Release Of Priest Gained After Eight Years Effort

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The return from Russia of the Rev. Walter Ciszek, a 58-year-old Roman Catholic priest from Shenandoah, Pa., Saturday climaxed State Department efforts in his behalf that spanned two administrations and more than eight years.

Father Ciszek and another American prisoner of the Russians, Marvin Makinen, 24, a student from Ashburnham, Mass., were exchanged for two accused Soviet spies Friday. Makinen had been imprisoned in the Soviet Union on spy charges since the summer of 1961, but the priest was believed to have been a prisoner of the Russians since about 1940.

According to his sister, Mrs. Helen C. Gearhart of Washington, Father Ciszek's family had not seen or heard from him since the outbreak of World War II in 1939, except for a brief message in 1955.

Father Ciszek was born in Shenandoah on Nov. 4, 1904. A member of the Jesuit order, he went to Rome in 1934 after attending the order's seminary at Woodstock, Md. He was ordained at the Vatican in 1937 and a year later was assigned to a Jesuit seminary in Poland, near the Russian frontier.

Mrs. Gearhart said that in 1940 the family was told by one of the priests superiors that "the Bolsheviks" had taken him, apparently when the Russians invaded Poland during the period of the short-lived Nazi-Soviet non-aggression pact.

She said he was believed dead until 1955 when one of his sisters, a nun in Reading, Pa., received a cryptic note, apparently smuggled out of Siberia where he was imprisoned on spy charges.

The note said: "You may have forgotten me or you may have taken me for dead. I am alive."

NAMED MANAGER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dr. Joseph F. Shea, 37-year-old deputy director of the space agency's office of manned space flight, has been named program manager for development of the Apollo spacecraft.

Shea will go the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Manned Space Center at Houston, Tex. The Apollo spacecraft is being designed to carry astronauts to the moon.

Liz Taylor In No Hurry For Divorce

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Eddie Fisher, involved in the biggest scandal of the year with estranged wife Elizabeth Taylor and actor Richard Burton, said Saturday, "It may be a long time before Elizabeth and I are divorced."

The singer said he had telephoned Miss Taylor at the Mexican location site of Burton's new movie, "Night of the Iguana," to inquire if she wanted him to institute Nevada divorce proceedings.

"She said she was in no hurry," Fisher reported.

"I've been here six weeks and could get my divorce by Monday if she wants it," Fisher added. "In fact I've had three chances to get a divorce here in the past year. Each year I spent six weeks books never are, but it is certainly worthwhile reading for anyone who wants to improve his defensive play.

Mr. Brown points out that a good defensive player should be alert to take advantage of any mistakes declarer might make.

East won the opening heart lead with the queen and continued the suit in order to force dummy. South ruffed in dummy and led a diamond to his queen.

West took his king and returned the ten spot which South won with his ace.

At this point South should have attacked trumps, whereupon north
