

Lady Elks Enjoy Fashion Revue And Social Evening

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News
Sunday, Oct. 20, 1963

Mrs. Roy Ruge, above left, member of the party committee, greets Mrs. Henry Kerr, center, and Mrs. J. C. Lemire.

Another social event of the well-planned calendar of the Elks Lodge was held Wednesday evening, Oct. 9, when a record crowd of Lady Elks attended a fashion show and card party. Wives of the officers under Mrs. Robert Craig, wife of the exalted ruler, were responsible for the successful affair.

A profusion of autumn flowers decorated the ballroom and set the stage for the latest styles shown by Fashion Villa. Katie Lake was the commentator and OTI students, the Campus Belles, were models.

Cake and coffee were served guests as dessert. Mrs. Mike Hoiland, presiding at the coffee service above, serves Mrs. T. L. Boyer, center, and Marilou O'Connor.

At right, Lydia Penland shows smart suit coat to Mrs. John Ashley, left, and Mrs. Ed Brosterhaus.

Three of the attractive models are shown, left to right above, Gayle Nicholson, Becky Aubel and Judy Langer.

Two guests at left are Mrs. Doug Tennant, left, and Mrs. Jack Dunne.

Mrs. Robert Craig was too busy with her chairmanship duties to pose for the photographer, but her committee is shown at right. In front, from the left, are Mrs. Bill Carter, Mrs. Bert Baggett, Mrs. Oscar DeNault, Mrs. Walter Badorek and Mrs. Francis Scapple. In back, same order, Mrs. Paul Whitman and Mrs. Joe Victor.

— Photos by Kettler —