

Homecoming Brings Honkers To Henley; Trojans Try Pointers

A pair of A-2 contests are set Friday for county grid teams in Rogue Valley League action as the Henley Hornets host the Lakeview Honkers and the Sacred Heart Trojans travel to Eagle Point.

For Len Weber's Hornets, it's Homecoming at Henley as the Honkers visit in one of the oldest grid rivalries of county schools.

The Hornets take a 3-1 league record and a 4-2 overall mark into the contest opposing the 1-5 season record and 0-4 counting standard of the Honkers.

In the other A-2 fray, Ross Carriaga's Trojans seek their initial win of the season in traveling to Eagle Point. The Trojans have a 0-6 record for the year and a 0-4 league mark.

The Pointers were downed by Henley in opening the Rogue Valley League action 14-13 and the Hornets have also added the Trojans to their list of victims.

In the Henley-Lakeview contest, the Hornets will attempt to increase their win streak over the Honkers to four straight.

The Hornets posted a close 19-13 win in 1960 by scoring the winning touchdown in the last 15 seconds of the contest. In 1961 it was a 13-7 victory for the Honkers and last year a 24-6 triumph went into the books for the Henley eleven.

Of interest in this contest is the fact the two teams met at Lakeview on an improvised football field laid out on the golf course. The "field" had a slight slope from goal line to goal line and in the fourth period the Honkers had the advantage of "... running downhill."

The result was a 6-6 deadlock going into the final period was wiped out by the Hornets as they came on for three additional touchdowns and the 24-6 win.

Prior to the last three contests, the Lakeview eleven had posted wins in 1958 and 1959. Under new mentor Roy Robertson, the Honkers last weekend threw a large scare into the league-co-leaders, the Illinois Valley Cougars, before dropping a 12-0 decision.

With the Hornets' Homecoming the order of the day and the Honkers looking to spoil the day's activities, an interesting contest is expected.

The Hornets have been able to salvage just one Homecoming win since the start of the annual celebration at Henley in 1957. This was a 25-0 triumph recorded in 1959 over Illinois Valley.

Both clubs are expected to be at full strength for the encounter, with the Hornets counting the return of Roger Fargo and Bugs Lewis in the lineup for the first time in two weeks. Both have been out with injuries.

In the Sacred Heart - Eagle Point contest, the Pointers will be heavy favorites to hand the Trojans another setback.

The Trojans will rely upon the passing of Jim Kosen, for the most part, with the hope their running game will improve enough to give them a two-pronged attack.

The Trojans threatened several times against St. Mary's last Friday night at Gem Stadium before dropping a 21-0 decision.

Huskies Host Grid Doubleheader

A pair of football contests highlighting the activities during the Merrill Potato Festival also highlight the week's Klamath

B League grid action Saturday. It's a football doubleheader slated for the Merrill field, with the host Huskies, currently atop the small loop standings undefeated, facing the always dangerous Bonanza Antlers at 2:30 p.m. and the strong Chiloquin Panthers meeting the Malin Mustangs at 7:30 Saturday night.

For Gene Christianson's Huskies, the meeting with the Antlers will be a return go as they attempt to protect their league leadership and unblemished mark.

The Huskies have rolled to a 5-0 record for the campaign and a 3-0 mark in counting action.

McKinley Brings U.S. Back In Net Picture

NEW YORK (UPI) — After eight disappointing years, Chuck McKinley has brought the United States back to the top of the men's world tennis rankings.

The persistent Texan from San Antonio was ranked number one by Ned Potter of World Tennis magazine. The last American to receive a similar honor was Tony Trabert in 1955.

McKinley, the Wimbledon champion, won over Australia's Roy Emerson.

Two other Americans—Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla.—also were in the top ten. Ralston was ranked fourth and Froehling, runner-up in the U.S. championships, was sixth.

In the women's division, the top spot went to Margaret Smith, the Australian who has lost only five times this year. It was the second straight year for Miss Smith at the top of the women's division.

Brazil's Marie Bueno, who upset Miss Smith in the finals of the American championships, was second with Lesley Turner of Australia third.

The only American women to gain the top ten were Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., ranked fourth and Billie Jean Moffitt, also of Long Beach, ranked fifth.

Completing the women's top ten in order were: Ann Haydon Jones, England; Jan Lehane, Australia; Vera Sukova, Czechoslovakia; Renee Schuurman, South Africa, and Robyn Elber, Australia.

In addition to the Americans and Emerson, the rest of the top ten is relatively mixed.

Manuel Santana of Spain is third; Rafael Osuna of Mexico fifth; Fred Stolle of Australia, seventh; Pierre Darmon of France, eighth; Jan Erik Lundquist of Sweden, ninth; and Boro Jovanovic of Yugoslavia, tenth.

collected a 7-7 standoff, while last Friday night Bonanza dropped a 6-0 nod to Malin.

The Huskies, in addition to their victory over the Antlers earlier, have downed Chiloquin 25-14 and Malin 44-7 in their other two league triumphs.

Chiloquin places its 1-1-1 league mark on the line against the Mustangs and an overall season record of 1-3-1, while the Mustangs are now 1-2 in counting play and 2-4 for the season.

The Mustangs have also downed the Henley JVs for their other victory and have dropped league contests to Chiloquin in an earlier meeting 13-7 and to the Merrill eleven.

This is the lineup for Klamath B League teams this weekend.

Also slated for Friday night, the Tulake Honkers will seek their fourth victory of the season over the visiting Cedarville eleven.

The Honkers raised their season mark to 3-3 last Friday night by turning back McCloud, 14-0.

The Honkers have dropped decisions to Merrill, Bonanza and Alturas while defeating Malin and Chiloquin.
