Mike Ditka did the job with his hands, Charley Johnson with his arm and Herb Adderley with his chest, but Jimmy Brown outdid them all with his incredible churning legs.

Brown was simply superb Sunday when he broke loose for two long third-period touchdowns that sent the Cleveland Browns on to a 35-24 victory over the New York Giants in their battle for first place in the Eastern Division of the National Football League. It was Cleveland's fifth win without a defeat.

Ditka caught four touchdown passes as the Chicago Bears extended their record to 5-0 in the Western Division with a 52-14 rout of the winless Los Angeles Rams.

Johnson helped the St. Louis Cardinals remain in contention behind the Browns when he completed two last-period touchdown passes, the winning one with six seconds left to play, in a 24-23 squeaker over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Blocked Field Goal

And Adderley, a defensive back with a remarkable knack for hitting the headlines, blocked a potential game-winning field goal try by the Minnesota Vikings, permitting teammate Hank Gremminger to pick up the loose ball and run 80 yards for a clinching touchdown as the defending champion Green Bay Packers won, 37-28.

Linebacker Chuck Howley was a hero in the Dallas Cowboys' first win of the season, intercepting two passes that set up a touchdown and field goal in a 17-14 upset victory over the Detroit Lions.

In the two other games, Sonny Jurgensen threw four touchdown passes as the Philadelphia Eagles defeated the Washington Redskins, 37-24, and the Baltimore Colts sent the San Francisco Forty Niners down to their fifth straight defeat, 20-3.

A crowd of 62,966 in Yankee Stadium watched Jimmy Brown race 72 yards with a short screen pass on the Browns' first play in the third quarter and a few minutes later run 32 yards from scrimmage for a pair of touchdowns that sent Cleveland on to its come-from-behind win.

Gratifying Game

Brown, who called this the most gratifying game he ever played against the Giants, gained 123 rushing yards in 23 carries and scored the Browns' opening touchdown on a short plunge. He now has gained a total of 757 yards and 10 touchdowns in the best start of his career.

Ditka caught three touchdown passes from Billy Wade and another from Rudy Bukich as the Bears handed the Rams their worst defeat since they transferred from Cleveland in 1946. The Bears intercepted six passes by Zeke Bratkowski and Terry Baker and also recovered two Los Angeles fumbles.

Johnson engineered the most spectacular rally of the day when he completed a 55-yard touchdown pass to Jackie Smith with 3:48 left to play and then hit Bobby Joe Conrad with a 28-yard scoring pass with six seconds remaining. In all, Johnson's passes gained 372 yards.

The Vikings, trailing the Packers 30-14 in the final period, narrowed that gap to two points. Fran Tarkenton passed 29 yards to Paul Flatley for one touchdown and then set up Bill

Mixture Of Age And Youth Carries Chargers To Top

By United Press International

The San Diego Chargers have moved age with youth to brew a team that looks potent enough to win them the Western Division title of the American Football League.

Tobin Rote, 35, supplies the age and John Hadl, 23, supplies the youth. And more than a short snort of either is enough to kayo most any rival.

Rote's heroics were mainly responsible for carrying the Chargers to three victories in their first four games. The veteran had his troubles Sunday and so the sophomore quarterback from the University of Kansas came off the bench to lead the Chargers to their 24-20 victory over the New York Jets.

The win enabled the Chargers to take a 1½-game lead in the West while the loss left the Jets only a half game ahead of Boston and Houston in the East.

Jackie Kemp ran for one touchdown and passed for two others to lead the Buffalo Bills to a 35-26 upset of the Kansas City Chiefs and George Blanda threw three touchdown passes as the Houston Oilers defeated the Denver Broncos, 33-24, in Sunday's other AFL game. Boston beat Oakland, 20-14, Friday night.

Brown's one-yard touchdown plunge with two minutes remaining.

Interception Set UP TD

At Dallas, Howley's first interception set up an 11-yard touchdown pass from Don Meredith to Franke Clarke and his second steal put the ball in position for Sam Baker's 13-yard field goal. Earl Morrill completed touchdown passes of 32 and 70 yards to Gail Cogdill in the final period, but in between these, Amos Marsh sprinted 41 yards for the Cowboys' winning touchdown.

