

Henley Hornets Overcome Scrappy Lakeview Honkers, 7-6

Basement Battle Set As 49ers Entertain LA Rams

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The San Francisco Forty Niners and the Los Angeles Rams — each working on a winning streak of one game, as the jokers say — meet Sunday at Memorial Coliseum in a battle to get out of the basement of the National Football League's Western Conference.

The Forty Niners stunned football fans last Sunday by upsetting the Chicago Bears, 20-14, and the Rams staged a less impressive upset when they topped Minnesota Vikings, 27-24.

The teams are rated even and an attendance of 40,000 is predicted at the Coliseum.

In 1957, these tail-enders set an all-time pro record attendance of 102,368 in the same stadium.

The Forty Niners were rejuvenated last Sunday in their victory over the Bears by quarterback Lamar McHan, who has been kicking around the NFL for 10 years. He found a good target in an old teammate in a new setting—Gary Knefelc. McHan and Knefelc were together on the old Chicago Cardinals in 1954 and later with Green Bay.

The Rams pulled their upset over the Vikings on a pair of 27-yard field goals in the fourth quarter by Danny Villanueva for the tying and winning points, but a new backfield combination was a large factor.

Coach Harland Svare has settled on second-year man Roman Gabriel as his No. 1 quarterback after a juggling act that included veteran Zeke Bratkowski and rookie Terry Baker.

Rookie Ben Wilson, who started at fullback for the Rams against the Vikings, gets the call again against the Forty Niners. Wilson picked up a total of 55 yards in shots off-tackle and on a wide stiff in the Rams' first TD march against Minnesota.

At left half, Dick Bass, former fullback, will start against the Forty Niners. Bass, a mere midget of 200 pounds among the pros, seems to be more at home at halfback than at fullback. Art Perkins, a 241-pounder, may spell Bass.

Of some comfort to Ram fans is the fact that the only Los Angeles victory in the 1962 season was over the Forty Niners, 28-14.

As an added attraction Les Richter, Ram linebacker for nine seasons, will be honored. He retired at the end of the 1962 season.

Call it the law of averages or the law of gravity, but the New York Knicks were bound to win a ball game.

They finally did Friday night when they scored their first victory of the season following four straight losses with a 136-112 triumph over the Philadelphia 76ers.

The victory still left them in the cellar of the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division but at least it was a step in the right direction.

Philadelphia held an 80-66 lead with 7:40 left in the third period but the Knicks rallied to take a 99-94 lead into the final quarter. Johnny Green of the winners was individual high scorer with 25 points while Len Chappell and Donis Butcher had 23 apiece. Hal Greer led the losers with 20.

The Los Angeles Lakers downed the Cincinnati Royals, 122-109, in the only other game scheduled.

Jerry West paced the Lakers' well-balanced attack with 27 points and Elgin Baylor contributed 22. In addition to scoring 21 points, Rudy LaRusso of the Lakers pulled down 16 rebounds to lead both teams.

Oscar Robertson was high scorer for Cincinnati with 27 points.

GOOD GAIN — Lakeview quarterback Jeff Sullivan (10) rambled for a large gain at Henley Friday night before Hornet defender Dave Jackson (15) closed in for the tackle backed up by guard Don Berry (28). The Hornets came through with a close 7-6 victory.

Palmer, Player In Tie

PARIS (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus shot a six-under-par 66 today to tie the Gary Player of South Africa at 205 for the individual lead in the third round of the Canada Cup and international trophy golf matches today.

Arnold Palmer, Nicklaus' partner shot an even par 72 for a total of 211.

That gave the United States a team total of 416, tying them with Spain for the lead in the team competition.

South Africa, which held a one stroke team lead going into today's play, was in third place with a total of 417, followed by Australia with 420 and Canada with 422.

Nicklaus went out in 35, one under par, but burned up the back nine with five birdies for a 31 to tie Player, who had started out the day one shot in front of both Nicklaus and Palmer.

Player had nines of 33 and 34 over the 6,834-yard St. Nom La Brettenche course, 12 miles outside of Paris.

The favored Palmer went out in 35, one under the card, but had three bogeys against only two birdies coming home for a 37.

Following Nicklaus and Player in the individual race came Ramon Sota of Spain, who shot a 68 today for a total of 207. Two strokes further back on 209 came Bruce Crampton of Australia, with 67 today, and Sebastian Miguel of Spain, with a 72.

Al Balding of Canada, who started the third round tied with Player, shot a two over par 73 for a total of 211. Tied with him at that total were his playing partner, Stan Leonard and Grace Devlin of Australia. Both Leonard and Devlin had third round 71's.

HOMECOMING QUEEN — Henley Homecoming Queen Karen Gentry is crowned by LeVoy Young during halftime of the Henley-Lakeview Rogue Valley League contest at Henley. Queen Karen was elected by ballots of the team members.

Packers Eye Colts; 49ers Meet Rams

United Press International
John Roach trades in his earphones for a football Sunday, knowing full well that on his strong right arm rests the hopes of the Green Bay Packers for a fourth successive National Football League Western Division crown.

The soft-spoken Texan, who has been riding the bench for the past two years spending almost all his time on the telephone to the Green Bay press box scout, replaces regular quarterback Bart Starr, out from two to six weeks with a broken bone in his throwing hand.

The Packers, despite the loss of Starr and a "jinx" that has seen them win just once in Baltimore since Vince Lombardi took over as Green Bay coach in 1959, are favored by seven points to dump the Colts and virtually eliminate them from the 1963 title chase.

