

New Leads Uncovered

PORTLAND (UPI) — Sheriff Donald Clark said today "several new leads" had turned up in the search for the slayer of Nona Jackson, 28, whose body was found Sunday.

The body of the divorcee and mother of three children was found near a lover's lane east of here. She apparently had been dead for more than three months.

Cause of death has not been determined.

Accident Costs Tot 2 Fingers

NYSSA, Ore. (UPI) — Lois Morrison, 2½, lost two fingers Tuesday when a four-year-old playmate brought an axe down on a chopping block.

The child's father, Rom Morrison, Caldwell, Idaho, said the youngster was visiting at the home of her grandparents near here when the incident occurred. He said she took a piece of wood to the boy who was using the axe and that the playmate chopped the wood and cut her fingers at the same time.

Crippled Children Care Faces Cut

PORTLAND (UPI) — About 175 crippled children may not receive care at the University of Oregon Medical School next year because of voter turn-down of the legislature's tax measure Oct. 15, the State Board of Higher Education was told today.

Dr. Roy Lieuallen, chancellor, said a reduction of $110,000 in the budget of the crippled children's division of the school was "indicated" by the State Department of Finance.

The service reduction figure is based on an average cost of $625 per child patient. Dr. Lieuallen said it apparently will be necessary to close 34 beds at the Medical School hospital as a result of a $639,000 slash indicated for the hospital budget. This is in addition to the crippled children's division cut, he said.

He also said it apparently will be necessary to cut the number of patient visits at the hospital's out-patient clinics because of a $20,000 per year slash.

Crash Claims Oregon Man

JUNTURA, Ore. (UPI) — Marion Wyley Gardner, 70, Dallas, Ore., was killed Tuesday night when the car in which he was riding hit the trailer of a truck on U.S. Highway 20.

John Francis, 67, Portland, Ore., driver of the car, was injured. He was hospitalized at Ontario, Ore. His condition was reported to be satisfactory. The driver of the truck was Cecil Vogts, Payette, Idaho.

Airlift Troops Maneuver In Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — More than 15,000 troops flown to Germany in Operation Big Lift went into action today in a maneuver designed to test whether such airlifts can stop an aggressor.

The 2nd Armored Division, flown to bases here from Ft. Hood, Tex., in less than three days in the largest trans-oceanic airlift in history, was playing the role of defender in a mock war that will range over 7,500 square miles of West German territory for the next week.

The maneuver area is about 50 miles from the Iron Curtain between East and West Germany. It runs north and south parallel with the border.

Action will range from patrol skirmishes to nuclear attacks.

"Neither side will use its atomic weapons right away," an Army spokesman said. "But to make this realistic, we must assume that either side would resort to nuclear weapons rather than let itself be destroyed."

Deployed to the east of Frankfurt and armed with the tanks and guns they picked up from storage depots in Europe, the troops of the "Hell on Wheels" division had orders to come to the aid of another armored unit overrun by invaders from the northeast.

No names were named but this is exactly the situation an airlifted division could face in the event of aggression launched from Communist East Germany.

OLYMPIA BEER

Some of our best friends are name droppers

Seems like folks think "Oly" is quicker to say. Has a friendlier feel to it. Anyway, we want you to know that we like being on such good terms with people who know a refreshing light beer when they taste it. Even though we stick to the full name, Olympia, on our labels and things, we hope you'll keep right on calling for an "Oly" whenever the notion strikes... you're sure of getting a beer of distinctive character and quality. The difference is pure and simple: One ingredient is priceless: "It's the Water"

Visitors are always welcome at the Olympia Brewing Company, Tumwater, near Olympia, Washington, 8:00 to 4:30 every day. Oly

TVA Issue Becomes Hot Potato

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A political hot potato, the suggestion that the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) be sold to private interests, has been tossed back into the lap of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R - Ariz., as "unthinkable."

Tennessee's two senators, almost all of the congressional delegation, and two top TVA officials headed a list attacking the proposal of the Republican presidential hopeful.

In a letter released last weekend, Goldwater said: "I am quite serious in my belief that TVA should be sold."

Tuesday, without mentioning Goldwater by name, TVA Board Chairman Aubrey J. Wagner dismissed the idea as being ignorant of the "facts" and "irresponsible."

A director of the $2.5 billion dollar seven-state agency, Frank E. Smith said "Goldwater might find TVA an issue in Tennessee."

Sen. Herbert S. Walters issued a statement in Washington not mentioning Goldwater's name but attacking his opinion. "Recent suggestion that the sale of TVA to private interests would be to the benefit of Tennessee and the nation," Walters said, "are certainly without any basis of fact."

In the letter to Rep. Richard Fulton, D - Tenn., of Nashville, Goldwater had said the vast agency pays only five per cent of its annual gross to local governments, but would have to pay five and one-half times that much if it bore a tax levy comparable to those of private business.

Tuesday, in a speech before the Knoxville Rotary Club, Wagner said TVA pays no federal income tax because the federal government owns the agency "lock, stock and barrel including 100 per cent—not just 32 per cent of its net income."

"Remember," the board chairman continued "that income tax is a tax on net income, not on gross income as the calculations of some TVA critics indicate they apparently believe."

He said TVA actually paid out some $29.4 million in 1963 to the states and counties in which it operates, making it the largest single taxpayer in the state of Tennessee.
