County Plans To Replace Bridges Over Lost River

The replacement of two bridges across Lost River will be undertaken by the County Road Department beginning the end of this month, County Engineer John Creed has disclosed.

Roads served by the two bridges will be closed about a month while the old structures are destroyed and the new ones completed, Creed said.

First on the reconstruction project is the Whitney Bridge, located southeast of Merrill on Malone Road, also known as the Lava Bed Road. Several weeks after work begins on that structure, County Road Department employees will start replacing the Harbold Bridge, located about three miles southwest of Bonanza. The bridge links the North Poe Valley Road with the Malin-Bonanza cutoff.

The two structures will be erected of pressure treated timber at a total cost of some $60,000, allocated for the project from County Road Department funds.

The exact dates of the road closures will be announced later, Creed said.

Crash Kills Oregon Man

REDDING, Calif. (UPI)—Herbert Battles, 29, Myrtle Creek, Ore., paid a $100 fine for drunk driving and then drove to his death less than 24 hours later, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Battles was killed when his westbound car spun out of control Saturday on highway 229 about 27 miles east of Redding. It rolled over and crashed into an embankment. A passenger, Ronald Burkhardt, 19, Denair, Calif., was hospitalized with cuts and bruises.

Review Facts—And Vote!

in individual states because this is dependent upon city and county factors.

It does appear, though, that regardless of whether or not the tax proposal is passed or defeated on Oct. 15, the state of Oregon is going to have to find new areas of revenue to face future needs.

Facts and figures on sales tax and cigarette taxes among others will be reviewed at a special session of the legislature if it is called. While the legislature would undoubtedly reassess its revenue estimates and do some budget paring, it would also take a look up the road at future needs, and might well enact a cigarette tax or even sales tax measure and submit it to the voters for their reaction prior to the next session of the legislature in 1965.

The big question that does face the voters is whether or not to vote "yes" and thus approve the proposed tax bill on Oct. 15 or vote "no" and defeat it. We would suggest that each voter carefully review the facts, and then vote his individual conviction. We would urge only that YOU VOTE!

KUHS Pair Tells Of Trip To Japan

On Oct. 9 the International Relations group of the American Association of University Women heard experiences of Grant Humphrey, KUHS wrestler, and Coach DeLance Duncan, when they traveled with the Oregon team in Japan. Grant was the only wrestler selected for the team from Eastern Oregon, and Duncan one of the two coaches who accompanied the 10 wrestlers. Ticket sales, when the Japanese team toured Oregon, netted about $20,000. Part of this money financed the Oregonians' tour of Japan About half the amount is left for other wrestlers to travel at a future date.

Grant and Duncan displayed and commented on trophies won and on souvenirs, most of them gifts from Japanese people who entertained them. They found the Japanese most friendly and receptive. Coach Duncan commented "they opened their hearts and homes to us." They were surprised to find TV in both the true oriental and the western homes.

Their trip began in Tokyo. They traveled to the north end on Honshu Island, crossed by ferry to Hokkaido Island where they spent some time in Sapporo, the sister city of Portland, Ore.

They wrestled in many cities on these two islands, and, as a team, they had a draw in Tokyo, their first match, then won all other matches.

They left here as "Oregonians" but in Japan were called the "American" team. Japan is about the size of California and it's difficult for the Japanese to realize America is so large. Since Japan considered them the best in all of America, they were proud to be victorious.

Duncan stated he felt the real value of the trip was not the wrestling wins, but the exchange of good will.

"IT WOULD BE BAD ENOUGH TO VOTE 'NO' ON OCTOBER 15..."

"It would be bad enough to vote 'no' on October 15 and thereby turn thousands of students away from colleges and destroy their once-in-a-lifetime chance for an education; to short-change about 412,655 students by cheapening their education in our high schools, junior high schools and grade schools..."

BUT

... can we conscientiously turn away men, women and children who need welfare assistance (food, clothing, medical care)? Can we tell the courts to stop sending men and women for commitment to our mental or correctional institutions because we are not willing to bear the costs?"