U.S. Golfers Continue Ryder Cup Domination

ATLANTA (UPI) — Arnold Palmer said today that despite the pro and con arguments about the difference in size in the U.S. and British balls, the biggest trouble with the Ryder

Cup matches is too much golf in too short a time.

"I don't know of any other golf tournament which plays 36 holes a day for three straight days," Palmer, the U.S. team captain, complained.

He suggested that the Ryder Cup matches should be stretched out to at least four days, perhaps with 18 holes each on Thursday and Friday and then 36 on Saturday and Sunday.

It was hard to get agreement about the type of ball used by each team. Team member Gene Littler, whose 6 and 5 final day win over veteran Scotsman Tom Haliburton was the most lopsided match of the British around the greens. But Palmer said it gave the British an advantage Sunday because of the wind.

No Complaints On Win

Although Palmer complained about the amount of golf, he had no complaint about how his U.S. team fared in the three-day "grind" that ended Sunday evening at Bobby Jones' East Lake Country Club.

The U.S. crushed the British 23 to 9 after turning the final afternoon's matches into a 7½ to ½ rout.

In fact, the U.S. never lost an afternoon match in the three days as they stormed to this country's 12th victory in the 15th biennial Ryder Cup matches.

The British played the U.S. even in 16 morning rounds, winning six and halving four others for eight points.

But, as Palmer aptly put it, the U.S. warmed up with the sun and made a runaway of the 16 afternoon matches — winning 14 and halving the other two.

Needed One Victory

The U.S. went into Sunday afternoon's final eight singles matches needing just one more victory to capture the solid gold Ryder Cup never won by the British in this country.

Littler, 33, had the honor of winning the decisive point as he all but ran the 48-year-old Haliburton off the course. He was 7 up after nine holes as he toured the front nine in a 3-under par 32, took a bogey 5 on

High Scoring Oregon To Test Arizona Next

EUGENE (UPI) — Oregon's high scoring Ducks put their offensive show on regional television next Saturday afternoon against the Arizona Wildcats from Tucson.

Coach Len Casanova's speedboys scored their third straight victory Saturday, romping over Idaho 41-21 before 19,200 fans here.

The "Firehouse Four" backfield of Bob Berry, Mel Renfro, Larry Hill and Lu Bain had a field day.

Berry completed 9 of 11 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns. He had a 39-yard scoring toss to end Rich Schwab and one of 57 yards to Renfro.

Honor Goes To Cal End

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jack Schraub, California end, has been named AAWU Line-man of the Week. The 6 foot 5 junior from Campbell, Calif., was named for his fine play in the 22-22 tie against Duke Saturday.

Schraub tipped a 31 yard pass into the air away from three Duke defenders and pulled it in for six points to put Cal back in the game.

Hill scored twice, once on a four-yard run and the other time on a 35-yard runback of an intercepted pass.

And Bain also scored twice, on runs of 9 and 10 yards.

Idaho tied the game at 7-7 in the first quarter on quarterback Gary Mires' one-yard sneak. But the Ducks broke it wide open in the second period.

Lakers Clip Warriors In Exhibition

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—The San Francisco Warriors and the Los Angeles Lakers conclude their exhibition tour Tuesday in Missoula, Mont. The regular season begins Oct. 19 when the Warriors travel to Baltimore.

Sunday the Lakers battled uphill, overcoming a 20-point deficit to down the Warriors 115-102. Pacing the victors was Jerry West with 31 points.

Wilt Chamberlain led the Warriors with 25 points, one more than teammate Tom Meschery. Elgin Baylor had 23 for the Lakers and Rudy LaRusso had 19.

San Francisco led at the end of the first quarter 33-21 and early in the second quarter had a 43-23 advantage. At halftime the score was 55-44 in favor of the Warriors.

The Lakers took an 83-84 lead early in the final quarter and never again were behind.
