

Mitzi Gaynor's Travel Wardrobe

By ROSALYN ABREVAYA

For breezy nights, Mitzi wears a scoop-neck blouse of Stevensheer pima cotton over a long, full Shan Faille skirt. The sash here and at right are of Taylor-Friedsam ribbon. Patterns 9446, 9453.

For fireside evenings at a weekend resort, Mitzi combines a flame-red Fleur de Lis wool skirt with a jewel-buttoned shirt blouse of Benita 58% acetate, 42% rayon fabric. Patterns 4901, 4919.

■ BUBBLING Mitzi Gaynor, singer-actress-dancer, is seemingly in perpetual motion. Between personal engagements at resort clubs such as Harrah's at Lake Tahoe, Nev. (where these photos were taken), and Hollywood (she is currently starring in "For Love or Money"), Mitzi needs changes of clothing that are chic, yet quick and easy to wear.

To fill the request, designer John Weitz created this elegant wardrobe, in J. P. Stevens' fabrics, for any change of scene or climate. It's a deliciously varied collection based on a simple formula: two skirts, each in short and floor-length, three classically beautiful blouses, and a sleeveless jacket to pop over almost any outfit. They're all available to readers through exclusive FAMILY WEEKLY patterns (see coupon below).

This easy-to-pack checked blouse of Spring Fancy cotton (the same blouse, top right, sans sleeves) tucks into a wild honey Rosella wool skirt, which is a shorter version of the long green one above.

Mitzi's Camden wool skirt (short version of red one) is worn with Tessa Faille acetate-rayon top. Pattern 9448.

Enjoying new vistas (where a little warmth is needed), Mitzi sports a luscious Sandja 98% wool, 2% nylon sleeveless jacket over turtle-neck blouse and slim skirt. A leaf pin adds dash. Pattern 4932.