This summation of the issues in Tuesday's special election was made by a study committee appointed by the highly respected Metropolitan Civic Club of Eugene. After careful study of all the facts, the committee's 20-page report unanimously recommended active support of a "YES" vote on Measure 1!

After careful study of all the facts, the committee's 20-page report unanimously recommended active support of a "YES" vote on Measure 1!

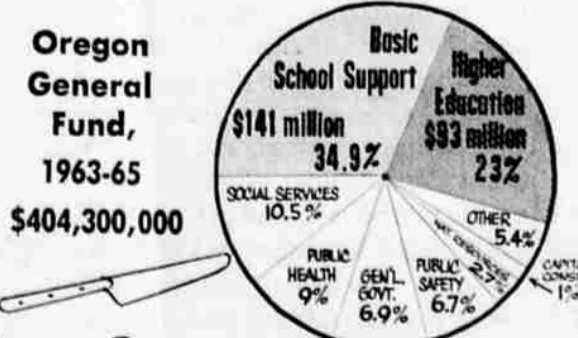

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

Fact 1 — If Measure 1 is defeated, up to $60,000,000 in income will be eliminated from the 1963-65 General Fund budget of the state. There has been much confused and confusing talk about making up the difference through painless "trimming." The fact is that every one of the following state agencies could be COMPLETELY ABOLISHED without balancing the budget:

- ALL General Government Agencies—Legislature... supreme court... public defender... circuit courts... district courts... tax court... board of census... Treatment of Sexually Dangerous Persons program... district attorneys... entire Executive Department... Departments of Finance and Administration, Planning and Development, and Justice... secretary of state... tax commission... state treasurer... ALL other miscellaneous general government appropriations.
- ALL General Fund appropriations for Commerce and Labor—Corporation, Insurance and Real Estate departments... bureau of labor... Labor Management Relations board.
- ALL General Fund appropriations for Natural Resources and Transportation—Departments of Agriculture, Forestry, and Natural Resources... state engineer... fish commission... soil conservation committee... water resources board... Rogue River Coordination board.
- PLUS release of all inmates from Hillcrest, MacLaren, the Correctional Institution and the Penitentiary.

It is a FACT that abolition of every one of the above would still leave more than $6,000,000 to be cut from the budget if Measure 1 is defeated!

Fact 2 — Despite the publicly repeated claim by those leading the campaign against Measure 1 that they do not intend to hurt education, the fact is that if Measure 1 is defeated, the big cuts will have to come from education and essential social services. Where else can you slice the pie for $60,000,000?

Fact 3 — If Measure 1 is defeated, the entire state of Oregon will suffer in the long run. But the most immediate burden will be borne by those least able to defend themselves. Most immediately affected will be those under 21 and those over 65—the two age groups that account for most of Oregon's population increase since 1950.

Fact 4 — The elderly and those most in need of help and restitution as self-supporting citizens will be the victims, along with society, of massive cuts in state social services including welfare.

Fact 5 — Oregon's colleges and universities have no alternative sources of income available to them. Any cuts now must be made up by increasing tuition and reducing the number of students admitted—at a time when record numbers are seeking admission! The State Board of Higher Education has emphatically stated that its responsibility lies in admitting to the colleges and universities under its control only that number of students it can serve adequately.

Fact 6 — Any reduction in the State Basic School Support Fund, which accounts for 35% of the total General Fund and offsets local property taxes, must be made up in one of two ways: Either the educational standards in our public elementary and high schools are deliberately lowered, making 400,000 Oregon children the victims of a political maneuver, OR local property taxes must be increased to make up the difference! There is no other alternative if Measure 1 is defeated.

Fact 7 — Defeat of Measure 1 on Tuesday would, in the words of Governor Hatfield, "set the entire state back 20 years." The Oregon AFL-CIO agrees. Associated Oregon Industries, Inc. agrees. So do the Oregon State Grange... the Farm Bureau Federation... Oregon's leading newspapers... Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers... Oregon School Boards Association... Oregon Education Association... the state chairmen of both the Democratic and Republican parties... and citizens in all walks of life, from all parts of Oregon, who have studied the facts.
