accessories.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Hungate are residing at 1432 E. 19th Street in Eugene. The bride, a member of Sigma Kappa, was graduated in business administration in June from University of Oregon.

Her husband is a fifth-year student in psychology and business administration at the university. He is affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi.

Also attending the wedding were Gerald Musselman and Russell Schuh from this city and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keating and Lynn and Lori, former Klamath Falls residents now living in San Rafael.

NEWLYWEDS — The former Linda Gayle Larson, Woodside, Calif., and William Franklin Hungate Jr. are shown after their Sept. 7 marriage in Woodside. They are presently residing in Eugene while he continues his studies at the University of Oregon.

Party Honors L. J. Sachers

Sept. 14 and 15 were memorable days for Mr. and Mrs. Leopold J. Sacher who were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this year.

Etta Allen and L. J. Sacher were married Sept. 14, 1913, in Willow, Ark. Later they lived in Malvern, Ark. until 1936 when they moved to Santa Paula, Calif. In June of 1936 they came to Klamath Falls.

"Dad" Sacher as he is called by many of his friends was employed at Weyerhaeuser Company for 20 years until his retirement July 31, 1959. Now, his hobbies are gardening and raising a few white face calves on his eight acres in the suburban area.

"Mom" Sacher's hobbies include raising beautiful flowers from ear-

Club Honors Two Members

MERRILL — The Theta Rho Girls Club No. 48 of Merrill, held their regular meeting Sept. 19 in the IOOF Hall.

Janice Rogers and Myrtle Russell, who have each reached their 21st birthday, were given the Majority Degree and presented with bouquets of flowers and white Bibles. A certificate of life membership to any Theta Rho Club was also presented.

Toastmistress Club To Meet

The regular meeting of Ewanna Toastmistress Club will be held at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Oct. 14, at the Winema Hotel. The theme for the meeting is "Problems Are Opportunities."

Helen Taw will offer the invocation. Word study will be presented by the lexicologist, Lillian Hill.

Beverly Ellis will act as topic-mistress, assigning topics for the two minute impromptu speeches. Margaret Gregory and Lillian Hill will share the responsibility of evaluating topics.

Toastmistress for the evening will be Marion Miller. She will introduce Margaret Davies who will deliver a prepared speech and Florence Wilson who will present an educational feature. Round table evaluation will be conducted by Ramona Smith.

ing, which has been designated as Parent's Night. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Job's Date Is Changed

Job's Daughter Bethel 6 regular meeting of Oct. 17 has been cancelled and rescheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 30 to avoid conflict with homecoming and Halloween. All parents of members are invited to attend the meet-

Library Club Slates Meet

Mrs. Phil Schroeder, president, announces the next meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club for Monday, Oct. 14, at 2 p.m. in the city library club room.

At this meeting members and guests will hear Nelson Reed tell of his recent travels in Italy, Greece and Turkey.

Musical portion of the day will be provided by Mrs. Gene H. Favell who will sing several numbers, accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Arch Proctor and Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill. Mrs. Paul Hanna will be in charge of tea.

All women of the Klamath Basin are invited to attend. A small charge will be asked of non-members.

FOR YOUR Protection

Dean DeWitt Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: The papers have been full of stories of houses broken into and left in a complete mess while the owners are away. Does burglary and theft insurance pay for damage of that kind?

ANSWER: This subject is too broad to be answered completely in this space. There are many insurance coverages which pay for damage from vandalism and breakage in connection with theft and burglary. See a good insurance agent personally for a thorough explanation.

This public service is out way of advertising. Your insurance questions will be answered without charge or obligation if you'll send or bring them to

JERRY THOMAS
INSURANCE AGENCY
304 So. 7th Ph. TU 2-3555

Alice
OF CALIFORNIA

The world's "At Home," and you're so alluringly feminine at home in Alice of California's hostess gowns of bright cotton over-printed with gold. Alice fashions it Empire style with self trim. Petite, small, medium, large.

$16.98

USE OUR CONVENIENT CHARGE, REVOLVING CHARGE OR LAYAWAY PLANS

Fashion VILLA
Green Stamps Oregon Food Shopping Center
AVALON and SHASTA WAY

SALE!

START TODAY TO END DRY SKIN WITH HELENA RUBINSTEIN'S SKIN DEW SET

FREE HERBESSENCE CLEANSER WITH SKIN DEW THE CONTINUOUS MOISTURIZER 8.75 VALUE NOW 5.00

Now, give your skin the exclusive beauty benefits of continuous moisturizing with Skin Dew, the unique invisible beauty treatment! Use it under make-up to moisturize deep, deep, deep. With your purchase of Skin Dew get free luxurious Herbescence Cream Cleanser...moisturizes, clarifies as it deep-cleanses...leaves skin pure as snow...ready to absorb Skin Dew!

INTRODUCTORY SET 5.00 VALUE NOW 3.00

limited time only prices plus tax

Cumini's DRUGS
9th & Main Free Delivery Ph. 2-3475

KELSO
Man's $35.00
Lady's $35.00
Prices subject to change without notice. Taxes include Federal Tax.

Keepsake
WEDDING SETS

For generations, the choice of America's loveliest brides... and their grooms.

J. C. RENIE
JEWELERS
THREE OREGON-LICENSED WATCHMAKERS
1021 Main TU 4-4606

No runs from top or toe in Berkshire stockings with NYLOC.

BERKSHIRE guarantees it! These sheer stockings have the NYLOC Run-Barrier. That means they won't run from top or toe into the sheer leg area—or you get a new pair free! Seamless or with seams. From only $1.35 a pair.

"Klamath's Home Accessory and Gift Store"

YOUR STORE
721 Main TU 4-4561

WASTE
CHICAGO (UPI) — The cost of highway accidents in the United States is about $8 billion a year, reports Engineering News-Record.

Donnies YARDAGE
1029 MAIN

ESTRON PRINTS 1.79 yd.
Sew a dress or blouse of the newest concept in fabric luxury that feels like silk. Choose from our fabulous collection.

SEE THE NEW EASY-MOUNT HAND BAG FRAMES 3.49 to 5.98

... in tortoise shell or gold finish metal. Choose your own fabric to match or coordinate your new skirt, dress, suit or coat.

Outdoor Girls Have More Fun In... Health-tex

Solid color knit shirts, soft and pretty as wind-borne leaves. In cozy 2-ply combed cotton with mock turtleneck. Trimmed with embroidery. In every kind of fall color, and so easy to wash. Sizes: 3, 4, 5, 6, 6X. 1.99.

S&H Green Stamps

Spencers
Exclusively for Children — 619 Main