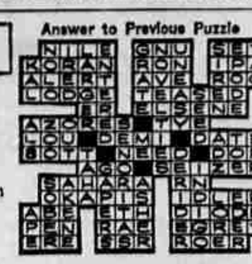
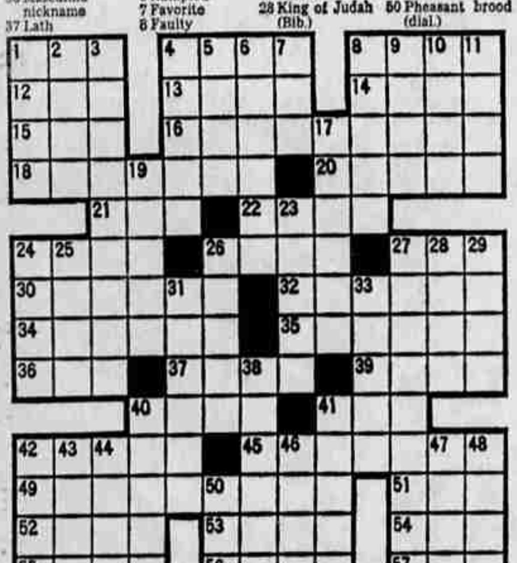
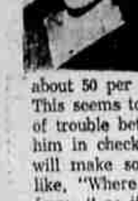
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Don't Take Dive To Appease Dad

By ANN LANDERS



Dear Ann Landers: I am a chess maniac. Not a very accomplished one, but I enjoy the game and I'm trying out for membership in our chess club at school.

Now that I've improved I can checkmate my father's king about 50 per cent of the time. This seems to be causing a lot of trouble between us. If I put him in check with a piece he will make some snide remark like, "Where did that come from—" as if I had cheated.

When he finds he's beaten, he makes up an excuse to quit or "accidentally" tips over the board. Yesterday I beat him twice and he got so mad he almost hit me.

To be honest with you I don't want to play chess with my father anymore. My mother says I should play with him but that I ought to let him win, so we can have peace in the house. Do you agree?—SIXTEEN PIECES OF TROUBLE

Dear Sixteen: I do not agree. What your mother calls peace is real appeasement. She is asking you to knuckle under to escape your father's wrath.

A person of integrity does not take a dive for any reason whatever. Do your home work during the evening and play chess with your friends.

Dear Ann Landers: Will you please clarify something for a group of south side commuters? In a recent column a woman said of her sloppy office colleague, "If her garter breaks she doesn't bother to sew it on She just pins the stocking to her girdle. When she crosses her legs the pin and dirty slip show. It is revolting."

We girls have been experimenting and we find it impossible to pin a stocking to anything without ripping it and causing runs. So that slob must be pinning her garter to her girdle. Even so, how does she cross her legs and reveal the pin job without hiking her dress way up? Please clarify this one in the paper.—NON-BELIEVERS

Dear Non: All it takes is a long girdle, and extra large safety pin, and a sloppy girl who doesn't care how she sits.

Your letter was a challenge so I did some experimenting myself—at home, not at the office—and it can be done. Incidentally, girls, the dress needn't be hiked "way up." With the current hemlines, it's already there.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 40 and still single. My fiance is 24 and a Sea Bee. Mert and I have been going together four years.

Because of his career we are separated a great deal of the time. Mert has to travel 500 miles to visit me when he is on shore and able to leave the port. We manage to see each other about seven times a year.

Mert had an unsuccessful marriage 10 years ago and claims the marriage failed because he had to be away from home so much. He says he loves me but will not marry again until he retires from the Sea Bees, which will be in 14 months.

Does this reason sound like a good one—or do you think he is stringing me along? Mert writes once a week and telephones long distance whenever he can. Please help me see this situation clearly. — VISION BLURRED.

Dear Vision: I believe your Sea Bee's judgment is securely anchored to reality.

Since you've already invested four years in Mert and he is thinking in terms of marriage, be patient and go along with him.

Confidential to Bolt From The Blue: So now that you've learned the score why don't you wipe the egg off your face and find another girl? If you hang around now you deserve whatever you get.

"The Bride's Guide," Ann Landers' newest booklet, gives authoritative and complete information on how to plan a wedding. To receive your copy of this comprehensive guide, write to Ann Landers, in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The preliminary hearing for Isabel Rodriguez and his brother, Thomas, both charged with the first degree murder of Richard "Rudy" Rodriguez, 42-year-old itinerant potato harvest worker, was continued until next Monday, it developed Wednesday in district court.

The hearing opened in court Tuesday and was to have resumed the following morning, but the county's two circuit courts required the services of both court reporters for the remainder of the week. Because a reporter would not be available before Monday, District Judge Robert B. Kerr continued the hearing until that time.

The Rodriguez brothers are accused of the pistol slaying of Richard Rodriguez, no relation, during a shooting that occurred in an automobile near Merrill, early Wednesday morning. The three men were among seven farm itinerants who were occupants of the vehicle at the time of the shooting. Isabel has admitted to the slaying and both he and his brother told of disposing of the body.

Several hours after the shooting, Thomas was arrested by Siskiyou County sheriff's deputies as he was driving through Weed, Calif. His brother was apprehended by state police later the same day as he was driving through Bend with a woman companion.

216 Pints Of Blood Collected

Civilians and military personnel donated 216 pints of blood to the American Red Cross when the bloodmobile was at Kingsley Field Tuesday, the Information Office of the air field has reported.

The figure hiked the air field's total for the year to 616 pints, or 166 more than its quota of 450 set for 1963. It marked the third time that the bloodmobile had called at Kingsley Field this year.

Forty pints of blood had been collected in behalf of James Small, a University of California student who was critically injured when he was pulled into the propellor of a boat while swimming in San Francisco Bay. The youth later succumbed of his injuries.

Cuba Cut Off By Post Office

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Post Office Department has suspended all parcel post shipments to Cuba, except medicine, because of reports that the Castro regime has confiscated contents of some packages.

Assistant Postmaster General William J. Hartigan said Tuesday that the action was taken after conferences with State Department officials.

Sheriff Confab

SEASIDE (UPI) — The annual conference of the Oregon State Sheriff's Association will be held here Dec. 5-6.
