

Solon Offers 'Notes' On Baker Deals

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., said today he would provide Senate investigators with "notes and memoranda" to support information about business deals of former Senate Democratic Secretary Robert G. Baker.

Williams, who triggered the inquiry into Baker's outside activities, is scheduled to be the first witness before the Senate Rules Committee Tuesday when closed hearings begin on the case.

Baker resigned his $19,600-a-year Senate post Oct. 7 following reports that he had an interest in a food vending firm serving defense plants. This was followed by other reports of real estate deals involving a $134,500 Washington residence for his family, a $28,000 Washington town house occupied by his secretary, and motel interests.

The motel interests included a partnership with Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges in a Howard Johnson motel at Charlotte, N.C.

A spokesman said Hodges, a former North Carolina governor, invested $40,000 in November 1960 in the motel and later purchased the $18,000 interest of former Senate aide K. D. Brewer, a North Carolina businessman later convicted for violating state laws against influence peddling.

Hodges sold his total interest in the motel for $58,000 to Baker in July 1961, the spokesman said.

Williams said he was satisfied with the ground rules laid down for the investigation by the rules committee, headed by Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C.

The committee said all witnesses will be heard first behind closed doors and would give their testimony under oath. The group also announced it would ask the FBI for all the information turned up on Baker's activities in a preliminary inquiry.

ROBERT MANN

Mann Tells Of Life As Captive

BERLIN (UPI)—A blond Stanford University sophomore today told of his 21 months in Communist prisons for trying to help an East Berlin student "I didn't know personally" escape to the West.

Robert F. Mann, 20, of Sepulveda, Calif., was released by the East Germans Wednesday night.

He said he "accidentally" became involved with a "highly organized" West Berlin student organization and agreed to help in their escape network because "I saw an opportunity to do what was right."

The attempt to bring the East Berlin student through the wall on a borrowed Belgian passport failed, "possibly because we were observed, possibly because we were betrayed, perhaps it was accidental."

It was Mann's first assignment with the escape organization and the last. It led to six months of questioning, including three "unpleasant" months in solitary confinement and 15 months of prison work.

Now, Mann told a news conference, "I feel I should get back to my parents as soon as possible" and take up his interrupted university career.

Still looking somewhat tense after the strains of prison and his release late Wednesday, Mann spoke hesitantly but firmly.

"My treatment was relatively good," he said. "I was not mistreated, I was not beaten, I was not tortured."

"I was in solitary confinement for a while and that was very unpleasant."

Miss Churchill Took Own Life

LONDON (UPI)—The Westminster coroner's office ruled today that Diana Churchill, eldest daughter of Sir Winston Churchill, committed suicide by taking an overdose of barbiturates.

The 54-year-old Miss Churchill, who resumed her maiden name after her 1960 divorce from Commonwealth Relations Secretary Duncan Sandys, was found dead Sunday in her apartment in the Westminster district of London.

An inquest was ordered, officials said at the time, because of some bottles found in the apartment.

ICC Order Delays Hike In Railroad Grain Rates

PORTLAND (UPI)—Five railroads serving the Northwest will not have to raise rates for hauling grain to coastal terminals Oct. 31, as ordered earlier by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

An ICC order received in Portland Wednesday delayed the rate increase pending action on a petition for a rehearing by the roads.

The railroads involved are Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Spokane, Portland and Seattle, Great Northern and the Milwaukee Road. They reduced their limited-transit rates in September, 1960, to meet competition from barge and truck lines for the grain-hauling market.

Council Asked To Condemn Racial Discrimination

Bill Offered To Maintain Wheat Price

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bill designed to head off a scheduled drop in the support price of wheat was introduced today by Sen. Robert H. Humphrey, D-Minn.

Under existing law wheat price supports are scheduled to drop from the 1963 average of $1.82 per bushel to $1.25 per bushel for the 1964 crop.

This drop was required when wheat farmers rejected mandatory production controls for the 1964 crop. Even the reduced supports next year will be available only to growers who voluntarily comply with allotments.

Humphrey's bill would set 1964 and 1965 wheat support prices at the world price level — currently about $1.35 per bushel. But, in addition to the support price, eligible farmers would get federal "domestic consumption" payments of up to 65 cents a bushel on half their production, plus "export production" payments of 25 cents a bushel on the rest.

Thus farmers would gross up to $2 a bushel for half their wheat and about $1.60 for the rest, an average of about $1.80 per bushel.

Other congressional news: Civil Rights: President Kennedy has thrown the weight of his personal and political prestige into the battle for his civil rights program. The House Judiciary Committee was still locked in combat today over whether to approve a stronger version of the President's bill. Administration leaders believe such a version could not get through Congress, however, and oppose the broader measure.

Kefauver: Senate leaders set today aside for eulogies to the late Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn. Kefauver, a crusader against crime and monopolies who was the Democrats' vice presidential candidate in 1956, died Aug. 10 after a heart attack.

"IRON HORSE" NEW YORK (UPI)—The late Lou Gehrig, New York Yankees' first baseman, was called "Iron Horse" because he played 2,130 consecutive games a major league record.

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—U.S. bishops today appealed to the Ecumenical Council to issue a strong condemnation of racial discrimination.

Bishop Robert Emmett Tracy of Baton Rouge, La., speaking on behalf of 147 U.S. bishops, asked the council to include in a pending document on the laity the statement that the church recognizes no inequality among human beings on grounds of race.

Bishop Tracy said the church should make it clear that racial discrimination "cannot be reconciled" with the Christian teaching that all men are equally the children of God.

He said such a declaration by the Ecumenical Council would make it easier for bishops to "give their people proper instruction" regarding the sinfulness of racial prejudice.

He said he also would "reassure those who have been humiliated and deprived of their natural rights because of discrimination."

Also at today's session the council fathers approved the overall text of Chapter IV of a liturgical reform document. The chapter provides for simplifying and shortening the breviary, or divine office, which priests and members of some religious orders are required to say daily. The most significant provision authorizes bishops to grant dispensations in individual cases to read the office in modern language rather than in Latin.

The council moderators then announced that a vote will be taken early next week on whether to treat the Virgin Mary's role in the church in a separate document, or whether to include it as a chapter of the basic draft on the nature of the church currently under debate.

This has become a major bone of contention between liberal and conservative council fathers.

Another point in dispute between the liberal and conservative cardinals may have to be settled by Pope Paul VI, Vatican sources said today.
