

Wedding Ceremonies, Then And Now, Highlight Recent Social Activities

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News
Sunday, October 13, 1963

Mrs. James Nolan Shaw, above, was Judith Ann Woodruff before her marriage Sept. 22 at Mt. Laki Church. The young couple will reside in South Carolina while Lieutenant Shaw serves at Shaw AFB.
— Photo by H. V. Mollenkopf

Mrs. Richard Joseph Steyskal, above, is the former Mary Darlene Bredeen of Merrill. The popular couple exchanged nuptial vows Sept. 7 in St. Augustine's Church in Merrill.
— Photo by Ferebee

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Merle Gene Wischnofski are pictured above. They were married Sept. 21 in the Junction City Methodist Church. The bride is the former Beverly Jean Bower, Klamath County 4-H agent.
— Photo by Scott Hill, Eugene

At right are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Harry Fredricks whose wedding was an event of Sept. 14 in All Saints Episcopal Church in Redding. Mrs. Fredricks is the former Sharron Lee Andrus of that city.
— Photo by Reatha's Studio, Redding

The former Carolyn Edel Jones, this city, and Ian Wallace, Bellevue, Wash., are shown above after their Sept. 8 wedding in Bellevue Presbyterian Church. They are at home in Klamath Falls.
— Photo by Ernest Fortescue, Kirkland

Sharing today's page with young newlyweds are two well-known couples who this month observed 50 years of marriage.

At right are Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. Josephson who were married Sept. 30, 1913, in Great Falls, Mont. They came to Klamath Falls in 1928. On Sept. 29 the Josephsons were honored at a reception in Klamath Lutheran Church.

At left, Mr. and Mrs. Leopold J. Sacher are shown with the cake served to friends at an open house at their home on Sept. 15. The couple were married Sept. 14, 1913 in Willow, Ark. They have resided in this city since 1936.
— Photo by H. V. Mollenkopf

— Stories on Inside Pages

