

Players Club 8 And 40 Meets Plan Dinner

The Players Club will meet in the Moose Hall for a 6:30 p.m. dinner on Nov. 6. The affair is open to members and their guests.

Bridge and pinochle will be played after dinner. Reservations should be made by calling TU 4-6693 or TU 4-9214 by Monday, Nov. 4.

The last party was held in the American Legion Hall on Oct. 16 with Elizabeth Smith, Elva Sullivan and Marge Crowder as hostesses.

A Halloween motif was carried out in decorations and tables.

Three tables of bridge and six tables of pinochle were in play. Bridge prizes were won by Eva Cook, high, and Ariena Schubert, low. Vancy Denn was high in pinochle and Stella Persell, low.

Halloween decorations, pumpkins and spoons greeted the members of the Eight and Forty, a subsidiary of the American Legion Auxiliary, when Mrs. John Glubrecht invited the organization to hold the October meeting at her home on Loma Linda Drive. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. R. G. Motschenbacher, Mrs. Katherine Keep and Mrs. James Fowler.

Mrs. C. F. O'Loughlin, president, announced plans for the annual 40 and 8 breakfast, which the group will serve, are nearly complete. She will act as chairman and announced her committee, Mrs. Alford Peterstein, Mrs. R. G. Motschenbacher, Mrs. Carl Schubert, Mrs. Fannie May Thompson and Mrs. Fred Heilbronner.

Games and refreshments followed the business session. The next meeting will be Nov. 20 at the home of Mrs. Fred Heilbronner.

NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Earl Phair Jr., whose marriage took place Sept. 4 in the Los Angeles Temple, are shown at a later reception at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Phair is the former Susan Gail Emmett of Portland. — Photo by Ferebee

Young Couple Feted At Wedding Reception

A reception Sept. 12 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Home and Martin streets, honored Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Earl Phair Jr. The bride is the former Susan Gail Emmett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Y. Emmett, Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Earl Phair Sr., this city, are parents of the bridegroom.

The young couple were united in marriage Sept. 4 in the Los Angeles Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. President Benjamin B. Rowling officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Decorations for the reception were gladioli and chrysanthemums, all white, with gold ribbon streamers.

The bride wore a gown of white satin styled as a sheath with long train formed by gathering at the hips. The fitted bodice featured long sleeves and sweetheart neckline outlined with lace appliques which were repeated down the front of the skirt. A pearl-trimmed satin triangle headpiece held the bouffant veil. She carried a long slender bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums with emerald green ribbon streamers. A single strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Suzanne Phair, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Frederick Cornilles, Portland, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Another sister of the bridegroom, Joanne Phair, was bridesmaid.

The attendants were dressed alike in floor length gowns of emerald green taffeta with green and gold brocade bodices. Green head bows and gold slippers completed their outfits. Each carried a nosegay of gardenias.

Karen and Nancy Cornilles, nieces of the bride, were flower girls and were dressed like the other attendants. They carried white baskets of rice.

Gary Phair was best man for his brother. Groomsman were another brother, Robert Phair, and David Emmett and Frederick Cornilles, both of Portland.

For the occasion Mrs. Emmett wore a yellow and green silk print dress and Mrs. Phair, a beige brocade with matching shoes. Both mothers had corsages of white yellow-throated orchids.

The bride's table held the four tiered gold trimmed wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Gardenias encircled the base. It was served by Mrs. Royce Shaffer, Mrs. Cecil Lake and Mrs. Carl Peterson. Mrs. Harold Catmull and Mrs. John Fry presided at the punch bowls. Marsha Griggs attended the guest book and Karen Bleak and Jerilyn Peacock received gifts.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Phair spent their honeymoon along the coast of California. Mrs. Phair's travel outfit was a beige two-piece knit embroidered with small brown flowers on the bodice. Her accessories were brown.

Mrs. Phair is a graduate of Brigham Young University where her husband is now continuing his studies after completing a two-and-a-half year mission in Germany. They will reside in Provo, Utah.

Special guests at the reception were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mrs. Ruby Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lewis, this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Ray Hassell and Mr. and Mrs. Collins Hassell, Ashland.

FETED IN KLAMATH FALLS — Mr. and Mrs. Gary Richard Phair, who were married Sept. 6 in the Arizona Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, were honored at a reception given by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Phair, at their home on Sept. 14. The bride is the former Sherry Ann Mills of Tempe, Ariz. — Photo by Ferebee

KJ Reception Follows Arizona Temple Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Earl Phair Sr. were hosts Sept. 14 at a reception in their home, 2705 Watson Drive, honoring their son, Gary Richard Phair and his bride, the former Sherry Ann Mills. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gayland R. Mills, Tempe, Ariz.

The young couple were married Sept. 6 in the Arizona Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. President Jesse M. Smith, Mesa Temple, performed the double ring ceremony.

For the nuptial festivities in Klamath Falls, the bride selected a gown of satin faille, floor length, enhanced by bows of the same fabric. Her fitted bodice featured a round neck and traditional long sleeves pointed at the wrist. A mantilla of imported Alencon lace and silk illusion framed her face. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of gardenias, tube roses, accented with ivy leaves and satin shower. A gold chain with pearl drop was a gift of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Charlene Mills, Tempe, and the bridegroom's sisters, Sue Phair and Joanne Phair. Their dresses were floor length of coral delustered satin with jackets and bell-type skirts. Slippers and headpieces were also coral in color. Their bouquets were cascades of white gladiolus, tube roses and ivy.

