Soroptimists Have Birthday

The Soroptimist Federation of the Americas celebrated the 42nd birthday of Soroptimism during Founders Week, Oct. 1 through Oct. 7. This year also marked the 25th birthday of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club.

The program for the meeting of the local club on Oct. 3 was a panel presentation of "Education in Soroptimism" by Josephine Robinson, chairman, Caroline Fowler, Margaret Larkin, Mary Bothwell and Crystal Cloake.

Highlighting the monthly business meeting on Oct. 10, was a visit from Mrs. June McManus, La Grande, who is director of District No. 2 of the Northwestern Region of Soroptimists. She spoke to the club regarding the Federation Soroptimist Foundations, and on conclusion of her message was presented with a memento of her visit here by President Delight Hicks.

MEMBERS INITIATED
MOUNT SHASTA—Mrs. Bertha Dahl, McCloud, and Mrs. Theresa Jacobs, Mount Shasta, were recently initiated in the VFW No. 5288 Auxiliary. The group honored its new members at the Don Higgins home at Lakehead on Oct. 20.

Toastmistress Meet Scheduled

President Beverly Ellis will preside over the pre-Halloween meeting of Ewauna Toastmistress Club to be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 28, at the Winema Hotel.

Lillian Hill will conduct a special exercise on the correct way to repeat the flag salute—chasing away the ghost of "too many pauses."

Ellen Shunn will serve as grammarian and lexicologist. Topmistress will be Margaret Davies who undoubtedly will have tricks up her sleeve for the two-minute impromptu speeches. Topics will be evaluated by Rowena McDonald and Becky Campbell.

Toastmistress, Ramona Smith, will introduce the program: a debate by Lillian Hill and Florence Wilson on "Should children be allowed to go from door to door asking for Trick or Treat?" This debate will be moderated by Marion Miller. The group will also be treated with an impromptu speech by Lois Jacobs. Margaret Gregory will wield the big broom of evaluation at the close of the program.

Also on the evening's agenda will be the induction of three new members, Dorothy Hearon, Irene Payne and Millie Swisher.

LIVE LATIN
MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI) — The University of Idaho, noting a rising demand for high school Latin teachers, this fall is offering a full major in the apparently not-so-dead language.

Nelson Reed Club Speaker

Nelson Reed was guest speaker at the Oct. 14 meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club. Introduced by Mrs. George Blanas, program chairman, he told of his recent trip to Italy, Greece and Turkey and showed slides for illustration.

The business meeting was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, who introduced officers and committee chairmen for the year.

Marie Obenchain, music chairman, introduced Mrs. Gene Favell who sang several selections, accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre.

Mrs. Erle Hamilton presented her past president's pin by Mrs. Elmer Harndon.

The Collect, led by Mrs. B. F. McLaren, closed the meeting.

Mrs. Ragnar L. Carlson and Mrs. Richard Garrett of Kingsley Field presided at the table. Mrs. Paul Hanna and Mrs. Lola Van Scoyk served as the tea committee and Mrs.
