Two Sisters Brides In Lakeview Ceremony

LAKEVIEW — Two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kerr of the New Idaho District, Lakeview, were married in a double wedding ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Lakeview at eight o'clock Saturday evening, Sept. 28.

Joy Ruth Kerr became the bride of Patrick Joseph Schuler of Ukiah, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Schuler, Vernon District, Lakeview. Judy Dianne Kerr became the bride of Robert Terry Blair, son of Mrs. William Honnold of Medford, and Earl Blair of Oroville, Calif.

The Rev. Henry B. Wong, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, officiated at the single ring rites. Mrs. Freda Evans played the wedding music and James E. Simmons was the soloist. Baskets of white fugi chrysanthemums tied with turquoise ribbon were used for decorations.

Joy's floor length gown of heavy taffeta had a scooped neckline, empire waistline and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. The full skirt, decorated at the waistline in the back with a large bow, descended to a slight train. A floral headpiece held her shoulder length veil of illusion, and she carried a white orchid surrounded by white chrysanthemums. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Judy's gown was of white satin styled with a slightly scooped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A slight train emerged from the bow accent on her full skirt. A floral headpiece held the shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was also made up of a white orchid and white chrysanthemums. Her escort was her uncle and godfather, Edward F. Lang, Meridian, Calif.

Matron of honor for both brides was Mrs. Carol E. Schuler, Auburn, Wash. Joy's attendant was Mrs. Leah A. Hoogendorn, Sacramento, and Judy's attendant was Mrs. Judy Conway, Lakeview. They wore gowns of turquoise taffeta with bell skirts and bow trim. Beaded headresses held short veils and they carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with turquoise ribbon.

Susan Honnold, Medford, sister of Robert Blair, was the flower girl. Her dress was of white taffeta with turquoise sash, and she carried a basket of flowers.

Lauren Boe and Stephen Haney were candlelighters. Charles

H. Schuler, Auburn, Wash., was best man for his brother, Patrick Schuler, and James L. Williams was best man for his nephew, Robert Blair. Ushers were Michael Brock, Lakeview, Harold E. Kerr, Prineville, and Roy C. Kerr, Lakeview, brothers of the brides.

Mrs. Kerr chose a turquoise and silver knit dress with flowered pill box hat and black accessories. Mrs. Schuler's wool suit was also of turquoise, with flowered silk blouse and black accessories. Mrs. Honnold wore a beige sheath dress with a fawn velvet mink trimmed hat and matching accessories. Mrs. Ray Williams, grandmother of Robert Blair, wore a blue taffeta dress with white hat and accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A reception, under the direction of the Lutheran Guild, was held in the social hall of the church where white chrysanthemums and daisies decorated the lace covered table that held the two wedding cakes.

Cutting the cakes were Mrs. Ferd Ettl, Meridian, Calif., aunt of the brides, and Mrs. Victor Hill, sister of Patrick Schuler. Mrs. Edward Lang, aunt of the brides, poured coffee, and Mrs. Roy Kerr, sister-in-law of the brides, poured punch. Mrs. James Simonson was at the children's table and presiding at the gift tables were Mrs. Rainous Todd, Sutter, Calif., aunt of the brides; Margie Matthews, Sacramento, and Mavis Kliever, Lakeview. Attending to the guest books were Carole Saunders, Sacramento, and Janice Williams, Medford.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Schuler left for a wedding trip to the coast and are now at home at 27A Betty Street, Ukiah, Calif. Both are graduates of Lakeview High School. The bride was graduated from Oregon Technical Institute and the bridegroom recently received his discharge from the Army, with the past two years spent in France. The bride's going-away costume consisted of a three-piece wool suit with leopard hat and purse, and black accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The new Mrs. Blair changed to an avocado green wool dress with matching feathered hat and light brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. Both young people are attending Oregon Technical Institute and are living on the campus.
