PINK STOCKINGS?
Bright pink stockings as a bright accent for winter black? Yes, said designer Norman Norell of New York, who was spoofing the "sportive" look to all the new clothes. But bright pink stockings of jersey and pumps in the same shade accompanied a Norell evening dress, touching the floor except at the front where an under-layer skirt came just to the knees to show off the color contrast.

"HOME FURNISHING IS OUR BUSINESS"

By BOB CUSHMAN

YOUNG BUD GETS and the best of home furnishings might seem to be at odds. Few of us can put up very long with bare rooms, or rooms so sparsely furnished that they look bare. Nevertheless, a modest budget can be put to strategic use in creating a beautiful home. If there is any "key," it is in making your major expenses where they will be most visible and most functional. The living room is the most important room — the place where you entertain and do most of your family living. Budget your major expenses here. A really good sofa and as little as one fine chair will go a long way. You can fill in with cushions for casual seating temporarily, or with a bench or occasional chair you might use later in another room. A handsome coffee table and a versatile nest of tables will help to give your room a completely furnished look. An attractive area rug can be used if you can't afford wall-to-wall carpeting. And you can bring color and beauty to your walls with inexpensive prints of fine paintings. Try, in other words, to make a few really good pieces go a long way. Don't buy a lot of inexpensive furniture you'll only have to replace. We'll gladly advise you on the wise allocation of your decorating budget, to get the best for the least. Stop in and talk over your plans.

Lodge Honors Noble Grands

Past noble grands were honored at the Oct. 3 meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104. After the opening ceremonies, Noble Grand Charlette Anderson explained her project for the year was purchasing new regalia for the officers. To do this the lodge participated in the Community Club Award program. Bernice McCracken, co-worker in the contest, placed the new regalia on the noble grand, who in turn, presented the new pink, green and silver chains to the officers. Past noble grands from other jurisdictions, introduced by the vice grand, E. Vaughan Theilman, were Esther Mast, Lake Rebekah Lodge, Sandpoint, Idaho, and Mary Martin Eschle, Deer Park Rebekah Lodge, Dennis, Wash. During a brief recess the past noble grands were honored by a program designed by Mrs. Anderson and patterned after the "This is Your Life" program. Highlights of each noble grand's year in office were described in "This is Your Year." Each honored guest was given an orchid corsage and each was presented a hand made bird plaque made by Charlette Anderson. Perle Jenkins, president of the Past Noble Grands Club, presented the lodge with twelve crystal salt and pepper shakers and gave to the noble grand an unofficial PNG emblem pin, making her an honorary member of the club for the next three months. The hall was beautifully decorated carrying out the state assembly president's emblem, the Bible, her symbol, the butterfly, and the motto of all branches of the order, Pride and Perfection. Other decor was appropriate to the occasion. Decorations were made by Charlette Anderson, assisted by Vera Fritsch and Bernice McCracken. Refreshments were served by Vera Clemens, chairman, Grace Jerrue, Wave Howard, Irene Rickman and Delphine Bergloff.

Ben Casey Engagement Dance Staged

Bishop George M. Shaffer Jr., Charles Dover and Otto Ludwig, counselors, were the principal characters at the Ben Casey Dance put on by the Second Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Klamath Falls Oct. 11. They were cast in the roles of Drs. Zorba, Casey and Ted respectively. One of the highlights of the evening was a skit of an operation put on by Terry Metler as the patient and Brent Lake as the operating physician. Drs. Casey, Zorba and Ted were kept busy giving prescriptions which were filled at the drug store with candy pills. Most common prescriptions were given for Lotireg ("Geritol spelled backward") for tired blood, Ventilation therapy and St. Vitus Dance. The dance was held in the Cultural Hall under the sponsorship of the Mutual Improvement Association. The hall was divided into a waiting room, drug store, morgue and doctors' offices. Hanging from the ceiling were cards with medical advice on them such as "Smile—you're on candid X-ray." Approximately 80 young adults attended the dance, 50 from first and second wards and 20 visitors. Penicillin punch was furnished throughout the evening. The dance began at 8 p.m. and was concluded at 11 p.m. with Dr. Harold Catmull giving the closing prayer.

Ideas Abound At Craft Fair

Again this year Craft Fair will provide do-it-yourselfers with ideas for Christmas presents and decorations, reports Peggie Setzler, county extension agent. The fair on Oct. 29, sponsored by the County Home Extension Advisory Committee, will feature demonstrations and displays of a variety of easy and inexpensive crafts. Instruction sheets will be available for all crafts shown. Craft Fair will be open to the public in the fairground exhibit building from 12 noon to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 29. Members of Home Extension Units will be teaching the crafts. Alumnae of are planning a silver tea in conjunction with the fair. All interested people are encouraged to come, meet their friends and exchange craft ideas.

Firebelles Elect Slate

The Chiloquin Firebelles met Oct. 21 for the election of officers. The officer slate includes Mary Wright, president; Pansy Ohles, vice president; Wilma Sensenbach, secretary, and Goldie Sherier, treasurer. Beth Pahl will be hospital chairman and Pearl Adams, publicity chairman. The new officers will be installed at the annual dinner scheduled for Nov. 16. Other honored guests at the dinner will be Monnie Starkey and Pearl Adams who will celebrate their birthdays. Refreshments were served by Jo Chase and Pansy Ohles. All members are urged to attend the Nov. 4 meeting.

Remember your scalp perspires just like any other part of your body and needs air for the pores to breathe. Don't keep your head wrapped with a tight hat or kerchief for hours at a time. If you wear a slick-skin-tight hair-do brush your hair out and let hang loose at regular intervals. Constant coverings and pullings may cause your hair to become dull.
