

Crown Colony Of British Guiana Proves To Be Headache For Both England and U.S.

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

As Britain step by step has gone about the business of dismantling its empire and giving independence to former colonies, among the most persistent of its headaches has been the crown colony of British Guiana.

Although on the way for more than 10 years, independence still is a goal to be realized by British Guiana which is situated on the north coast of South America and is about the size of Kansas.

Now the British are making another try at setting a date. British Guiana has been described as a small country with big problems, poor, racially divided and isolated by mountains and jungle.

As well as being a problem to itself and to Britain, it also is a problem for the United States.

At the center of the problem is Guiana's prime minister, Dr. Cheddi Jagan, an American-trained dentist of East Indian descent, and his wife, Janet, who once called Chicago home and who doubles as minister for home affairs with responsibility for internal security.

Jagan is an admitted Marxist and an admirer of the Soviet Union and Castro Cuba.

Jagan Predicts Trouble

In London, Jagan has been making dire predictions of an "explosion" if British Guiana does not achieve its independence now. The country, he said, could be the signpost, whether the whole of Latin America is to proceed through peaceful evolution or bloody revolt.

Jagan derives his strength from the East Indians who make up nearly half of British Guiana's population, living mostly in rural areas and working on the big sugar plantations.

His chief opposition comes from the predominantly Negro Peoples National Congress led by Forbes Burnham representing a voting bloc nearly as large as Jagan's.

And, while Jagan talks of an "explosion," Burnham talks of civil war.

Last April the two forces locked in a bloody struggle which began with a general strike and lasted 11 weeks. Fourteen persons were killed in ensuing Negro-Indian race riots and about 40 buildings were bombed or burned. Before British troops restored order, losses in property and wages ran to millions of dollars.

Strengthened Red Ties

Jagan used the period to strengthen his ties both with the Soviet Union and Cuba. He seized Shell Oil storage facilities and used them to store Russian gasoline. Cuba shipped in oil and flour and the Soviet Union offered long-term loans and cheap prices for fertilizers and agricultural machinery.

Jagan also offered landing rights to Cuban planes next door to both Venezuela and Brazil.

The United States sees an independent Guiana under Jagan as another Cuba and its suspicions are confirmed by Jagan's own words. It has brought pressure upon Britain to see that such does not occur. On the other hand, there have been British complaints that the U.S. position destroys any chance of racial peace or national unity.

Shed Cost Reported

NEW PINE CREEK—Bill Allen reported on his assignment of rebuilding the grange woodshed at the regular East Side Grange meeting Saturday night. He said the repairs cost approximately $60, not including a light which must be run out to the shed.

A report on the Home Economics meeting held Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Hilda Lenkeit as hostess, was given by Mrs. Ethel Cundiff. The women set the dates for the grange-sponsored pinocle parties which are open to the public.

The first card party of the series will be held Oct. 26, with the others dated Nov. 23, Dec. 23, Jan. 25, Feb. 22, and March 23. Refreshments will be served at each party and there will be prizes. A grand prize for both men and women will be awarded at the end of the six-party series.

The next regular grange meeting on Nov. 2 will be preceded by a "duck and goose" feed beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Club Eyes By-Laws

The Klamath Basin Belle Ewes attended a special meeting Oct. 8, called by President Mrs. Jerry Ahern of Merrill.

The group considered bylaws and announced the coming "Make It Yourself With Wool," judging and style show at the city library Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 26-27. The style show Sunday afternoon is open to the public. Mrs. Blanche Hatchett and Mrs. Florence McCartie will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Glen Haskins, Merrill, has been appointed chairman of the Wool Promotion Committee. The group will enter a float in the parade at the Merrill Potato Festival parade Oct. 26.

Pair To Work On Evaluation

DUNSMUIR—Dr. H. A. Meredith and Will Ellinton, board members, were named to work with a faculty committee on evaluation of teachers' salaries at the last Dunsmuir Elementary School Board meeting.

Albert Kempton, superintendent, reported to the board that $4,700 annually was too low for a beginning salary to attract top quality teachers and that greater pay incentives were also needed for added degrees.
