WALL STREET NEW YORK (UPI) — Late profit-taking whittled down most of the market's early gain today and stocks closed steady. A number of issues improved on higher earnings including Olin Mathieson, Reynolds Tobacco, Upjohn, Consolidation Coal, Dr. Pepper improved in higher earnings and a dividend increase. Xerox, which reported record third quarter earnings, moved up sharply. Wall Street Chatter NEW YORK (UPI) — Goodbody & Co. says the "selectivity" which we have been witnessing in the stock market during the past month is likely to become even more intense in the next few weeks, particularly as we get into the tax-switch season. "Therefore," Goodbody continued, "price appreciation in any stock is likely to depend to a greater degree than usual on its individual merit rather than on the momentum of the market. The Dow industrial average still has a good chance to reach 800 by the end of the year, but it may drift or back off a bit first before making the attempt." Thomson & McKinnon says that besides the drug stocks, "there are a number of other groups which are beginning to attract real attention and this could very well give the market the breadth which has been so obviously lacking. These include the steadily improving steels, tobaccos, building suppliers, metals and oils." Moltrich, Inc. says that "should the market continue to follow the expected pattern, the final spurt should be starting about now, and the ultimate top for this move should be reached within the next three weeks." Britton And Clubb Trials Delayed Until Later Date

Two criminal cases slated for trial next week in Klamath County Circuit Court No. 1 have been continued until after Dec. 1, it was made known Friday. The trial of Sheriff Murray "Red" Britton, charged with criminal contempt of court, has been deferred from next Monday until a date to be set by presiding jurist Don H. Sanders of Roseburg. The deferment has been granted by Judge Sanders upon a motion filed jointly by District Attorney Dale Crabtree and the Attorney for Sheriff Britton. The extension of time was sought because of health reasons involving the sheriff's attorney. The contempt case developed out of the criminal trial of Robert Hult, of Klamath Agency, who had been indicted on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. It was during the trial that the sheriff was charged by the district attorney's office of allegedly discussing the case with a member of the jury panel sitting in judgment of the Agency man. As a result of the conversation, the trial was declared void and the sheriff was cited for criminal contempt of court. At a later trial, another circuit court jury acquitted Hult of the assault charge. On the other matter, the trial of Charles Francis Clubb, 39, charged with attempted burglary not in a dwelling, has been set back from Wednesday to Monday, Dec. 9. Clubb, at large on $2,000 bond, was indicted for the attempted burglary of Larry's Market, 4214 Green Springs Drive.

Reception Will Honor 15 Visitors

The Klamath Falls Chapter of United Nations will host a reception for students from foreign countries studying in local high schools and at Oregon Technical Institute. The afternoon affair will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 27, at the Yacht Club. Anyone interested in meeting the young people from 15 countries is invited to attend. Mrs. Ross Ragland is general chairman. Ben Kerns is Klamath Chapter president. Assisting with arrangements are Mrs. Paul Myers, Mrs. Isabelle Brinker, Mrs. E. A. Geary, Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lambie. Countries represented by the students include Ecuador, Arabia, Haiti, Argentina, Congo, Colombia, S. A., British Columbia, Germany, Liberia, Ghana, East Africa, Southern Rhodesia, Turkey, Mali and India.

UF Goal Remains Far Away

Klamath County has inched a little closer toward its goal of $148,311 in the 1963 United Fund Drive but success was still on the far distant horizon, Phill Parsons, executive secretary of the local fund drive, noted today. Parsons indicated that as of today $52,243.74 had been collected, representing 35.2 per cent of the goal set for the county for the drive that ends Oct. 31. The figure is two per cent higher than the total which had been received before the last United Fund report meeting six days ago. Division chairmen were urged by Parsons today to remind people working in their respective divisions to attend a similar meeting slated for noon, Monday, Oct. 21, at the Winema Motor Hotel. Such workers are encouraged to make as many calls as possible before that time and then report their progress at the meeting. Progress of the drive follows by divisions, division chairmen, contributions received, and per cent of goals collected in the respective divisions:

