

FOR GHOSTS 'N' GOBLINS — These clever little witch cookies will capture the fancy of the little fellows who come to the door on Halloween night. Serve punch from the hollowed out golden pumpkin and send them on their way with starry eyes.

Here They Come — Scary Witches

Bake up a batch, and watch them go! For a party, or to treat all the little ghosts and goblins who come calling on Halloween, offer cookie witches... delicious molasses cookies cut to fit the occasion, (with a cookie cutter, or a paper pattern). From a hollowed-out pumpkin, serve punch in paper cups. Good recipe for witches' brew punch: two cans frozen lemonade, one quart apple juice, one pint gingerale combined.

MOLASSES COOKIE WITCHES
 2 3/4 cups flour
 3 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon ginger
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon cloves
 1 egg

2/3 cup molasses
 1-3 cup light brown sugar
 1/2 cup melted shortening
 Combine dry ingredients and sift into a large bowl. Beat egg with molasses, sugar, shortening. Combine two mixtures and blend thoroughly. Shape dough into a ball, wrap in wax paper and chill two to three hours.

Roll out 1/4" thick on lightly floured board and cut into witches. Place on greased cookie sheet; bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, eight to 10 minutes. Makes about 16-18. Decorate witches, or, put two witches together (sandwich style) with frosting in between and decorate top witch only.
