

Linda Linville October Bride

Linda Linville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Linville, this city, became the bride of Charles R. Caldwell of Redmond in a pretty single ring ceremony Oct. 6 at the home of the bride's parents on California Avenue. The Rev. Ralph Richardson of the First Methodist Church officiated.

The young couple exchanged wedding vows before an improvised altar before the fireplace which was decorated with gladioli, carnations and pompons in fall colors, predominantly tangerine to match the tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she wore a short white satin bodice sheath made with square neckline and cap sleeves and large self-material rose accenting the waistline at the side. A dainty headdress of chiffon pearl trimmed leaves held the short illusion veil. She wore long white gloves and carried a bouquet of white carnations and lily-of-the-valley centered with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a heart shape pendant set with a pearl which was borrowed from her mother.

Nancy Kelley, Coos Bay, was maid of honor, dressed in a pale blue brocade frock similar to the bride's. Her veiled head-dress was also blue. Her bouquet of white carnations was centered with tangerine carnations.

Pete Oas, Prineville, was best man. Scott Linville, brother of the bride, lighted the tapers before the ceremony.

Mrs. Linville wore for the occasion a beige dress, accented with green embroidery and tangerine carnation corsage.

After the ceremony, guests were served a buffet luncheon and the wedding cake which was three tiered, iced in white and encircled with tangerine carnations. Assisting with serving were Mrs. Everett Linville, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Caldwell.

The new Mrs. Caldwell's going away outfit was a white suit, gold blouse and metallic gray accessories. The orchid from her bouquet was her corsage.

The young couple will make their home in Redmond. Mrs. Caldwell is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and attended Southern Oregon College. She has been an active member of Theta Rho Girls Club.

Present for the ceremony were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George R. Lewis, Prineville, and her grandfather, E. H. Linville, Medford.

Baptist Church Scene Of Ham-Baker Vows

The First Baptist Church on Sept. 8 was the setting for the marriage of Nancy Lee Baker and David Walter Ham. Dr. Robert Stapp, pastor of the Yuba City Baptist Church officiated at the afternoon double ring ceremony.

Background for the ceremony were floral arrangements of cream colored gladioli, white tapers and red salada foliage. In back of the kneeling bench was one large candelabra against woodwardia fern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Harrison Baker and was given in marriage by her father. Mr. and Mrs. Riman Ham, San Antonio, Texas, are parents of the bridegroom.

Beulah Welch was the organist and Mrs. Vivian McKeehan and Norman Harvey were soloists.

The bridal gown of frosted lace was floor length with sequins outlining the scalloped neckline of the fitted bodice. The full skirt was cut in a pointed design draped over a second skirt of tulle with lace applique. A swedish crown of seed pearls held in place the bouffant elbow veil of illusion. She carried a white Bible arrangement of white feathered carnations with a detachable corsage of yellow garnette roses which the bride wore on her going away outfit. That ensemble was a deep blue Italian knit suit with hat of feathers in blue shades and black patent accessories.

Maid of honor was Sue Ann Owens and Mrs. Ronald Robbins and Carol Frei were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in short frocks of red satin with bustles at the skirt backs. Red satin slippers and brief red veils completed their attire. Each carried a semi-crescent arrangement of white ilani pompons with gold makeup.

Diane Coffman, Ferndale, Wash., and Lynn Keene, Oakridge, nieces of the bride, were candlelighters. They were dressed in white satin dresses with red bustle backs, red slippers and head veils. Their wristlets were of red and white gladioli.

Riman Ham was best man for his son and groomsmen were Max E. Baker, brother of the bride, and Tad Ewart. Ushers were Ronald Robbins and Philip Chamberlain.

David Keene, Oakridge, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Baker wore for her daughter's wedding a pale aqua pure silk dress with beige accessories and corsage of garnette roses. Mrs. Ham chose a dusty rose suit with navy blue accessories and corsage of pink elfe roses.

The wedding reception took place in the parlors of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Decorations carried out the red and white theme of the wedding. The white tiered wedding cake was encircled with red gladioli and was placed between silver candelabra on the bride's table.

Serving cake were the bride's sisters, Mrs. W. O. Keene, Oakridge, and Mrs. Jack Coffman, Ferndale, Wash., and her cousin, Mrs. R. A. Marr, Chico, Calif. Pouring punch were Susan Lapsley and Mrs. Dean Dunsen, who also received gifts and attended the guest book, assisted by Donna Marr, Chico.

After a wedding trip to the coasts of Oregon and California the newlyweds are at home at 219 Prescott Street in this city. The bridegroom is stationed at Kingsley Field and serves as part time minister of music at the First Baptist Church.

Out-of-town guests not already mentioned included Jack Coffman, Richard Coffman and Deborah Coffman, Ferndale, Wash.; William Keene, Oakridge; Roy Marr, Douglas Marr, Chico; Darryl Potter, Salt Lake City.

AAUW Meet Is Scheduled

Mrs. Carol Howe, wife of Oregon Representative Howe, will be the speaker at the next Monday luncheon of the AAUW. Mrs. Howe worked as her husband's secretary during the last legislative session in Salem, so she has had an excellent opportunity to observe the inner workings of state government. Her special topic will be "Women in the Legislature."

The luncheon will take place at the Winema Hotel on Monday, Oct. 21, at noon. All AAUW members are cordially invited to attend this meeting and welcome Mrs. Howe.
