

CLASS REUNION — Another KU class, that of '43, staged a reunion this year, their first. Returning classmates registered at the high school and took advantage of the opportunity to tour the building, many for the first time in 20 years. That evening a social hour and dinner dance was held at Reames Country Club which was decorated with natural greens and the class colors of silver and blue. Pictured that evening, left to right, are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wryn of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Bill (Anita Gwyn) Campbell, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dirschl, and with back to camera, Frances (Gjerve) Brouillard.

GREETINGS — Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dirschl, left, members of the class of '43 reunion committee, greet Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Scott (Lois Ann Soule). He was a speaker at the banquet. Formerly a physical education instructor at KUHS, he now is superintendent of a junior high school in Pendleton. Ralph Foster, senior class president, was emcee. The then student body president, George Proctor, and his wife, the former Dorothy Riggs, were also present.

SORORITY OFFICER — Mrs. Blake Hopwood, Portland, recently visited in Klamath Falls officially as Pi Beta Phi sorority alumnae president of Omicron Province. While here she was a guest at the home of Mrs. Fred Ehlers. Members of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club met for a no-host dinner at Pelican Cafe, followed by dessert and meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Kent. Mrs. Gene Gjertsen is president of the local group. At the meeting members voted to give $75 to the Intercommunity Hospital Fund.

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

DAIRY—Louisa Horton entertained the Bonanza Garden Club on Sept. 27. Irene Hartley, president, conducted the business meeting at which time the group discussed the Christmas tree lighting contest sponsored by the club each December. After the meeting, a surprise towel shower was given for Evelyn Wood who has moved to Klamath Falls. Mrs. Gordon Bracken and Mrs. Oscar Cappellen were guests. The next meeting will be Oct. 9 at the home of Elizabeth Bell in Dairy. Interested persons are invited to attend.

Church Rites Unite Couple

DUNSMUIR—A reception in the Highlands Community Club followed the recent nuptials of Katherine Noel Nelson of Dunsmuir and Dennis W. Durkin of San Carlos.

They were married in St. Charles Catholic Church in San Carlos with Father Carlos Rossi of San Francisco officiating. The bride's gown was of peau de soie over Alencon lace fashioned with a scoop neckline and bell skirt draped to a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil fell from a Dior rose headpiece and she carried a cascade spray of butterfly orchids.

Jeri Polati, San Mateo, was maid of honor gowned in emerald green peau de soie with a scoop neckline and bell skirt, matching hat and shoes. Ginger Iverson, Hamilton City, was a bridesmaid and Joan Durkin, sister of the bridegroom, junior bridesmaid. Their dresses were styled identically to that of the maid of honor and all three carried sprays of tropicana roses. Jay Durkin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and James Nelson, brother of the bride, and Henry Sarlatte, San Carlos, were ushers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Nelson of Dunsmuir. She attended local schools and Chico State College. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Durkin of San Carlos. He attended College of San Mateo after graduating from San Carlos schools.

The new Mrs. Nelson donned an autumn brown wool suit with autumn haze mink collar and hat before departing on a wedding trip to Carmel and Southern California. Her mother wore a brocade sheath in tones of blue and green with a tiny feathered hat to match. The senior Mrs. Durkin wore a beige boucle sheath with cranberry hat and gloves.

Former Dunsmuir residents who assisted at the wedding reception were Wilma Jean Champlin who was in charge of the guest book and Voneda and Wayne Champlin who passed

LEAVE MOUNT SHASTA

MOUNT SHASTA — Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jack Rhein left recently for Terre Haute, Ind., their former home, where they expect to spend the winter. They retired a year ago after being in business in this area since 1937. Their future plans call for extensive traveling and a perhaps a change of permanent home.

They came with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Champlin of Belmont. The Rev. and Mrs. Robert DeWolf of Hayward, also former Dunsmuir residents were also among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lambie wedding and guests from of Klamath Falls attended the Dunsmuir included Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison, Mrs. John Seed, Mrs. Jack Samuelson and Luann and Sue Samuelson, Mrs. Joseph Kelby, Mr. and Mrs. Don Warner, Jo-Anne Kelby, Carol Kohl-baker, Susan Thom and Patty McEnerney Cunningham and Mrs. Mary Bucklew, grandmother of the bride.

Sojourners

Mrs. E. A. Votaw and Mrs. Earl Nash were hostesses for the Oct. 9 meeting of Sojourners at the Willard Hotel.

Visiting the club were three first time guests, Margaret Gregg, Anne Briggs and Virginia Turner, and Olympia Poole, a second time guest. Three time guests Sharon Culver and Ester Spani were welcomed as new members.

Prizes for card games went to Mrs. Jesse Blackburn, canasta; Mrs. Irving Cater, bridge high. Mrs. D. A. Tennant, second, and Mrs. Wayne Newton, pinchle.

The next meeting will be Oct. 23 at 12:30 at the Willard Hotel. On Oct. 5 the Sojourners were hosts at their annual fall tea at Reames Country Club.

Nearly one hundred guests and members enjoyed a fashion show from Bon Bazaar and Fashion Villa with commentary by Margaret Larkin. Club members were models.

Potted artificial flowers were given as prizes for the cards played after tea and the fashion show.

Bride Feted At Shower

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Fred Fernlund Jr. was honored with a wedding shower at the Langell Valley parish hall on Oct. 4. Hostesses were Mrs. Orville DeVaul, Mrs. Bob Seater, Mrs. Jack Lynch, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Dick Derry and Mrs. Lloyd Gilt.

Mrs. Gary Williams and Linda Fernlund assisted the honor guest with opening her gifts. A pretty decorated cake was on the refreshment table and was served by Mrs. Gary Atwood. Mrs. Helen Holloway served the punch and Janet Strunk poured the coffee.

Mrs. Fernlund is the daughter of Mrs. Floe Strunk, Klamath Falls. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fernlund, Langell Valley, is in the Navy and

Attends Convention

NEW PINE CREEK—Postmaster Buna Faris and her husband, Irvin Faris were among the 3,000 postmasters over the United States who attended the recent national convention in Honolulu. They were accompanied on the trip by Esther Guddat, postmistress at Crescent. The trip was made by plane.

On the return trip, Mr. and Mrs. Faris visited with Mrs. Roy Turner in Oakland and in Alameda with his sister, Mrs. Bonnie Adams and family.

The Faris' daughter, Mrs. Susan Vincent, Bly, and Mrs. Faris' sister, Mrs. Dorothy Blunt, Smith River, assumed the post office duties and the personal business of Mr. and Mrs. Faris during their absence.

is now in the Antarctic for a year.

The Orions

The Orions met Sept. 17 at back-to-school party and white elephant sale.

Spelling contests were also a part of the entertainment and prizes for these were won by Mildred McEachern and Maudie Card.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joyce Pryor and Mrs. Louise Biehn.

DANDY COIFFURES

The look of the dandy is the latest in coiffures offered milady. The decree for the dandy comes from the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. Key features of the hairdo—head hugging waves, rippled, ruffled or draped to lend important back interest.