Elmo Keck was best man and Ronald Phair Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was groomsman.

Mrs. Mills chose for her daughter's reception a blue lace dress with matching shoes and corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Phair wore a beige satin brocade dress with matching shoes and beige orchid corsage.

Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Royce Shaffer, Mrs. C. E. Petersen, Mrs. Harold Catmull and Mrs. John Fry. Beverly Goodman was in charge of the guest book and Karen Bleak and Jerilyn Peacock received gifts.

During the reception Sue Phair and Elmo Keck sang several solos and duets.

The newlyweds left after the reception for a trip through Oregon to Provo, Utah, where they will make their home while both continue their studies at Brigham Young University.

Mrs. Phair's travel outfit was a beige costume.

The bride is a graduate of Tempe Union High School and has attended Brigham Young University three years, majoring in music education. She was a member of Tokalon social unit, is affiliated with Chi Triellas culture unit and is a member of a cappella choir.

The bridegroom attended BYU three years before serving a two and a half year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Uruguay. He is majoring in foreign languages and is also a member of the cappella choir.

Among the reception guests were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mrs. Ruby Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lewis.

ARTIST'S WORKS SHOWN — Richard W. Tyler is shown at work in his studio at Homer, Alaska, where he spends the summer months. His paintings will be shown during the month of November at the Klamath Art Gallery. The show opens today between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

Gallery Show Opens Sunday

The works of an Alaskan artist, Richard W. Tyler, will be shown during November at the Klamath Art Gallery in Maple Park, Main and Riverside streets.

Richard W. Tyler has been teaching for nine years in the small Alaskan village of Homer. This farthest north point of land to which one may drive from Anchorage is an old Russian port on Kachemac Bay. It is here in this beautiful land that the artist lives and paints during the summer. In the winter he drives south to California and the mother lode country near Virginia City and to Modesto, his home town.

He has had three one-man shows in Alaska and several in Sacramento and San Francisco. Some of his paintings are on permanent display in a large bank in Sacramento and also at that city's art gallery. He taught painting in Sacramento after he majored in art at the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland.

Richard Tyler is a very clever water colorist and catches the authentic and often humorous feeling of old buildings from all over California, Oregon and Alaska. He has developed a technique resembling old Chinese wood blocks, but where he uses his water color as a medium.

These realistic fresh paintings will be enjoyed by all who visit the Klamath Art Gallery each Sunday during November. Hours are from 2 until 5 p.m. beginning today, Nov. 3.

Mrs. Nelson served the past several years as clerk at the Silver Lake station office. Dancing and visiting provided entertainment for the evening, with refreshments served buffet style. The group presented a gift to Mrs. Nelson to use in her new home.

Former residents at the station who returned for the gala party were Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Stone of Bly. Local personnel attending in addition to the Garricks were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smokey, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Spink, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar King and Jim Schallas.

Summer staff members attending who have now left for their homes and college included Helen Iverson and Terry Kinsey, Silver Lake; Patricia Turner, Portland; Joe Gray, Chicago, and John Laishav who resides in Tennessee. A guest along with the Nelsons was their niece.

Engagement Is Announced

LAKEVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chandler of Lakeview announce the engagement of their daughter, Gloria Anne, to Paul T. Groth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Groth of DelLake. She is a 1962 graduate of Lakeview High School and Merritt Davis School of Commerce, Salem. Her fiance is a 1960 graduate of Taft High School, attended trade school at Tacoma, and is now employed at Salem. The wedding will take place in Lakeview on Dec. 28.

Furniture Talk

"HOME FURNISHING IS OUR BUSINESS"

By BOB CUSHMAN

YOUNG BUDGETS and the best of home furnishings might seem to be at odds. Few of us can put up with very long bare rooms, or rooms so sparsely furnished that they look bare.

Nevertheless, a modest budget can be put to strategic use in creating a beautiful home. If there is any "key" it is in making your major expenses where they will be most visible and most functional.

The living room is the most important room — the place where you entertain and do most of your family living. Budget your major expenses here. A really good sofa and as little as one fine chair will go a long way. You can fill in with cushions for casual seating temporarily, or with a bench or occasional chair you might use later in another room.

A handsome coffee table and a versatile nest of tables will help to give your room a completely furnished look. An attractive area rug can be used if you can't afford wall-to-wall carpeting. And you can bring color and beauty to your walls with inexpensive prints of fine paintings.

Try, in other words, to make a few really good pieces go a long way. Don't buy a lot of inexpensive furniture you'll only have to replace. We'll gladly advise you on the wise allocation of your decorating budget, to get the best for the least. Stop in and talk over your plans.

When you are choosing your hair-do, consider your neck—with a short, thick neck, you should endeavor to create an illusion of height. Try a short, simple or upwired hair-do like a pointed shingle, pony tail or Chignon atop your head. Remember also the collarline must be considered. Collarless coats, oval or deep "V" necklines will make your neck look longer.

If your problem is a long thin neck, the most flattering hair styles are long and bouffant. High collars, wide lapels, heavy checkers, scarves and bows will make it appear shorter.