Pilot Division (no chairman), $29,777.54, 86.2; Education Division (Ray Garrison), $9,229.65, 83.9; Special Gifts (Gayl Upton), $1,304.76, 76.8; Large Firms 2 (Jr. Chamber of Commerce), $2,033.75, 31.2; Kingsley Field (Maj. Curt Gruye), $1,501.21, 4; Professional Division (Red Cross Board), $1,661.50, 13.8; Public Employees (Mrs. Julie Brown), $602.90, 11.3; Large Firms 1 (Ross Ragland), $3,726.40, 9.2; Downtown 1 (Leonard Jones), $1,005.77; Downtown 2 (Keith Cobo), $428.71; County Division (Loren Palmerton), $345.49.

Miss Rose Succumbs At Hospital

Dorthea Margaret Rose died in Hillsdale Hospital late Thursday morning of complications arising from a cold she developed Wednesday. Miss Rose, 26, was a polo victim and had only one lung. Funeral services will be held at Ward's Funeral Home Monday, Oct. 21, at 10:30 a.m. Concluding services will be at Klamath Memorial Park. Miss Rose was first taken to the hospital Wednesday when she developed the cold. Later Wednesday, she developed difficulty in breathing and a tracheotomy was performed. At one point Wednesday evening, a call was sent out over radio and television for an iron lung to aid her. Hospital officials said the call was unauthorized, but a family spokesman said late Thursday the call was authorized by Miss Rose's physician. Survivors include parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Rose, Klamath Falls; brothers, Elwood Rose, Lubbock, Tex., and Douglas, Verlin and Ronald Rose, and a sister, Marilyn Rose, Klamath Falls.

Grandson Born

MERRILL—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barry have received word of the birth of a grandson born Sept. 23 to Dr. and Mrs. John W. Barry of Fort Devens, Mass. The little boy weighed 7 lbs. and has been named John Daniel. His father is an optometrist with the Army after graduation from Pacific University School of Optometry, Forest Grove, Ore. Grandparents of the new arrival are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barry, Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monagle, Heppner.

Homecoming Rally Fire Severely Burns Athlete

A Klamath Union High School senior was severely burned Thursday night at the school's homecoming rally when a bonfire was lit. School officials said Mike Kitching was burned on his arms and forehead. Kitching, a halfback on the KU football team, wasn't expected to play in tonight's game with the Medford team. The burns required a doctor's treatment, but Kitching was at school today. Several other students were singed when the gasoline-soaked wood flared up, but none required treatment. KU Principal C. E. Clevan said that the bonfire at the rally site on Bielen Street was supposed to have been lit by a fireman from the City Fire Department. But, he said, firemen were late in arriving and the adult supervisor at the rally had gone to check on them. Just as the adult was leaving, Clevan said, Kitching lit the fire and it flared back at him. But that wasn't the end of the Homecoming festivities. The Fire Department later had to douse the bonfire when it was left burning after the rally. And during the evening, police had several reports of student vandalism. In many of the incidents, chemicals were poured on cars, raking the paint. One carload of girls were apprehended by police when the owner of a car saw his auto bombed and noted the license number of the girls' car.

LOUNGE OPENS AT AUDITORIUM — City Recreation Director Gary Woodring presents to Judy V. Taylor, Kingsley Field Service Club director, the key to the armory lounge which will be open to military personnel one Saturday each month, beginning Oct. 26.

Lounge In City Auditorium Becomes Operational For Military Personnel

The Lounge, located at the municipal auditorium, will become operational Oct. 26, from 4 to 12 p.m., and will be open one Saturday each month during the winter. Operating as a drop-in meeting place for military personnel, the facility will offer coffee and homemade cookies, provided by volunteer organizations of the community. Transportation to the Lounge will leave the service club at 7 p.m. and depart from that point at midnight. Volunteers from the community and Kingsley Field are needed to staff the information desk and act as hosts and hostesses. Anyone willing to join the junior hostesses may obtain an application from the information desk between the hours of 4 and 7 p.m. Others wishing to join the senior hosts or hostesses or desiring to staff the desk, furnish cookies, or provide volunteer services should contact Mrs. Hugh Powell, TU 2-3385, or Judy V. Taylor, at TU 2-4411, Ext. 227. The Lounge is a combined base - community operation by the City Recreation Department and the Base Service Club.