The Chicago Bears, tied with the Packers for the Western Division lead with a 5-1 record, return home following last Sunday's upset loss to the San Francisco Forty Niners and take on the injury-plagued Philadelphia Eagles (2-3-1), another team with quarterback troubles.

Hill Replaces Jurgensen
King Hill, a teammate of Roach with the St. Louis Cardinals until both were traded in 1961, has replaced injured Eagles quarterback Sonny Jurgensen. Linebacker Maxie Baughan and flanker Tommy McDonnell are doubtful starters for the Eagles. The Bears are favored by 15 points.

Defending Eastern Division champion New York (4-2) gets its last shot at Jimmy Brown and the unbeaten Cleveland Browns. Brown needs only 79 yards to top the 1,000 yard rushing mark for the fifth time in his career and could be on his way to the league's first 2,000 yard year. Cleveland has been installed a 5-point favorite.

In other games Sunday, the Washington Redskins (2-4) are at home against the Cardinals (4-2); the Pittsburgh Steelers (5-2) are host to the Dallas Cowboys (1-5); the Detroit Lions (2-4) host the Minnesota Vikings (2-4) and the Forty Niners and the Los Angeles Rams, both of whom won their first games last week, meet at San Francisco.

League Second-Place Tie Gain By Triumph

Honker quarterback Jeff Sullivan attempted 17 passes and completed nine for 81 yards. Lakeview fullback Rich Drinkwater passed just once and it was good for 42 yards to halfback Neal Meisner.

Both touchdowns came in the second quarter after a first-period duel which saw each team drive deep in the other's territory.

Lakeview got control of the ball on its own 14 halfway through the first period when Henley ran out of downs.

The Honkers stuck to the ground and captured two first downs and pushed the ball to the Henley 46 in nine plays. Then, Drinkwater uncorked a long toss to Meisner on the Henley 18 and he rambled on for another six yards before being brought down.

After two more ground plays, the ball stood on the nine-yard line and Lakeview quarterback Sullivan passed to halfback Greg Tracey for five yards. Then Sullivan sneaked through the line for three more yards and the Honkers had a first down on the Henley one-yard line.

And that's where the quarter ended.

After changing sides, on the next play Drinkwater plunged over for the touchdown.

The conversion pass was intercepted and the score stood 6-0.

After the kickoff, Henley's groundgame went to work on its own 38.

Henley quarterback Steve Rand used fullback Bill Fisher and halfbacks LeVoy Young and Kim Hale and marched to the Lakeview six-yard line in 14 plays while picking up three first downs. From the six, Fisher slanted over right tackle for the touchdown and Young ran the extra point. The score stood at 7-6 with 5:45 left in the second period.

The rest of the period saw the ball seessaw back and forth and neither team was able to penetrate deeply into the other's territory until late in the quarter.

Lakeview got the ball from Henley on downs on the Henley 46. A penalty took it back to the Lakeview 49. Sullivan passed once incomplete and then hit halfback Vern Plato for a 19-yard gain to the Henley 32.

Sullivan passed incomplete again with 12 seconds left in the half and then passed to Plato again for nine yards, but the clock ran out before the Honkers could reach the goal line.

After half-time ceremonies, the teams again ran up and down the field with neither squad being able to get inside the other's 15 until late in the fourth period.

Henley recovered a Honker fumble on its own 27 and again put its halfbacks and fullback to work, marching 53 yards to the Lakeview 20 in nine plays.

A 15-yard penalty against Lakeview put the ball on the 15-yard line.

Halfback Fred Rodriguez went for five yards and again for three. Hale gained 4 and a first-down on the Lakeview seven-yard line with five seconds left in the game.

But the last play didn't do it as Fisher was caught for a one-yard loss and the game ended with the score 7-6.

Eagles' Sale Closer

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Inquirer reported today that a New York-Philadelphia group of businessmen has made a "substantially higher" offer to purchase the franchise of the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

The newspaper said the group reportedly offered $4,750,000 which tops by $200,000 a recent offer made by George B. Storer, owner of coast-to-coast television and radio stations.

The group is headed by Jack L. Wolgin, of Rydal, Pa., head of the Atlas Credit Corp., one of the nation's largest finance firms.

The Inquirer said Wolgin presented his offer and $100,000 check to Eagles President Frank L. McNamee but that McNamee had declined to discuss it saying details "should come from people who made the offer."

Wolgin said more than half of the capital in the offer comes from Philadelphians who are interested in keeping the Eagles at home.

It was also rumored but not confirmed that Michael O'Neill who with McNamee is empowered by the stockholders to handle the club's negotiations, has resigned. O'Neill could not be reached for comment.

Archer To Seek Ring 2nd Chance

NEW YORK (UPI) — Irish Joey Archer, a superb boxer, will file a middleweight title challenge and $2,500 check with the New York State Athletic Commission Monday, because of his controversial upset decision Friday night over slugger Rubin (Hurricane) Carter, top contender.

Dick Tiger of Nigeria is world champion.

Rangy, brown-haired Archer of New York staggered to a split victory over Carter of Paterson, N.J., who had 25-year-old Joey on the verge of a knockout in the final round at Madison Square Garden before 8,592 electrified spectators.

Their thrilling 10-round fight was not televised.

Archer, a 2-1 underdog, was awarded a split decision at the finish, for his seventh straight win. It was on a rounds basis as follows: Referee Arthur Mercante, 5-4-1, and Judge Tony Castellano, 6-4. But Judge Al Berl had Carter ahead, 5-4-1.

The United Press International also favored Carter, 5-4-1, and a poll of 15 writers at the ringside had Carter narrowly ahead, 8-7-1.

Archer weighed 161 pounds to 26-year-old Carter's 138.