Former Klamath Resident Found Guilty Of Murder

A 32-year-old former Klamath Falls man was convicted in Yakima, Wash., Thursday of second-degree murder for beating another man to death because he criticized his driving. Billy Joe Hodges was found guilty by a Superior Court jury for the Aug. 26 slaying of Leo Lewis, 54, of San Diego, Calif., a transient. The slaying took place near Grandview, Wash., where Hodges lived with his father. He had been charged with first-degree murder, but the charge was reduced to second-degree. Hodges told sheriff's officers that he and Lewis had been drinking together and were riding in Hodges' car near Grandview when Lewis made a remark about Hodges' driving. Hodges said he stopped the car and beat Lewis over the head with a foot-long piece of lumber. Then, he said, he strangled the man, drove his body to the city dump and left it there. Later he told his father about the incident and his father called authorities, who found the body in the dump. Hodges was arrested in Klamath Falls once for larceny. He had worked in Klamath Falls as a cab driver, but had been living with his father prior to the killing. Hodges was arrested in Klamath Falls once for larceny. Hope Lost For Pilot

The search has been called off for a former Klamath Falls man whose jet fighter plane crashed into the ocean off the Washington coast. The missing pilot is 31-year-old Capt. John J. Howard Jr. of Portland. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Howard Sr. of Portland. The elder Howard was a former official at Oregon Technical Institute and the missing man was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in Klamath Falls. Captain Howard also was graduated from the University of Portland in 1954 and had been in the Air Force ever since. His father, after leaving OTI in 1956, became affiliated with the Municipal Employees Union and is a retired business agent for the union's Local 483 in Portland. Besides his parents, Captain Howard is survived by sisters, Mrs. John Bulger, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Robert Montenegro, Brooklyn, N.Y.; and Sister Sheila Maria, Order of the Sisters of St. Francis, Portland; and a brother, Robert J. Howard, Medford.

Fire Contained Near Beatty

BEATTY—A brisk grass fire of unknown origin blazed Saturday afternoon on the "point," approximately one mile east of Beatty and south of Highway 66. It was quickly contained and damage was slight. Another fire, attributed to hunters, started at the edge of the Winema Forest along the Black Hills route. Rangers extinguishing the blaze left a note on a blackened stump stating that a hunter had been responsible. An empty 303 cartridge case was found in the immediate area. Five cases of communicable diseases, including influenza, 3, and whooping cough and ringworm of the scalp, one each, were reported in Klamath County during the week ending Oct. 5, according to the Oregon State Board of Health. In nearby counties influenza led all other communicable diseases reported during the week's period, as it did in most counties throughout the state. The breakdown of communicable diseases for Southern Oregon counties are, Deschutes: Pneumonia, 3; Jackson: Influenza, 5; pneumonia, measles, chickenpox and conjunctivitis, one each; Josephine: Influenza, 4; aseptic meningitis, pneumonia, and impetigo, one each; Lake: Influenza, 4, and measles, 1. Influenza led all other diseases reported in the state with 296, followed by measles with 26, German measles, 17, and a variety of other diseases in lesser numbers.

Shotgun Blast In Foot Injures Klamath Youth

A Klamath Falls youth yesterday became the fourth victim of hunting accidents reported in the county this fall, Oregon State Police disclosed Friday. The injured is George Maxwell Shearer, 16, of 4205 Bissbee Street, who was wounded in the foot with a blast from a shotgun about 3:30 p.m. and was transferred by Peace Ambulance to Klamath Valley Hospital, where he is listed in "good" condition. The accident occurred on Lost River in the vicinity of Crystal Springs bridge, near Olene, as Shearer leaned his loaded shotgun against his automobile. The rifle slid to the ground and discharged in the direction of the youth, wounding him in the left foot. Three other Klamath County hunters were the victims of gunshot wounds this fall, but only one of the three accidents resulted in a fatality. The victim was a Henley High School youth who was killed when the over-under rifle he was carrying on his motor scooter discharged. The blast struck him in the chest.

Three Car Collision Hurts One

A three-car collision that occurred at the intersection of Alameda and Eberlein avenues about 8:15 p.m. Thursday resulted in minor injuries to one of the motorists and from slight to major damage to the vehicles, Oregon State Police have reported. The injured operator was Arthur V. Burnett, 4243 Shasta Way, who was cut on his forehead after he collided with a car turning onto Eberlein from Alameda and then continued heading into an automobile proceeding eastbound on Alameda. The accident resulted as Kenneth Richard Neiswander, of Kingsley Field, was westbound on Alameda when he turned left into the path of Burnett's car, also westbound. The latter's vehicle struck Neiswander's car on the left front fender and then veered into the opposite lane where it struck head-on a car operated by Paul Eugene Dowling, 2436 Orchard Way. Burnett's and Dowling's vehicles sustained major damage. Police cited Burnett for failure to drive on the right side of the highway.

Cattlemen Plan Meet

Brunel Christensen, Likely, Calif., past president of the California Cattlemen's Association, will speak during the annual meeting of the Klamath County Cattlemen's Association on new proposals on grading and beef importation. The meeting will convene Saturday, Oct. 26, starting at 10 a.m. at the Klamath County Fairgrounds. All cattlemen in the Basin are urged by officers to attend this important event. President Norman Jacobs, Merrill, will preside. Also on the agenda during the business meeting will be the defining of beef breeds for the open range, approval of bylaws and the drafting of a resolution to be presented to the Oregon Cattlemen's Association. A 7:30 p.m. banquet at the Winema Hotel will follow a social hour starting at 6:30. Klamath County Cow Belles will host visiting Cow Belles at a 1 p.m. luncheon and style show by the Fashion Villa at the Winema Hotel on the same day. They will hear Walt McIntyre of McIntyre Travel Service speak on travel in Hawaii and Mexico. Officers will be elected. Mrs. James Lane, president, will give the greeting.

Modoc Ski Club Slates Sunday Clean-Up Of Hill

ALTURAS—This Sunday, Oct. 20, is the day set by the Modoc Ski Club members for their annual clean-up, fix-up day on the ski hill on Cedar Pass. Ski club president, Lynn Sigler, urges all members and potential members to turn out for the day and get all the chores done so that the hill will be ready for skiing at the earliest snowfall. "We must clean up the hill and make certain repairs to meet the requirements of the forest service permit. This means everyone must turn out to help and not just a few," Sigler said. Work scheduled for the day includes building a guard around the exposed pulley at the motor hut, rebuilding the bridge across the creek, repair and replacement of flooring on the porch and in the hut, cutting the weeds on the hill, and general policing of the area. Sigler pointed out that access to the hill can be made now by driving beyond the parking area one-half mile to the first turn-off to the right. The road area for the proposed road by the forest service has been cleared and is now accessible by car while the ground is dry. All workers are asked to bring their hoes and large hedge cutting shears for pruning the weeds. The pruning of weeds near the bottom of the hill means skiing is possible with only a six-inch pack of snow, where otherwise it would take one to two feet to cover the dangerous weeds. The forest service reports that bids are now being received for construction of the proposed road into the ski area. Clearing of trees and stumps on the access road has been made, and the parking area has been cleared. A forest service spokesman stated that the contract for the road should be let by the first of the month, with construction to begin by the end of the first week in November. Doubt was expressed that the road would be completed during this snow season if Modoc receives a heavy winter. The contract time calls for a 70-day contract period after the construction begins.
